VALUES TO LIVE BY

Today's scriptures contain some catch phrases that are still quite familiar in our world: "All is vanity," and "Eat, drink, and be merry" are both scriptural in origin. In the same way that it is easy to pray last week's Lord's Prayer thoughtlessly, it is easy to let the potent passages of scripture that are built on these common sayings glide right off our slick ears.

Last week's scriptures instructed us to listen attentively to the Lord, so that we might pray carefully. Our listening and our prayer are intimately connected. In the same way, this week we learn that our values and our living are connected as well. It has become quite common to ask, "Do you own your possessions or do they own you?" Like the familiar maxims from today's readings, we might be tempted to quote this saying flippantly, and think that in the quoting of it we have truly considered it, perhaps lived it. Not true, Qoheleth, Paul, and Jesus tell us today. It is not wrong to treasure or cherish things of earth or of our own humanity; it is only wrong when those things we cherish are not of God, are not of the self-giving Christ. © Copyright, J. S. Are You A Registered Parishioner?

Please do not take for granted that you are registered in the parish just because you attend Mass here. It could be quite embarrassing to us, to you, and to your family when someone wants to make wedding plans, have a baby baptized, or if you are asked to be a Sponsor for Baptism or Confirmation requiring a note of Catholicity from us. If we have no record of your membership, we cannot provide these services for you. Registrations forms are available in the narthex and in the parish office.

Thoughts from Fr. Bob

Two weeks ago Bishop Dewane installed me as pastor of St. Agnes, a ceremony that followed my late April assignment here as pastor. I am very grateful to all of our parishioners whether or not they were able to make it to the installation Mass, and especially members of the staff, pastoral council and finance council who were present as formal witnesses of the ceremony. The Knights of Columbus color corps did a great job providing honors and the choir even came out of summer dormancy for a command performance! I will strive to be a good shepherd, relying on the guidance of the Holy Spirit as we together progress on our walk with Christ. Please keep me in your prayers, as I will remember you in mine.

Have you seen the change in the wooded areas surrounding church? It's looking more beautiful and park-like every week. The Knights of Columbus and some other volunteers have been busy clearing brush to abide by county requirements for removal of non-native plants and generally beautify the grounds. They begin early Saturday mornings. This work would cost a great deal if it were not for the generosity of parishioners who are donating their equipment, time and muscle to be good stewards of the beautiful grounds around the parish. This is a prime example of stewardship, giving of time and talent for the good of the community. If you have the equipment and/or strength to assist, please join us. Contact the parish office to let us know of your availability.

World Youth Day 2011 in Madrid is more than a year off, but the deadline for registering is here. If parents and teens haven't already attended our informational meeting or contacted us to express interest, now is the time. We're looking for older high school and college students from the parish to attend. We have already done and will continue to do substantial fundraising to defray the cost. Having been to WYD in Denver in '93 and Toronto in '02, I can tell you that there is no more powerful and graced setting for young people to experience the universal Church and be strengthened in their faith. For more information or to sign up, contact Ivy O'Malley in our office early this week.

Regional Safe Environment Training:

All diocesan employees...clergy, religious, laity.. and those volunteers who have routine contact with children or vulnerable adults, MUST BE TRAINED in safe environment awareness issues. No one should attend Safe Environment Training until their fingerprints have cleared. Continued employment/volunteer status requires that you attend one of these sessions. Please contact the parish secretary with your name and telephone number at least two weeks prior to the training or you may register online at www.dovsafe.org. Please share this information with all parish/school staff and volunteers. Due to the sensitive nature of this training, no children are permitted to attend. Two training sessions are scheduled at St. Agnes. The dates are: August 12th, 6:00-8:00pm and August 14th, 9:30-11:30am.

URGENT REQUEST

Collier Pregnancy Center is a life-affirming medical clinic in urgent need of size 4 & 5 diapers. Please help a baby stay healthy and dry by donating diapers today. Diapers can be dropped off at the parish office or call 239.262.6381.

THIRSTING FOR GOD?

We are created in God's image & naturally drawn to His love! Do you know someone who is not baptized or baptized in a non-Catholic Christian tradition, who is thirsting for what it means to become Catholic? Do you know someone who is already Catholic but has not yet received Confirmation or First Communion? They may be thirsting too! The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a place where these people you know can ask questions and seek understanding. Weekly "no obligation" Inquiry Sessions start on Sunday, Sept. 19 at 10am in the Bride's Room of the Chapel. For more information contact Ivy in the parish office or by email: Ivy@StAgnesNaples.org.

VALORES PARA VIVIR

Hoy el mensaje de las Escrituras contiene algunas frases todavía familiares en nuestro mundo: “Todo es vanidad” y “come, bebe y sé feliz” tienen su origen en la Biblia. Así como resulta fácil rezar el Padre Nuestro sin pensar, también es fácil dejar que los potentes mensajes bíblicos que se fundan en dichos de sentido común se deslicen por nuestros resbaladizos oídos.

El mensaje bíblico de la semana pasada nos instruyó a escuchar atentamente al Señor, para que podamos rezar con cuidado. Nuestro oír y nuestro rezar están íntimamente ligados. De igual manera, esta semana aprendemos que nuestros valores y nuestra vida también están ligados. Se ha tornado común preguntar: “¿Eres amor de tus posesiones o son ellas las que te poseen?” Al igual que las máximas de las lecturas de hoy, podemos sentirnos tentados a citarlas sin más, y pensar que al hacerlo verdaderamente las consideramos, y tal vez las vivimos. No es verdad, nos dicen hoy Qohelet, Pablo y Jesús. No es malo atesorar o deleitarnos en las cosas de la tierra o de nuestra propia humanidad; sólo está mal cuando lo que nos deleita no es de Dios, y no son del Cristo que se entrega.

To help parishioners become informed on where candidates stand on key issues, the Florida Catholic Conference has polled those running for state and federal office. To see how candidates on the Aug. 24 primary ballot responded to the Candidate Questionnaire, visit www.flacathconf.org.

Our parish has been asked by the Diocese to commit to one Monday a month to be a part of the prayer vigil at Planned Parenthood, 1425 Creech Road, Naples. We have chosen the second Monday of each month. Planned Parenthood performs abortions every Monday at this facility. The hours are 8:30am to 4:30pm. We invite you to become a part of our silent, peaceful, prayerful vigil each week, especially the second Monday of each month. Come for 15 or 30 minutes or more. If you have any questions, please call Flo Rogers, Respect Life Coordinator, 239-434-5452. PRAY TO END ABORTION

"...Today you will be with me in Paradise." Luke 23:43

The columbarium at St. Agnes allows Parishioners to place the cremains of their loved ones in a memorial setting of the utmost dignity and respect. Pick up a brochure in the narthex or call the parish office to receive information or to purchase a niche.
