Stewardship Thought for the Week:

In the Gospel today, Jesus warns us not to give in to hopes of repayment, but to give openhandedly to the poor and needy. That sort of giving mirrors the bountiful giving of God, and Jesus assures us it is blessed indeed!

The Mass that is celebrated at 5:00 pm on Sundays will resume on September 12 and continue through Palm Sunday.

There will be a Baptism class Sunday, September 26th immediately following the 11:00 Mass in the chapel. All those parents or godparents with a baptism scheduled needing a class and those planning on baptizing a child within the next few months should plan to attend. Please call the parish office to sign up.

NO SURPRISES

We are told by all spiritual writers that one important point to bear in mind, as we seek to attain humility, is not to be surprised by our own faults and failures.

HUMILITY

The biblical virtue of humility often gets mistranslated in our world. Many think of humility as ongoing self-effacement or even self-degradation. Humility, as the scriptures use it, is a sense of true self-awareness, of one's capacities and abilities. A false humility is actually a kind of deceit, and is often a mask for the face of arrogance that lies beneath it. Thus Sirach today tells us not to seek what is too sublime for us, or to search out what is beyond our strength. We are called to have an awareness of what we are able to grasp, and with what we are strong enough to contend. Scriptural humility also has about it an openness to the goodness of others and what is best in them. That is why both Sirach and Luke's Jesus instruct us not to deny our own self-worth, but to be ready to elevate and acclaim what is good or great in others. When we live this way, we are closer to understanding how God views all of us. We ought not place ourselves, but others, first. In living this humble way, we are living out of the heart of God, who is always ready to raise us up in honor at the table of the heavenly banquet.

Life has many storms—in relationships, career, health & other situations of powerlessness... If you know someone who is not baptized or baptized in a non-Catholic Christian tradition, who is searching for strength and understanding to weather such squalls, invite them to seek the perspective the Catholic Church offers. On Sept. 19 after the 9am Mass, our parish will begin weekly “no obligation” inquiry sessions in the Chapel. Perhaps you can accompany them to the first few sessions? These weekly sessions will continue at least until Pentecost of next year. During this time, we will be sharing our faith experiences with each other. This process of welcome into the Catholic Church is called the RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA.) If you are already Catholic but have not received your First Communion or Confirmation yet, we invite you into full communion with the Church through an adapted RCIA curriculum.

HUMILDAD

La virtud bíblica de la humildad a menudo no se traduce bien en nuestro mundo. Muchos piensan que la humildad es un continuo ensimismamiento hasta la auto-degradación. La humildad, tal como se usa en la Biblia, es sentir tener un real conocimiento de las capacidades y habilidades propias. La falsa humildad es en realidad un tipo de engaño, y a menudo enmascara a una arrogancia subyacente. Por eso, Eclesiástico nos dice hoy que no busquemos lo que es demasiado sublime para nosotros, o procuremos lo que está más allá de nuestras fuerzas. Somos llamados a conocer lo que podemos aprehender, y contender con lo que nos alcanzan las fuerzas. La humildad en la Biblia también está abierta a lo bueno en los otros y lo que es mejor para ellos. Es por eso que Eclesiástico y el Jesús según san Lucas nos instruyen que no neguemos nuestro propio valor, sino que estemos listos para elevar y aclamar lo que es bueno o grande en otros. Cuando vivimos de esta manera, estamos más cercanos a entender cómo Dios nos ve a todos. No debemos ponernos en primer lugar, sino pongamos a los demás en primer lugar. Al vivir de esta manera humilde, vivimos según el corazón de Dios, quien está siempre listo para elevarnos en honor a la mesa del banquete celestial.

Todos los escritores espirituales nos dicen que un punto importante que hay que tener en mente, al tratar de alcanzar la humildad, es no sorprendernos por nuestras faltas y fallos.

MINISTERIO DE LA SEMANA

Eucaristía

La celebración de la Eucaristía es el centro de toda la vida cristiana, porque en la sagrada Eucaristía se contiene todo el tesoro espiritual de la Iglesia, es decir, al mismo Cristo, nuestra Pascua y Pan vivo, que, mediante su carne vivificada y vivificante por el Espíritu Santo, da vida a los hombres, invitándoles así y estimulándoles a ofrecer sus trabajos, la creación entera y a sí mismos en unión con él” Es por eso que servir en este ministerio es algo muy especial porque compartes el Pan Vivo con los miembros de la comunidad. Si sientes el llamado de hacer parte de este grupo de personas comunícate con Neyma Garcia.

FREE HIGH SCHOOL MOVIE EVENT & Youth Group Kick-Off!

At St. Agnes on AUG 29 @ 6 PM
 In the Narthex

A movie can't change the world, but the person watching it can. To Save A Life is all about being a person that shows others they have value, so MARK YOUR CALENDAR today and invite someone who needs a friend to watch it with you! (Parents are invited too)

TO SAVE A LIFE Endorsements

"One of the many things I love about the movie To Save A Life is how it portrays in a very real [non-cheesy] way the different pressures teenagers face. It opens doors for students to talk with trusted leaders on where they see themselves in the story."

—Doug Fields, Founder: Simply Youth Ministry & Author: Purpose Driven Youth Ministry

"This generation of teenagers wants to make a difference, but they are bogged down by the most pervasive and life-threatening influences of any previous generation. To Save A Life is a wake-up call for all teenagers to the fact that they are on this earth to give help and hope to their friends."

—Ron Luce, President of Teen Mania

"An Excellent Film. This film is relevant and thought provoking. It is effective at developing a contrast of ideas with today's culture."

—Josh McDowell, Speaker & Author

"Teenagers are going to love the story and cast in To Save A Life. Super realistic portrayal of life on a high school campus — not all fake, like some movies, but the real stuff. This is a movie you'll want to see with friends."

—Mark Oestreicher, President, Youth Specialties

BEREAVEMENT SESSION starting September 28, 2010

If you have lost a loved one in recent months, or even a while ago, we would like to offer you the spiritual and emotional support. The eight sessions will be held on Tuesdays, beginning Sept. 28th from 6:00 to 7:30 P.M. in the bride's room of the Chapel. The series will run weekly. Individuals who participate in our bereavement programs actually become a support group through their interaction with one another. If you think that you or other members of your family would be interested in participating in September, you may register by calling St. Agnes Parish Office at 592-1949.

Are You A Registered Parishioner?

Please do not take for granted that you are registered in the parish just because you attend Mass here. It could be quite embarrassing to us, to you, and to your family when someone wants to make wedding plans, have a baby baptized, or if you are asked to be a Sponsor for Baptism or Confirmation requiring a note of Catholicity from us. If we have no record of your membership, we cannot provide these services for you. Registrations forms are available in the narthex and in the parish office.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

August, 2010

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The National Collection for the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. will be taken up the weekend of September 4 & 5, 2010.

The Catholic University is unique as the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States and the only higher education institution founded by the U.S. Bishops and chartered by the Vatican. It provides an academically rigorous education guided by Catholic intellectual tradition to approximately 6,000 students every year, and has a special responsibility to educate future leaders for our Church and our nation. The Catholic University of America belongs to all of us in the Church regardless of where we live.

The financial sacrifices required of Catholic parents to provide a truly Catholic college education are enormous. All of the funds received through this collection underwrite the financial aid program at the University. Simply put, your contributions directly benefit students at Catholic University from all over the United States, including our own Diocese of Venice in Florida, by funding scholarships for those who would not otherwise be able to attend. Last year, nearly 3,000 students at Catholic University received scholarship support through the funds raised via the National Collection for Catholic University.

Students at Catholic University receive personalized attention in a wide range of programs, combining an excellent liberal arts curriculum with courses in their major fields of study. Grounded in the philosophy of the Catholic intellectual tradition, these students are well prepared and ready to make a lasting contribution to the Church, our nation and the world.

I appeal to you to give generously to the National Collection for The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. May God bless you for your generous support to this appeal.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida
