Fourteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

(Come to Me)

First Reading: Zechariah 9: 9-10 (Your King Comes)

Second Reading: Romans 8: 9, 11-13 (The Spirit Helps)

Gospel: Matthew 11: 25-30 (My Yoke is Easy)

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Adults: When have I been able to see God's blessings in a situation which is difficult? How can such experiences prepare me to face present troubles in my life? ¿En qué momento he visto la bendición de Dios en situaciones difíciles? ¿Cómo es que este tipo de experiencias me preparan para enfrentar los problemas actuales en mi vida?

Children: How can I remember that God is with me not only when my life is easy but when I struggle, not only when I am happy but when I am afraid? ¿Cómo puedo acordarme de que Dios está conmigo no nada más en los tiempos fáciles sino también en los tiempos difíciles, no solo cuando estoy feliz sino cuando tengo miedo?

SIDE BY SIDE

“Come to me, all you who labor” (Matthew 11:28). When we are overburdened, weary, confused, or sick Jesus’ invitation is music to our ears, except for a small hitch. Jesus says, “Take my yoke upon you” (Matthew 11:29). How does this give rest to our souls? For generations, farmers have yoked young plough animals alongside experienced ones. The experienced animal trains the other by example. An older and weaker animal may likewise be yoked to one in its prime, so the stronger partner takes on the strain. Jesus invites us to take on his yoke so he can walk with us, helping us to do things his way. He promised never to leave us to “pull” alone. When it all gets too much or we lose our way, he will be there beside us--gentle, humble, but infinitely powerful and wise. At times when we are strong, we in turn can yoke ourselves to someone who needs that extra pull to get to firmer ground.

FEAST OF FAITH

Two small rites—or, as one liturgist has called them, “little mysteries”—accompany the preparation of the gifts. The priest or deacon takes a small cruet of water from the server and adds a drop of water to the wine. Then, after the elevation of the chalice (and the incensation, if incense is used), the priest washes his hands. Both of these actions were at first practical, matter-of-fact realities: in the ancient world the wine was usually quite thick, and was generally mixed with water before it was drunk. And in the early church, when the faithful brought forward a great variety of gifts at this time, there was a definite need for the presider to wash his hands!

But now these rites serve a purely symbolic function. The mingling of the water and wine is accompanied by a prayer that speaks of the wonderful exchange of the Mass, the mingling of Christ’s divinity and our humanity. And as the priest washes his hands, he prays words of supplication from Psalm 51, acknowledging his own sinfulness in the presence of the assembly before he dares to approach the altar for this most sacred action.

COMPARTE LA CARGA

“Vengan a mí, todos los que están fatigados y agobiados por la carga, y yo los aliviare” (Mateo 11:28). Estas palabras de nuestro Salvador son un gran contraste con el previo capítulo del mismo Evangelio, cuando nos dice que si no cargamos nuestra propia cruz, no somos dignos de Cristo. Relacionar estos dos mensajes puede ayudarnos en nuestro camino de fe. Ser seguidor de Cristo ciertamente significa que debemos abrazar la cruz, en su misterio que es sufrimiento y triunfo a la vez. Es algo que no necesitamos hacer solos, ya que la carga suele ser demasiado pesada para llevarla sin ayuda. ¿A quién volcarnos entonces? Podemos volcarnos al Cuerpo de Cristo, a la comunidad de discípulos reunidos para el culto. Cuando sintamos que la carga es demasiado pesada, recordemos que podemos compartirla con nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Cristo que pueden traernos descanso. © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

The Function of Musicians

If we, the gathered assembly, are the primary music ministers, what is the function of those whom we label music ministers?

They lead us in our songs. They provide the mechanics that enable us to sing together and in tune. Their formation and expertise in liturgical music enables them to select appropriate songs for this community to celebrate this liturgy with these readings on this particular day. Among other things, they can on occasion provide solo music for inspiration (perhaps during the preparation of the gifts) or can also enhance the ambiance (for example, through prelude and postlude music).

Las Funciones de los Músicos

Si nosotros, la asamblea congregada, somos los principales ministros de la música, ¿cuál es la función de aquellos que catalogamos como ministros de la música?

Ellos nos dirigen en nuestros cantos. Nos proporcionan el método que nos permite cantar juntos y entonados. Su formación y competencia en la música litúrgica los capacita para seleccionar los cantos apropiados para que esta comunidad celebre esta Liturgia, con estas lecturas, en este día en particular. Entre otras cosas, según la ocasión, pueden proporcionar sólo música que sirva de inspiración (tal vez durante la preparación de las ofrendas) o también pueden enriquecer el ambiente (por ejemplo, con la música en el preludio y al final).

HAPPILY MARRIED COUPLES:

Your honeymoon was a special time. Wherever you went, the things you saw and did were secondary.

Just being together was most important. The Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend has the same focus. The weekend centers entirely on your relationship. It is a positive, simple common sense, private experience between you and your spouse that revitalizes marriage by helping you to see again those loving qualities in each other that you may be taking for granted.

The next weekends in this diocese are July 22-24 in Ft Myers and November 4-6th in Sarasota. For more info email swflwwme@yahoo.com ; or call (239) 458 8205 or visit wwme.org
