EYES WIDE OPEN

In today's Gospel, Cleopas and another disciple--perhaps a friend, or even his wife--were joined on the way to Emmaus by a stranger who asked about their conversation. Listening intently to their story of Jesus' death and resurrection, he explained it in the context of the Jewish scriptures. The two were too blinded by grief to realize who the stranger was. In Emmaus they persuaded him stay for dinner. When Jesus broke the bread and gave thanks "their eyes were opened" and they recognized their guest (Luke 24:31). They were awakened to the whole new reality of God's grace falling on them at the dinner table or hurrying down the road. God's grace falls on us, smack dab in the ordinary moments, in the checkout line, at a sick relative's bedside, during phone calls and driving the car to pick up the kids. The Emmaus story says that God is alive, right now. Wake up and see!

GOD'S PLAN

Saint Peter speaks to us twice today. In the first reading, we hear an excerpt from his sermon on Pentecost; in the second, part of his first letter. Once a frightened, uneducated fisherman who often said just the wrong thing, now Peter is speaking what he knows to be true. Everything Jesus had said now makes sense. His death and rising were all part of God's plan, and our faith and hope can be centered on God.

Today's Gospel tells the story of Jesus' walk to Emmaus with two of the disciples. Frightened, sad, and confused, the two of them don't recognize Jesus, who tells them what we heard Peter say above: All this had to happen as part of God's plan. In the end, these disciples recognize Jesus as we are to recognize him—in the breaking of the bread.

EL PLAN DE DIOS

Hoy san Pedro nos habla dos veces. En la primera lectura, escuchamos un pasaje de su sermón en Pentecostés; en la segunda, parte de su primera carta. Antes, un aterrorizado pescador con poca educación quien a menudo decía lo equivocado, el Pedro de ahora habla sobre la verdad que conoce. Todo lo que Jesús había dicho ahora tiene sentido. Su muerte y resurrección eran parte del plan de Dios, y nuestra fe y esperanza pueden centrarse en Dios.

El Evangelio de hoy describe el relato del camino a Emaús en el que Jesús se une a dos discípulos. Atemorizados, tristes y confundidos aquellos dos no reconocen a Jesús, quien les dice lo que escuchamos a Pedro decir arriba: todo esto tuvo que suceder como parte del plan de Dios. Al final, estos discípulos reconocen a Jesús así como nosotros debemos reconocerle –al partir el pan. © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

The Word Eucharist

You may have heard that the word Eucharist means thanksgiving.

Gratitude is an attitude that can be learned, a habit that can be practiced and developed. As we grow in developing a grateful heart in our daily lives, gathering as the Body of Christ to worship God gives natural expression to our being a people of thanksgiving. We come together to “do Eucharist,” to give praise and thanks to God.

La Palabra Eucaristía

Hemos oído que la palabra eucaristía significa acción de gracias. La gratitud es una actitud que puede ser aprendida, un hábito que puede ser practicado y desarrollado. Cuando logramos desarrollar un corazón agradecido en nuestra vida diaria, reunirnos como el Cuerpo de Cristo para rendir culto a Dios es una expresión natural de que somos personas agradecidas. Nos reunimos a “hacer la Eucaristía”, para alabar y agradecer a Dios.

These families did a great job decorating Prayer Rocks at the April Faith First for Families Assembly.

A BIG THANKS to Better Roads and the Nadotti family FOR PROVIDING THE ROCKS!
