A MESSAGE OF LOVE

In the final verses of today's Gospel reading Jesus says that when two or three are gathered in his name, "there am I in the midst of them" (Matthew 18:20). So we understand that fraternal correction is always undertaken with Jesus present to us.

Likewise, encouraging the good in others is not only the right thing for us to do, it is a necessity. The Lord tells the prophet Ezekiel that if he "does not speak out" to dissuade a person from evil, then he, too, will be held responsible.

We live in a "do your own thing" age when moral objectivity is often ignored. Clearly when the message we share with others is one of love, our motives cannot ever be misinterpreted. As St. Paul writes, "Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law" (Romans 13:10). © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

THIRSTING FOR GOD?

We are created in God's image & naturally drawn to His love! Do you know someone who is not baptized or baptized in a non-Catholic Christian tradition, who is thirsting for what it means to become Catholic? Do you know someone who is already Catholic but has not yet received Confirmation or First Communion? They may be thirsting too! The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a place where these people you know can ask questions and seek understanding. Weekly "no obligation" Inquiry Sessions start on Thursday, Sept. 15 at 7pm in the Parish Center. For more information contact Ivy O'Malley in the parish office or by email: Ivy@StAgnesNaples.org.

DIVORCED, SEPARATED, AND MARRIAGE ANNULMENT FORUM

There will be an informational Marriage Annulment Forum presented by our Pastor Fr. Bob Kantor, on Tuesday, September 20, 2011 at 7:00 PM in the Narthex. This presentation will provide information on the Annulment process subsequent to those persons who are divorced and separated. There are many misconceptions about the Church's decisions to declare a marriage null and is a mystery to most people. The forum will answer questions such as:

- What does the church teach about marriage?
- How is the church's court system structured and how does it work?
- What's the difference between annulment and divorce?
- Do declarations of nullity make the children illegitimate?
- How does one get a declaration of nullity?

Most if not all of your questions can be answered at this presentation, including information regarding the New Ministry for the Divorced and Separated Catholic Support Group at St. Agnes.

Please pray for the repose of soul of:

+ Mary Walch

May they enjoy everlasting life and may their families be comforted.

Patience
If you are patient in one moment of anger, you will escape a hundred days of sorrow.
—Chinese Proverb

Pray for Peace and Safety:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God’s blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

B E R E A V E M E N T SESSION

If you have lost a loved one in recent months, or even a while ago, we would like to offer you spiritual and emotional support. The eight sessions will be held on Tuesdays, beginning September 27th from 6:00 to 7:30 P.M. The series will run weekly. Individuals who participate in our bereavement programs actually become a support group through their interaction with one another. If you think that you or other members of your family would be interested in participating in September, you may register by calling St. Agnes Parish office at 592-1949.

Divorced & Separated Catholics Support Group

This is a support group designed for people who have filed for divorce or begun legal proceedings for divorce and want to achieve understanding and emotional stability in their lives. The eight week session support group will meet on Thursday evenings (excluding Thanksgiving) beginning Thursday, October 20th through December 15th from 7:00 –8:30pm. Please call the parish office at 592-1949 to register. This support group will be limited to 16 persons. Additional groups will be available beginning Jan. 2012.

UN MENSAJE DE AMOR

En los versículos finales de la lectura del Evangelio de hoy Jesús dice que cuando dos o tres están reunidos en su nombre, “ahí estoy yo en medio de ellos” (Mateo 18:20). Así entendemos que siempre se aplica la corrección fraternal cuando hacemos presente a Jesús.

De igual manera, alentar lo bueno en otros no sólo es actuar rectamente, sino que es una necesidad.

El Señor dice al profeta Ezequiel que si él “no amonesta” al malvado para que se aparte del mal camino, entonces Dios le pedirá cuentas.

Vivimos en la era en que “cada quien hace lo suyo” y se suele ignorar la objetividad moral. Claramente, cuando el mensaje que compartimos con otros es un mensaje de amor, nuestros motivos no pueden ser mal interpretados. Como escribe san Pablo: “Quien ama su prójimo no le causa daño a nadie, Así pues, cumplir perfectamente la ley consiste en amar” (Romanos 13:10).

Who We Are:

In 1981, St. Elizabeth Seton School opened its doors as a co-educational parish school. Fully accredited by the Florida Catholic Conference, and affiliated with the Diocese of Venice, St. Elizabeth Seton serves students in grades PreK-3 through 8. From the beginning, St. Elizabeth Seton has served the needs of area families by providing a quality Catholic education in a safe, family atmosphere at an affordable price. We teach to the heart, mind and soul of each unique student.

The principles and standards of the Florida Catholic Conference integrate faith and values with daily life and learning. These same standards have been applied to the school's curriculum ensuring quality educational programs where religious values are reinforced and incorporated into all areas of instruction, in an atmosphere of faith, discipline, and love.

Faith and Wine

Faith and Wine resumes in September with a new look, feel, and location!

The Faith and Wine planning team (pictured to the right having way too much fun) is pleased to announce our Schedule of Events for the 2011- 2012 season. We are very excited about this upcoming year and the wonderful speakers we have lined up, including Father John Ludden, who will be speaking to us on Tuesday, September 6, on the topic "Find Yourself in a Hole? Use Your Faith to Climb Out!" We are also looking forward to showing you some of the changes made this year, including a new location, enhanced wine and food, and new website.

But maybe we are getting ahead of ourselves. What exactly is Faith and Wine? It is a group of diverse women - single and married, with and without children, working in or outside of the home, young and young at heart, all at different places along our faith journey- who seek fellowship with each other and a greater understanding of our Catholic faith in order to enrich our lives and help us cope with the ever-changing challenges presented by today's society. Simply stated, we are the female counterpart to Faith & Ale. We meet monthly in a relaxing and casual environment where women can cultivate new friendships, share in good conversation, support and network with each other, while enjoying glass of wine and hearing an interesting and thought-provoking presentation from a key-note speaker.

The current core team would be remise if we did not express our gratitude and appreciation for the hard work and dedication that Carol Moore and her committee put into building a solid foundation for Faith and Wine. We feel blessed to have the opportunity to continue to build on this fellowship for the upcoming year.

We look forward to seeing you on September 6th!

RESPECT & CARE

in our final days

Catholic Teaching on End-of-Life Issues

Tuesday, September 27, 2011 at 6:30 p.m.

St. Leo Parish Life Center

28290 Beaumont Rd., Bonita Springs

Whether you are caring for an aging or ill family member or friend, personally facing health issues or simply want to better understand what the Catholic Church teaches on end of life issues, this talk will help you appreciate the moral and practical side of our last days on earth. This session will be the first in a monthly series on end-of-life issues.

Special Guest Speaker

Reverend Dennis Cooney

Diocese of Venice Respect Life Moderator and Pastor, St. Raphael Church, Lehigh Acres

Today's medical technologies can cause ethical dilemmas:

- How are we to prepare for our final days?
- Is a "do not resuscitate" legal order immoral?
- When are feeding tubes or ventilators morally necessary?
- What does the Catholic Church teach regarding euthanasia and assisted suicide?

Bring questions.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

September 2011

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The National Collection for The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. will be taken up here in our Diocese the weekend of September 10 and 11, 2011.

Catholic University is unique as the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States and the only higher education institution founded by the U.S. Bishops and chartered by the Vatican. It provides an academically rigorous education guided by Catholic intellectual tradition to approximately 6,000 students every year. As such, it has a special responsibility to educate future leaders for our Church and our Nation.

Students at The Catholic University of America receive personalized attention in a wide range of programs, combining an excellent liberal arts curriculum with courses in their major fields of study. Grounded in the philosophy of the Catholic tradition, these students are well prepared for success in life and ready to make a difference in today's world.

The financial sacrifices required of Catholic parents to provide a Catholic college education are enormous. All of the funds received through this collection underwrite the financial aid program at the University. Simply put, your contributions directly benefit students at Catholic University from all over the United States, including our own Diocese of Venice in Florida, by funding scholarships for those who would not otherwise be able to attend. Last year, nearly 3,000 students at Catholic University received scholarship support through the funds raised via the National Collection for Catholic University.

I appeal to you to give generously to the National Collection for the Catholic University of America in Washington, DC. God Bless you for your support of Catholic Higher Education.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida
