

Profiles of Stewardship Committee Members

- Bob Aubuchon – Has been married to Mary Jane (MJ) for 60 Years. They are the parents of 7 children and have 23 grand/great children.
- Maggie Brady -- Maggie has been a member of ST Agnes for the past seven years. Along with the Stewardship Committee, she is an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist serving at daily Mass. She usually attends 10:30 Mass on Sunday.
- Ted Farah – has been actively involved with St. Agnes for the past three years. His current involvement includes service on the Parish Pastoral Council, the Stewardship Committee, as a Eucharistic Minister, and with the audio/visual ministry.
- Roberto A. Landron -- Is the coordinator for PAC (Parish Action Committee for Hispanic Ministries). He is also involved with the Middle and High School Youth Group Core Teams for the Parish. He works for RBC Bank and has 15 years of Banking Experience
- Joe Manhart -- Has been married to his wife Felicia for 38 years. They have three children – Joseph, Mathew and Alisanne. Joe most recently retired after 36 years with United Parcel Service. He has been involved in a variety of organizations and on charitable boards throughout his life: Cerebral Palsy Kids Center, Knights of Columbus, St. Vincent DePaul, Foreign service fraternity, Marriage preparation, Eucharist minister, various choirs and music ministries and most recently singing in the St. Agnes choir and also Cantor at St. Agnes.
- Jen Mitchell -- Has been at St. Agnes since it moved to its current location. She attends 10:30 mass with her husband and their 4 young children. Previous church ministries include having taught religious education at St. John the Evangelist, Ministry of Mothers Sharing (M.O.M.S.), and planning for Family Faith Formation.
- Jinny (Virginia) Oliver -- moved to Naples from Long Island, New York, with her husband Bob (a retired New York State Supreme Court Justice) in 2005. They are the parents of two sons: Reverend Robert (of the Diocese of Boston) and Kevin, an attorney. Jinny is a Licensed Certified Social Worker having been employed by a Hospice and a Hospital Home Care Agency. She was active in her former parish as an Extraordinary Minister of The Eucharist serving at Liturgies and as a visitor to the homebound for thirty years. Jinny also was a Hospital Chaplain and worked on many parish charitable committees, as well as helping to set up the Stewardship Program in the parish. She looks forward to being of service to Saint Agnes Parish in her retirement years.