Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Hope and Life

Today’s readings tell the story of two widows. The first reading relates the plight of the widow with whom the prophet Elijah stayed; the Gospel tells about the widow of Nain. In each story, the widow’s only son had died. For people who lived in those cultures, the son was the only support of a widow, and the carrying on of the family name by the son was equal to immortality. A widow whose only son has died could lose all hope.

Elijah and Jesus are the restorers of hope; they bring the sons back to life. Saint Paul was metaphorically raised from the dead when he experienced the conversion and call from God that he describes in today’s second reading.

What are Christians called to do today? We may not be able to raise the dead, but perhaps we can rekindle hope for a single parent. We may not be able to convert a persecutor like Paul, but if we speak the gospel openly and gently with our lives, we might touch a life with the Good News.

BAPTISMS THIS WEEK

Philip Augustine Landman
Seraya Bija

Please pray for the repose of soul of:

+Beth Theriot
May she enjoy everlasting life and may her family be comforted.

ST. AGNES NAME TAGS
Getting to know you!

For a minimal cost of $5 buy a St. Agnes name tag which will include your name and your hometown city and state. By wearing it to Mass and church gatherings we will all get to know one another better. You may purchase one by filling out the form below and dropping it along with your $5 in the collection basket or mail or bring it into the parish office.

Name_________________________

City_________________________

State or Country_________________________

They will be available in the Narthex on the weekend and in the parish office during business hours.

“Helping a person in need is good in itself. But the degree of goodness is hugely affected by the attitude with which it is done. If you show resentment because you are helping the person out of a reluctant sense of duty, then the person may receive your help but may feel awkward and embarrassed. This is because he will feel beholden to you. If, on the other hand, you help the person in a spirit of joy, then the help will be received joyfully. The person will feel neither demeaned nor humiliated by your help, but rather will feel glad to have caused you pleasure by receiving your help. And joy is the appropriate attitude with which to help others because acts of generosity are a source of blessing to the giver as well as the receiver.”

— St. John Chrysostom

PRAY FOR PEACE AND SAFETY:
If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God’s blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: 1 Kings 17:17-24
Second Reading: Galatians 1:11-19
Gospel: Luke 7:11-17

Adults: What might a greater sense of compassion allow you to do for someone this week?
¿Qué te permitiría hacer por alguien esta semana el tener un mayor sentido de compasión?
Children: When do you try to understand what another person was feeling?
¿Cuánto tratas de entenderlo que otra persona siente?

SECOND MONDAY PRAYER VIGIL
Segundo Lunes Vigilia de Oración

DID YOU KNOW...All medical science supports Catholic teaching that HUMAN LIFE begins from the moment of conception.
- A unique set of DNA is present and the baby’s gender is immediately determined. In only 18 days after conception there is a beating heart...and in
  - 11 weeks the baby has fingerprints and fingernails
  - 12 weeks baby’s lips open and close, smiles, frowns occur
  - 16 weeks baby reacts to sounds and can hiccup
  - 20 weeks baby sleeps, wakes, hears, can kick and spin

Come pray one hour with us.

Providence House Happenings

The mission of Providence House is to provide a faith-based self-sufficiency and transitional housing program for motivated women with young children who are homeless or in danger of becoming homeless.

Thank you to all the parishioners who were able to attend the 5th Annual Providence House Prayer Breakfast held at the lovely Hilton Naples Hotel in April. This was a sold out event!

This summer we are full of anticipation as we look forward to updating the units for the women and children we serve with some new appliances. It was definitively time as most of the appliances were 17 – 35 years old! Yet, the families never complained as they are always so grateful for anything they receive. They will be so surprised!

If you have a desire to assist others, we are in need of church groups or individual volunteers to do handyman work around our campus. Any amount of time will do and will be most appreciated! If interested in volunteering or learning more about Providence House, please call Jean at 692-8779. www.providencehousenaples.org

Our Parish is a Safe Environment for Children, Youth and Vulnerable Adults

The Diocese of Venice is committed to protecting children, youth and vulnerable adults. Together, and with God’s help, we can continue to promote a culture of openness and awareness, and a commitment to safety within our Church and in the larger community.

As part of the Safe Environment Program, the Diocese of Venice requires that all employees and those volunteers who work with children and/or vulnerable adults be fingerprinted and trained in Safe Environment. For further information, visit the Diocesan website at http://www.dioceofvenice.org.

Report ALL abuse to the Florida Department of Children and Families at (800) 962-2873. To report abuse by Diocesan personnel or volunteers, call the Diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator at (941) 416-6114.

Called to Use Time Well
What it means to steward time

by Leisa Anslinger

We all know that if something is really important to us we will find the time for it. Whether it’s going to a child’s sporting event, or a quiet dinner with a loved one, an investment of our time says someone or something is of value to us. Perhaps that is why the idea of stewardship of time hits such a nerve with people. We can almost hear our thoughts ticking... “So if it’s important, I’ll find time for it, which means if I don’t give my time it’s like saying that this does not matter... but the needs of others to matter, it’s just really hard to find the time!” And so it is. I often hear people say that it is easier for them to write a check than actually give time themselves, even though giving money never seems easy. So, it is worth some time to think about this aspect of our lives, and to connect our use of time with our life of faith.

But it’s my time! What does that have to do with anyone else? If stewardship is about caring for and using the gifts we have been given, then being a good steward of time calls to us to recognize that every minute, hour and day we live is a gift, to be used or squandered. While none of us wants to think we squander any of what God has given us, most of us have time we do not steward well.

Time is used in many ways. We can categorize the ways we use our time: time for self and time for others, or time work and time for play; or time for what we want to do and time for what we have to do. There is more to it than that, however. As we have already begun to explore, our use of time signifies value and priority: what is important is allotted time; what we don’t as much does not receive time. We say, “I can make time for this, or “I can’t find for that.” It is also about attention. When we give time to something, we are being attentive to that person or activity. If all of our time is going toward ourselves or our immediate family, without concern for the needs of others, or if we spend every free moment in front of the television, computer or at our favorite activity, we are attending to something, and not to another. We may spend so much time with others we neglect the need for self-care, for family, or for the need for a deeper life of prayer or service. Jesus asks us to do for others as we do for ourselves. This calls us to balance and use our time well.

The challenge: The way we use our time is an expression of our love for God. This requires us to prioritize, and to assign time according to whom and what matters most. First, we need to think about the ways in which we already use our time. Then we can consider what is most important, who needs our time, and how we give it. We can develop a plan that takes all of this into account, and we are likely to find satisfaction in knowing we are using our time more wisely. Putting it simply, our time is not our own. We do not know how many days or years we will live, and have responsibility to use the time we are given well. That is the essence of stewardship of time.

¿Por qué debo inscribirme en la parroquia?

Nuestra parroquia de St. Agnes le da la bienvenida a todos, especialmente los invita a asistir a la Santa Misa. El mayor regalo de participar en la Eucaristía es el encuentro personal y sin igual con Jesús. Ese es el centro de nuestra vida y la razón más importante de nuestro trabajo.

Además, los invitamos a ser parte activa de nuestra comunidad inscribiéndose en la parroquia por los siguientes motivos:

1. Recibirá información de nuestro párroco de eventos y campañas de nuestra comunidad.
2. Nos permitirá programar con eficiencia los servicios que damos a la comunidad.
3. Al entregar sus ofrendas en sobres su asistencia a misa queda registrada.
4. Su inscripción y asistencia a misa son elementos importantes para participar en los sacramentos de nuestra Iglesia.
5. Su inscripción y participación en la misa nos da elementos para emitir cartas a las autoridades que soliciten sus referencias.
6. Si alquila servicios en nuestra Iglesia como por ejemplo el uso de salones, tiene un precio de descuento.
7. Al final del año puede recibir una notificación de sus contribuciones, las que pueden ser descontadas de su declaración de impuestos.

El Ministerio de PAC les proporcionará la oportunidad de asistir a dos seminarios para completar su preparación como servidores cristianos.

SEMACII 25 de Junio en St. Agnes, Naples

No existirá costo de inscripción para participar en el evento pero es necesario inscribirse para participar.

IMPORTANTE: Es necesario haber asistido a un SEMAC (Seminario de Mayordomía Cristiana) nivel I con anterioridad para participar en el SEMAC II

Las inscripciones se harán en la mesa de Información de PAC a la entrada de la Iglesia.

ESPERANZA Y VIDA

Las Escrituras del hoy nos cuentan la historia de dos viudas. La primera lectura relata la difícil situación en la que vivía la viuda con la que el profeta Elías se quedó y el Evangelio cuenta la historia de la viuda de Naín, en cada una de estas historias a cada viuda el hijo único de ellas murió. En la cultura de esos países en ese tiempo, el hijo era el sustento para la viuda y quien además continuaba la descendencia familiar que era igual a la inmortalidad. La viuda cuyo único hijo hubiera muerto perdía toda esperanza.

Elías y Jesús son los restauradores de esperanza; ellos devuelven la vida a sus hijos. San Pablo, metafóricamente hablando, revivió de la muerte a la vida cuando él se convirtió después de la llamada de Dios de la que él habla en la segunda lectura. ¿A qué están llamados los cristianos hoy en día? Quizá no podemos revivir de la muerte, pero quizá podemos reanimar la esperanza de un padre o una madre soltera. Quizá no podemos convertir a un perseguidor como Pablo, pero si abiertamente hacemos vida el Evangelio en nuestras vidas, podríamos tocar una vida con la Buena Nueva.
