Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Nothing to Fear

A rabbi was asked why God sends trials and troubles into human lives. “Because God gets lonely for his people” was the reply. There is some resonance with this wisdom in today’s Gospel, as Jesus makes his disciples get into a boat without him and goes off alone while they venture into stormy waters. Of course, neither Jews nor Christians believe that the Almighty plays this sort of whimsical game with them, but there is some truth in the statement that we don’t turn to God for saving help until we’re in a bind. Peter’s role today, as it is throughout the New Testament, is to be a sign or to represent each member of the church and the whole church. Our story is the tale told about Peter’s faith today. What can bolster our faith is that even when Christ calls us to face bravely the tempests of life, if we are walking through them with our eyes fixed on him in faith, we have nothing to fear. Even when we falter or sink, simply crying “Lord, save me!” is enough to help us know the steady grasp of God’s hand. Then, sheltered inside the walls of faith, the storms we endure lose their power over us.

The body of community

When we gather around the table and break the bread together, we are transformed not only individually but also as community. We, people from different ages and races, with different backgrounds and histories, become one body. As Paul says: “As there is one loaf, so we, although there are many of us, are one single body, for we all share in the one loaf” (1 Corinthians 10:17).

Not only as individuals but also as community we become the living Christ, taken, blessed, broken, and given to the world. As one body, we become a living witness of God’s immense desire to bring all peoples and nations together as the one family of God.

—Henri Nouwen

UPCOMING EVENTS

Pancake Breakfast: Sunday, September 10, After the 7:30, 9:00 and 11:00 A.M. Masses, Parish Center ne year ago, this week, we celebrated the first of a series of events to mark our 10th anniversary as a parish. It was Mass for the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a decade after the first Mass celebrated in the church on that holy day. St. Agnes was established as a mission, or “chapel” as it was called, in 1999, and was elevated to parish status March 12, 2007. The exact 10th anniversary date fell on a Sunday, and Bishop Dewane came to celebrate Mass and bless the outside statue of St. Agnes commissioned by the Ladies of St. Agnes. Other events including our 10th Anniversary Gala at Vineyards Country Club and a Parish Cruise the week of St. Valentine’s Day made for a most enjoyable anniversary year.

The spirit of the parish was especially evident throughout the year. Our International Festival was bigger than ever and the Ladies of St. Agnes had another successful Christmas Bazaar. The Knights of Columbus outdid themselves with a year full of monthly Sunday breakfasts, Friday Lenten Fish Bakes, and a few dinner-dances, including one in January to mark the 10th anniversary of the St. Agnes Council.

We expanded our 10:00 Mass at Palmetto Ridge High School to 16 weeks in season, from eight weeks in the first year. Emmaus Retreats in Spanish and our first Christ Renews His Parish retreats in English enriched the spiritual lives of those who participated. Many such spiritual, service and social highlights made it a year to remember.

St. Agnes can be proud of some significant accolades in the last year. We were one of four parishes to receive a Stewardship Certificate at the International Catholic Stewardship Council’s annual conference in New Orleans, recognizing our efforts to engage parishioners in time, talent and treasure. St. Agnes was featured in a June National Catholic Register article of vibrant parishes across the country. Most recently, six representatives of our parish were invited by Bishop Dewane to serve as delegates to the National Convocation of Catholic Leaders.

Our Faith Formation Programs served a record number of children and adults. Our Faith Formation Director Ivy O’Malley moved her focus to adult faith enrichment as Rose Chambers was promoted to Coordinator of Catechesis with primary focus on children and their families. We had the biggest ever First Communion and Confirmation classes. The young people of St. Agnes let their faith shine. A new offering of our parish teens, the Living Stations of the Cross on Good Friday evening, filled the church and brought tears to those who attended as we reflected on the Passion of Christ as it came to life before our eyes. High School and Middle School Youth Group attendance has soared. Our biggest group of teens yet attended the March for Life in Washington, a large group recently attended the Ave Maria Youth Conference and a handful went to Georgia for Cove Crest Life Teen Camp. Our Youth and Young Adult Coordinator Robert Massey has done an excellent job and is recognized as a leader in his field in the Diocese.

With the help of our Arts and Liturgical Environment Committee, chaired by Patti Wisniewski, new statues of the Blessed Mother and St. Joseph were placed in the chapel. The Legion of Mary was established at St. Agnes and the Knights of Columbus have recently bolstered our Golf Cart Shuttle before and after selected Masses for those who find our long walkway from the west lot burdensome. Four new automatic doors make the church and chapel more accessible to parishioners with physical limitations.

The generosity of our parishioners never ceases to amaze me. We finished the fiscal year in the black again and set records for regular collection, special collections, and debt reduction donations. Our “5th Sunday of the Month Purple Basket Collections,” taken up to benefit charitable causes in the months with five Sundays, helped the Knights of Columbus Christian Refugee Fund, Hurricane Matthew Relief, St. John Neumann Catholic High School, and Catholic Charities’ Judy Sullivan Family Resource Center to the tune of more than $20,000. We have provided about $230,000 in tuition assistance and other aid to local Catholic schools. You’ll see our full financial report in the bulletin in a few weeks.

As we transition to a new fiscal year and plan a new season of activities, the parish is on sound spiritual and financial footing. A Called and Gifted Workshop this September will help people identify their talents to be used in our Lord’s service and Matthew Kelly of Dynamic Catholic fame will be here in January for a major presentation. Our Operations Manager Deacon Roberto Landron projects that our debt will be retired by the end of this fiscal year next June, as we’ve just recently dipped below the one-million-dollar mark. We have met our Catholic Faith Appeal goal at our earliest point in the year ever, and now any additional pledges to the appeal will come back to the parish.

At the end of the day, I suppose we can say that we are a great parish if we are doing what our Lord would ask of us and bringing people closer to him. I pray we are doing that, believe we are, and rely on the help of the Holy Spirit to take us to new heights in the future, and most importantly for each of us, to heaven for eternity.

Mary, says St. Ambrose, is “the type [today we might say “icon”] of the Church.” In other words, if you want to see a sort of miniature figurine of everything the Church is, look at Mary.

That is why the Church has always venerated Mary and urged us to contemplate her. She can do something that Jesus Christ, God though he is, cannot do: He cannot show us what a disciple of Jesus looks like. Only a disciple of Jesus can do that. And Mary is the greatest disciple Jesus ever had.

What about all the other disciples? Well, as we saw in the first of this series, disciples like Peter, while great, show what imperfect followers are like. But Mary does instantly and perfectly what the rest of us do haltingly and with a lot of sins and mistakes. As a young girl, probably about 15 years old, she looks level into the eyes of an angel and proclaims, “May it be done to me according to your word” (Lk 1:38).

Some people think a perfect disciple is one who would not need a savior, especially when the Church teaches that Mary is sinless. But Mary herself tells us that her “spirit rejoices in God my Savior” and the Church has prayed those words along with her for 2,000 years (Lk 1:47). The paradox this points to is not that Mary lived on cloud nine and never dealt with any of the troubles we have, but that Mary is the most saved person who ever lived. The grace she was full of made it possible for her to endure a lifetime of poverty, toil, sorrow and ultimately horror. She’s been through the worst any mother could endure. The last wound Christ suffered — the spear through his heart — was endured by her, not him, since he was already dead. A sword truly pierced her soul, as was foretold (Lk 2:35).

“A contemporary theologian has well commented: ‘Mary is “Queen of the Apostles” without any pretensions to apostolic power; she has other and greater powers.’”

But in the world, we use Mary as our guide and disciple. We walk out at the end of Mass as living tabernacles, and it is we — very often we alone — who are the sacramental presence of Christ to family, co-workers, friends, homeless people, disgruntled customers, heart-attack victims, noisy kids, gloomy teens, students, old people and total strangers.

Now, we cannot give what we do not have. If we are not disciples, we cannot be apostles, “sent ones.” Therefore the task of discipleship is fundamental. And Mary is our pole star. She stays where she is — adoring Jesus, modeling discipleship and praying for us as our Mother — and we move toward her.

Mark Shea writes from Washington.
