Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Forgiveness

Nearly ten years before, a son and father had parted ways when the business they shared went bankrupt. The son blamed the father.
They did not speak to each other again.

Then the father became seriously ill. The mother called the son and told him he had better come soon. The son walked sheepishly into the hospital room. The father motioned his son to him and whispered: “Did you ever think you could do anything that would keep me from loving you?”

Resentment and anger are foul things, the first reading from Sirach tells us. Remember the last things. Stop hating. Live by the commandments. As Saint Paul writes to the Romans, we are to live for the Lord and die for the Lord.

Jesus’ parable in today’s Gospel reminds us of God’s compassion.
The immense sin of humanity has been forgiven and stricken from the record. We are to forgive others in the same way.

Forgive Others

There are many kinds of alms the giving of which helps us to obtain pardon for our sins; but none is greater than that by which we forgive from our heart a sin that someone has committed against us.

The theme of the Synod is “Young People, the Faith and Vocational Discernment.” In anticipation of this historic gathering, the Synod Office has developed an anonymous online survey for people between the focus age group of 16-29. The survey is an exciting opportunity for young people to cooperate directly with the Synod process and are encouraged to participate. To access the survey in both English and Spanish, please click on the following link:

Speaking Words of Love

Often we remain silent when we need to speak. Without words, it is hard to love well. When we say to our parents, children, lovers, or friends: “I love you very much” or “I care for you” or “I think of you often” or “You are my greatest gift,” we choose to give life.

It is not always easy to express our love directly in words. But whenever we do, we discover we have offered a blessing that will be long remembered. When a son can say to his father, “Dad, I love you,” and when a mother can say to her daughter, “Child, I love you,” a whole new blessed place can be opened up, a space where it is good to dwell. Indeed, words have the power to create life.

Christ Renews His Parish
A personal and parish spiritual renewal process

by Yenlys Hernandez
Communications Assistant

How often do we think about doing something for ourselves spiritually, refocus priorities, or simplify our lives? That is exactly why St. Agnes Parish began Christ Renews His Parish in 2016. It is an opportunity to take a break from our busy lives, share our faith with others, and get to know God through his works. Christ Renews His Parish is a parish renewal process that has existed since 1969, approved and recommended by the Renewal Office of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops. It has been used as a primary instrument of personal and parish renewal in over 1,400 parishes and 100 dioceses in 40 states in the United States and internationally.

Parishioners Mark and Monica Osterhaus decided to take part as well on the renewal weekend. “Monica and I wanted to deepen our relationship with St. Agnes and a chance to learn more about our faith in general and scripture in particular,” said Mark. “I learned how to pray differently, in a much more meaningful way. I feel so much closer to Christ as a result. I also took the time to really contemplate before going to Confession, which previously wasn’t something I thought about in great detail. By spending time really thinking about my actions and how they made me feel and were interrupting my relationship with Jesus, I had the best Confession of my life and for the first time, actually felt reconciled with God. It was amazing!” he added.

After attending a renewal weekend, participants are invited to serve on the next men’s or women’s retreat at the parish. They will go through a time of team fellowship and formation as the team prays, works, and prepares to lead the next retreat. “I knew that weekend that I wanted to help put on the next retreat. I wanted to give other women the same opportunity as I had to grow closer to our Maker and closer to the other woman who attended with them,” said Wendy. For Mark, the best part was preparing to lead the next retreat. “My ‘Brothers in Christ’ with whom I shared this experience turned out to be Catholic men I will cherish for the rest of my life. What made this so awesome was the focus on scripture. As a Cradle Catholic and a parochial school kid, Scripture wasn’t what I did. I just went to Mass. By spending just a few minutes preparing for our weekly meeting, I learned more about the value of the Bible than I did in the previous 50 years! I can’t say enough how happy I am to have participated in Christ Renews His Parish!”

Christ Renews His Parish Retreat is designed for personal renewal and ultimately renewal as a spiritual community. “The goal of Christ Renews His Parish is to get more people to participate, to have more families and younger parishioners involved in the church” said Judy Bohardt, Renewal Weekend Director.

Take the initiative in your personal spiritual and parish life and register for the next Christ Renews His Parish retreat. The men’s retreat is September 30th through October 1st and the women’s retreat is the weekend of November 4th and 5th. Christ Renews His Parish renewal weekend retreat offers an excellent opportunity to be spiritually and personally enriched in a friendly, relaxing atmosphere.

National Catholic Pledge to End the Death Penalty

The faithful are invited to join Bishop Frank J. Dewane in signing a national pledge to end the use of the death penalty. The Catholic Mobilizing Network’s National Catholic Pledge to End the Death Penalty was announced in Washington, D.C. As Chair of the USCCB Committee on Domestic Justice and Human Development, Bishop Dewane was one of the first signatories who committed to advocate, educate and pray for the end to the use of the death penalty. For more information on the national pledge, please visit: https://catholicsmobilizing.org/action/pledge.

PLEDGE OVERVIEW

The belief in the dignity of the human person is a pillar of our Catholic faith. The death penalty represents a failure of our society to fulfill the demands of human dignity, as evidenced by the 159 people and counting who have been exonerated due to their innocence since 1973

The life of St. Thomas of Villanova was characterized by the love of learning, a desire for church renewal and service to the poor and disadvantaged. He was born in 1486, the son of a miller and raised in the village of Villanueva de los Infantes, Castile, Spain. He studied at the famous University of Alcala where he received his master’s and doctorate degrees, and in 1512 at the age of 26 he became a professor of philosophy at the university. He was a popular lecturer and was praised by his students and colleagues for always being friendly and helpful.

After four years Thomas left the university and joined the Augustinian friars. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1520. He assumed several leadership positions in the community, and when elected provincial of Andalusia and Castile, he sent the first Augustinian missionaries to the New World where they helped evangelize what is now modern Mexico and, from there, the Philippines. He was eventually appointed archbishop of Valencia in 1544.

Thomas’ episcopal ministry was marked by personal austerity, devotion to the care of orphans, the sick, and the poor. He came to be known as the “father of the poor.” He established social programs, a soup kitchen in the bishop’s palace, and for the homeless a place to sleep. He was also called the “Almsgiver” because of the many people who came up to his door every day for a meal and a little money. He insisted that the material resources of the church be shared with those in the greatest need and he challenged church leaders to serve the least powerful.

It has been said that Thomas’ scholarship and stewardship of the poor were motivated by a desire to practice the teachings of the Beatitudes. He believed that all learning should be inspired by a genuine desire to know God and that learning ought to lead a person to make a difference in the community and in the world. He taught that the image of God is in every human being and that love and wisdom are discovered in the service of others.

St. Thomas of Villanova died of heart disease on September 8, 1555. He was beatified in 1618 and canonized in 1658. Villanova University, just outside Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is one of a number of universities around the world named after him.

The First Communion and Confirmation students of our parish have decorated a PRAYER ROCK. Take home a rock after Mass today from the basket in the narthex of the church. This rock reminds you to pray daily for the student who designed it. Since we have limited rocks, we ask those who are not able to take home a rock to still pray for these children and teens as they prepare for their sacraments. The rocks are yours to keep.

¿CÓMO RECIBIR LA COMUNIÓN?

Nuestro Señor nos invitió a alimentarnos de El cuando dijo “Yo soy el pan de vida. El que venga a mí, no tendrá hambre, el que crea en mí no tendrá nunca sed” Juan 6,35. Luego en la última cena nos dijo “este es mi cuerpo” y luego “esta es mi sangre”.

El cuerpo consagrado de Jesús exige la mayor reverencia y respeto, estamos en presencia de Dios auténtico y verdadero, Rey de reyes y Señor de señores. Le recordamos:
1. El cuerpo de Cristo debe ser consumido delante del sacerdote o ministro de la Eucaristía que lo entrega.
2. Cuando el ministro dice: “el cuerpo de Cristo” decimos en voz alta “Amén” que expresa claramente que creemos que estamos en presencia del cuerpo de Cristo.
3. Para recibir la sangre y el cuerpo de Cristo debemos estar en estado de gracia.

Dice San Pablo en I Corintios 11, 27-29: “Quien coma el pan o beba la copa del Señor indignamente, será reo del Cuerpo y de la Sangre del Señor. Examíneselo, pues, cada cual y coma así el pan y beba de la copa. Pues quien come y bebe sin discernir el Cuerpo, come y bebe su propio castigo”.

¿POR QUÉ DEBO INSCRIBIRME EN LA PARROQUIA?

Nuestra parroquia de St. Agnes les da la bienvenida a todos, especialmente los invita a asistir a la Santa Misa. El mayor regalo de participar en la Eucaristía es el encuentro personal y sin igual con Jesús. Ese es el centro de nuestra vida.

Además, los invitamos a ser parte activa de nuestra comunidad inscribiéndose en la parroquia por los siguientes motivos:
1. Recibirá información de nuestro párroco acerca de eventos y campañas de nuestra comunidad.
2. Nos permitirá programar con eficiencia los servicios que damos a la comunidad.
3. Recibirá sobres para entregar sus ofrendas, y al entregarlo, sin importar el monto del mismo, su asistencia a misa quedará registrada.
4. Su inscripción y asistencia a misa con elementos importantes para participar en los sacramentos de la Iglesia.
5. Su inscripción y participación en la misa nos da elementos para emitir cartas a las autoridades que soliciten sus referencias.
6. Tendrá la oportunidad de alquilar servicios de nuestra iglesia, por ejemplo, el uso de salones.
7. Al final del año puede recibir una notificación de sus contribuciones, las que pueden ser descontadas de su declaración de impuestos.
