Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Heavenly Banquet

The mountain of the Lord described in today’s first reading is a place where there is no more hunger, no more weeping, and no more division of any kind. We need to pause and ponder these images every now and then, especially given the fact that we live in such a fractured world. The responsorial psalm continues to paint a picture of a place where only goodness and kindness flourish. These readings describe the heavenly banquet, to which God calls each of us through baptism and continues to call us throughout our lives. Let us ”RSVP” to God’s invitation and live our lives consistent with gospel values so that one day we will be welcomed to the table of the kingdom.

We need your help to keep our records current. If there are any births, deaths, marriages, moves, etc. in your family, please notify the office.

Jesus Gives Himself to Us

When we invite friends for a meal, we do much more than offer them food for their bodies. We offer friendship, fellowship, good conversation, intimacy, and closeness. When we say: “Help yourself ... take some more ... don’t be shy... have another glass,” we offer our guests not only our food and our drink but also ourselves. A spiritual bond grows, and we become food and drink for one another.

In the most complete and perfect way, this happens when Jesus gives himself to us in the Eucharist as food and drink. By offering us his Body and Blood, Jesus offers us the most intimate communion possible. It is a divine communion.

— Henri Nouwen
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

On Sunday, October 22, 2017, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. This Day invites us to reflect anew on the mission at the heart of the Christian faith. The Church is missionary by nature and therefore, as Faithful, we must be as well. World Mission Day is an opportunity for us to join in prayer and support by means of our response to the vast and pressing needs of evangelization.

Supporting churches with low economic means throughout the world by your prayers and generosity are indeed ways to help missionaries offer individuals of poverty-stricken areas vital help. Each year the needs of the Catholic Church in the Missions grow, as new dioceses are formed, seminaries are opened and areas devastated by war or natural disasters are rebuilt.

In the Diocese of Venice, the World Mission Sunday Collection will take place the weekend of October 21 - 22, 2017. Along with your prayers, please be generous in aiding the Missions with your gift for the Society of the Propagation of the Faith. Thank you for your kindness!

I take this opportunity to extend to each of you the assurances of my continued consideration, as well as my prayers for you and your family.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

ST. AGNES CATHOLIC CHURCH AND THE CATHOLIC JEWISH DIALOGUE OF COLLIER COUNTY
ARE PROUD TO PRESENT THE FILM
“IN THE NAME OF THEIR MOTHERS”

This is the story of 29-year-old Irena Sendler, a Catholic social worker, who saw the suffering of Warsaw’s Jews, reached out to her most trusted colleagues for help, and outwitted the Nazis during World War II. Together, they rescued over 2,500 Jewish children. This film expertly captures the will and character of the women of the resistance against the backdrop of occupied Poland.

In 1965, Sendler was recognized by Yad Vashem as one of the Polish Righteous Among the Nations.

In recent weeks we have dealt with a lot of challenges and difficulties due to Hurricane Irma. With significant damage left behind, some of you are still in the recovery process, but we thank God for giving us the strength to overcome these obstacles and for keeping us alive and safe.

As Hurricane Irma approached Florida on Saturday, September 9th Deacon Roberto Landron, our Operations Manager, received a call from the American Red Cross requesting help to evacuate an adult care center with 180 residents. With little time left the Parish Hall was prepared to give shelter to those in need. The mostly elderly visitors and staff who served them were safe during the hurricane and returned to their facility once it was ready to receive them back.

As the storm neared, Fr. Orsi took up temporary residence at Physicians Regional Hospital on Pine Ridge, providing prayer, spiritual comfort and a friendly pastoral presence to the patients and staff of the hospital. He offered Mass shortly before the storm hit, a rosary at 2pm and an interdenominational service that evening. They were all well attended and greatly appreciated.

As the hurricane blew by, our 52 Holy Land pilgrims were tracking the storm on American news channels at our hotel in Jerusalem. I was watching my radar phone app whenever Wi-Fi was available, seeing the eye of the storm pass over Marco Island and make its way north along I-75 and right over the parish! Our prayers were already with you, having offered two Masses for the intention of the safety of everyone in the path of Hurricane Irma and praying Rosaries and other prayers for those affected. God truly answered our prayers.

After the hurricane passed, the church facilities were inspected to determine how soon the parish would resume its regular schedule. Fortunately, the buildings did not suffer any structural damaged, allowing us to restart operations within only a few days. There were some leaks, plenty of downed trees, limbs and the short bollard lights that illuminate the walkways. Our flagpole and numerous signs were bent, but not broken. Power was restored on Wednesday, only three days after the storm.

Fr. Kris celebrated the first Mass after the hurricane in church on Tuesday. In addition, our parish started helping people who were affected by Hurricane Irma. The Knights of Columbus provided food and water in the Parish Center on the weekend after the storm, repeating the same selfless service the following week in Immokalee. During this time of challenge, we came together and served others with love and compassion. Also in lieu of “Christ Renews His Parish” retreat, the men’s team volunteered at St. Peter the Apostle, assisting Catholic Charities in the distribution of food and water.

St. Agnes also supported the Society of St. Vincent De Paul by serving as a parish-based recovery assistance center for the last two weeks. People were helped with vital information and services to aid in their recovery.

Countless individual actions by our parishioners in the community put our Faith into actions. I also want to take this opportunity to thank you all for your generosity and thoughtfulness towards our brothers and sisters in Christ during these hard times. The need continues. On October 29th, we will be doing the fifth Sunday “purple basket” second collection designated for St. Elizabeth Seton and St. John Neumann High School to help them recover from hurricane Irma’s aftermath. St. Elizabeth was the hardest his parish in the Diocese, with substantial damage to the church roof and water damage in the school. St. John Neumann suffered lots of damage to their sports field and a bus, with minor damage to the buildings.

Natural disasters affect our lives, but they also bring us together as a community to support each other. As time passes, may we continue to reflect on how God has cared for us and respond to that love by bringing care and hope to others.

Fr. Bob

PRAYER TO LIVE THE GOSPEL, BE DISCIPLES

Loving Father, Open our hearts to hidden realities: your love for all people, your presence in the community, your call to justice and peace.

May the sacraments stir in us that same love for those with whom we worship and all members of our human family.

Christ Jesus, Help us to imitate your example: healing the sick, welcoming the stranger, assisting the poor and vulnerable.

May the sacraments remind us of your love and self-giving, which we strive to imitate.

Holy Spirit, Make visible to our eyes what is invisible: your call to your people, your summons to live our faith daily as witnesses of justice and peace.

May the sacraments move us to engage in love-inspired action that transforms us and the world.

Amen

Six reasons to put your kids in Catechesis of the Good Shepherd:
1. The younger the child starts the easier it is for them to fall in love with God.
2. It helps the child to understand and participate in the Mass.
3. It gives your child a peaceful and quiet place of prayer in our loud and busy world.
4. It assists the child in wonder and curiosity about the Kingdom of God.
5. It gives parents an opportunity and the time for their own spiritual formation.
6. You get an hour for yourself every week!

Who: Children ages 5-10. If your children are younger than 5 years old, we invite you to come sit with them to help them stay focused. They return to the main assembly during the offertory to sit with their families for the rest of the Mass.

What: CLOW is a special gathering in which children hear the Sunday readings proclaimed on their own level and are able to respond to them. It is a liturgy, and not “playtime.” Please have your child leave behind things that might distract (such as toys, dolls, books, cell phones.)

Why: The goal of Children’s Liturgy of the Word is to help children engage meaningfully in the scriptures of the Sunday Mass, thus beginning a life-long practice of praying, learning, and celebrating at Mass.

When: Every Sunday during 11am Mass at St. Agnes Church and 10am Mass at PRHS.

Where: The children are dismissed from the main assembly with a leader during the Scripture Readings (Liturgy of the Word.) At St. Agnes Church, CLOW goes to the Chapel. At PRHS, CLOW meets under the covered picnic area.

Volunteer: If you would like to join CLOW as a leader or assistant, contact Mrs. Diane Stanley at 239.353.4942.

EVENTOS PARROQUIALES HISPANOS

Los días de atención a los feligreses del Padre Luis Pacheco son los jueves y viernes de 10:30 a.m. a 4:00 p.m. El Diácono Roberto Landron está disponible de lunes a Viernes. Por favor llamar a la oficina para hacer su cita. (239) 592-1949

¿CÓMO RECIBIR LA COMUNIÓN?
Nuestro Señor nos invitó a alimentarnos de Él cuando dijo “Yo soy el pan de vida. El que venga a mí, no tendrá hambre, el que crea en mí no tendrá nunca sed” Juan 6,35. Luego en la última cena nos dijo “este es mi cuerpo” y luego “esta es mi sangre”.

El cuerpo consagrado de Jesús exige la mayor reverencia y respeto, estamos en presencia de Dios auténtico y verdadero, Rey de reyes y Señor de señores. Le recordamos:
1. El cuerpo de Cristo debe ser consumido delante del sacerdote o ministro de la Eucaristía que lo entrega.
2. Cuando el ministro dice: “el cuerpo de Cristo” decimos en voz alta “Amén” que expresa claramente que creemos que estamos en presencia del cuerpo de Cristo.
3. Para recibir la sangre y el cuerpo de Cristo debemos estar en estado de gracia.

Dice San Pablo en I Corintios 11, 27-29: “Quien coma el pan o beba la copa del Señor indignamente, será reo del Cuerpo y de la Sangre del Señor. Exáminese, pues, cada cual y coma así el pan y beba de la copa. Pues quien come y bebe sin discernir el Cuerpo, come y bebe su propio castigo”.

NECESITAMOS VOLUNTARIOS
Los voluntarios ayudaran a la limpieza de la Iglesia los primeros jueves de cada mes, desde las 9 de la mañana por aproximadamente una hora y media.

¿Cómo vivimos nuestro ser Iglesia? ¡Somos piedras vivas, o somos, por así decirlo, piedras cansadas, aburridas, indiferentes”? SS Francisco.

Los que tengan disponibilidad deben contactar al diácono Roberto Landron por correo electrónico al roberto@stagnesnaples.org o llamando al teléfono de la oficina y dejando un mensaje 239-592 1949 ext. 126.

¿POR QUÉ DEBO INSCRIBIRME EN LA PARROQUIA?
Nuestra parroquia de St. Agnes les da la bienvenida a todos, especialmente los invita a asistir a la Santa Misa. El mayor regalo de participar en la Eucaristía es el encuentro personal y sin igual con Jesús. Ese es el centro de nuestra vida.

Además, los invitamos a ser parte activa de nuestra comunidad inscribiéndose en la parroquia por los siguientes motivos:
1. Recibirá información de nuestro párroco acerca de eventos y campañas de nuestra comunidad.
2. Nos permitirá programar con eficiencia los servicios que damos a la comunidad.
3. Recibirá sobres para entregar sus ofrendas, y al entregarlo, sin importar el monto del mismo, su asistencia a misa quedará registrada.
4. Su inscripción y asistencia a misa con elementos importantes para participar en los sacramentos de la Iglesia.
5. Su inscripción y participación en la misa nos da elementos para emitir cartas a las autoridades que soliciten sus referencias.
6. Tendrá la oportunidad de alquilar servicios de nuestra iglesia, por ejemplo, el uso de salones.
7. Al final del año puede recibir una notificación de sus contribuciones, las que pueden ser descontadas de su declaración de impuestos.
