Pentecost Sunday

The Fullness Of The Holy Spirit

The church wakes up to an amazing message this morning. Look around and see who has been called. Listen to the voices of those who proclaim Jesus is Lord. You’ll find no race of people left out; you’ll find no language on earth unfit to proclaim the glory of God. We call Pentecost Sunday the “birthday of the church.” In many ways, the church is still being born. Only when we all know the peace Jesus offered in today’s Gospel will we really know the fullness of the Holy Spirit.

St. Paul assures us in today’s second reading that “all of us have been given to drink of the one Spirit.” When we look around us in the church we should see everyone. But we don’t. Not yet. What is holding us back from fully embracing the one Body of Christ? When will we see our differences as manifestations of the same Holy Spirit?
Welcome, New Parishioners

YEAR OF MERCY WEEKLY REFLECTION

“When someone asks, ‘How does one become a good Christian?’ the answer is simple: do what Jesus says in his discourse on the Beatitudes. The Lord knows sin and grace, and he knows the paths that lead to sin and to grace. ‘Blessed are the merciful, for they will find mercy’ . . . It’s always important to think that we are all an army of forgiven! All of us have been forgiven! And this is why he who takes this path of forgiveness is blessed.”
— Pope Francis

ROSARY FOR PEACE
The Rosary for Peace group will recess for the summer effective May 25th and will resume in the fall.

Regional Safe Environment Training

As Christian adults, we have a moral and legal responsibility and are entrusted by God with the spiritual, emotional and physical well-being of minors and vulnerable adults. As they participate in activities within or sponsored by our diocese, it is our commitment to provide an environment which is safe and nurturing. In accordance with the Diocese of Venice policy to offer continued Safe Environment Awareness to all employees and volunteers, the following parishes will hold Regional Safe Environment Awareness training sessions. All diocesan employees...clergy, religious, laity, and those volunteers who have routine contact with children or vulnerable adults, MUST BE TRAINED in safe environment awareness issues. No one should attend Safe Environment Training until their fingerprints have cleared. Continued employment/volunteer status requires that you attend one of these sessions. Please contact the parish secretary at the location you wish to attend with your name and telephone number at least two weeks prior to the training. Please share this information with all parish/school staff and volunteers. Due to the sensitive nature of this training, no children are permitted to attend.

Directions to the training site may be found at http://www.dioceseofvenice.org

The number forty has biblical connotations.

The forty years Israel spent in the desert before entering the Promised Land was for them a time of grace. No doubt it didn't always seem that way! We can recall how many times they wished they never left Egypt, how often they fell short of God's commandments, and how many times God disciplined them with his gentle rod.

What they could not see immediately was how God was using their two generations of wandering to shape them into his people. In retrospect, however, God's graces became more than obvious.

I can readily identify with the children of Israel. There were times when I thought I made a mistake being ordained. And, even worse, often times thinking God made the mistake in wanting a sinful man like me to be his priest.

Nevertheless, through God's grace, the sacraments, wonderful parents and some wonderful brother priests I have survived, despite my weaknesses.

After Israel matured she could appreciate what God had done for her. Each circumstance showed a master craftsman shaping his people. Painful though some lessons were, God brought good out of them. And, upon reflection, moments of grace were abundant. The manna, the quail, the water from the rock, and the conquering of the fierce tribes of Canaan were miracles beyond the ordinary powers of human beings. He was always with them! And, he is always with me.

For forty years, God has used me to do his work, often despite myself. The richness of his love and mercy I can never recount or repay.

Coming to Saint Agnes has been for me like entering the Promised Land. I have said numerous times, “This is the best parish I have ever been in!”

I give special thanks to my dear friends Fr. Bob, Fr. Jan and Fr. Luis. They are outstanding men. And, to you my beloved friends, my deepest gratitude for your love and support.

May I ask you for a few favors? First, with St. Agnes's 10th Anniversary coming next year please help to retire the debt for the gala celebration. Secondly, pray that I remain at St. Agnes until God calls me. And, lastly that when he does call me that I may enter heaven to be with the one priest, Jesus Christ, who allowed me to share in his priesthood.

With great love and affection,

Fr. Oriel
Did you know that right behind the chapel we have our very own Prayer Garden? The Prayer Garden was inspired by our Arts and Liturgical Environment Committee. In the garden you will be surrounded by the serenity of God’s creation. It is a place where prayer and reflection come naturally, offering a respite to the busyness of life. You will also find a statue of St. Gerard Maiella, patron saint of expectant mothers and the unborn, and whose feast day is October 16th. The next time you find that you are early for Mass or just need a break from the noise, come find a bench in our prayer garden and give thanks for the blessings you have in that moment.
ALMOST AT OUR CFA GOAL
ALL WE NEED IS YOU!

Thanking God Through Our Stewardship of Treasure
(Taken from Catholic Life & Faith)

What do you treasure?

Are you rich? What makes a person wealthy? In the words of the late Archbishop Thomas Murphy, “What do you own, and what owns you?”

When it comes to stewardship of treasure, it will help for us to think about the foundation of stewardship: all we are and have come from God; to be a good steward means to care for the possessions of another, and to bring them to yield with increase; so the money we earn comes from the good use of the talents time, skills and abilities we have been given by God.

In an essential way, it isn’t “our” money – it is a gift from God, which we are asked to use responsibly. Beginning with the idea that it isn’t exactly “our” money changes the way we look at the whole thing. We then view our use of money from the perspective of God and God’s ways.

This is bigger than money. This brings us to the whole idea of “treasure”. In part, this is about what we treasure: what is important to us, and what the use of our money says about what we value. Jesus tells us that “where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” (Mt 6:21) Treasure also refers to our financial and material resources. So the use of treasure- our money and material resources- is a sign of what we treasure, or value.

The ways in which we use our financial and material resources is a barometer for the ways in which our relationship with Jesus shapes our daily decisions. The more we grow in faith, the more our decisions will reflect that faith, even on decisions about our use of money.

Jesus often teaches about the good use of financial and material resources and he illustrates the negative impact of hoarding and being weighed down by money. The Biblical principal of tithing, of offering at least 10% of one’s treasure to church and charity, helps to use our money in a way that keeps God first as a sign of our gratitude to God for all we’ve been give. Tithing is giving not what is leftover, but rather giving to God first, as a sign of love and trust.

The challenge: We all have financial responsibilities. Deciding how much money to give, and to what, is a big decision especially when we realize the use of money is a sign of what we believe to be of value.

Being responsible for money means using it well: providing for our personal and family needs to the best of our ability; saving for the future; not building unnecessary debt; not hoarding or being greedy; giving as much as possible to our parish and the needs of the poor.

Being generous with our money for the sake of others is a reflection of the generosity of God. When we give unselfishly of our financial and material resources we show Christ’s loving face to those in need, in a very practical and tangible way.
