The Epiphany of the Lord

God’s Promise to All People

Today Isaiah reminds the people of God that the land shall be restored to their possession, they shall rejoice to see their people return from the bondage of exile, and that they shall be a light to the nations. In other words, through the people of Israel, the Savior shall come to all people who seek God with a sincere heart. This brings joy and the radiance of God’s glory to all the world and to all people everywhere. Through the fidelity of the people of God, and through God’s fidelity to them, all people shall become God’s children and rejoice in the fulfillment of God’s promise to Israel.

We need your help to keep our records current. If there are any births, deaths, marriages, moves, etc. in your family, please notify the office.

LIVING OUT CHRISTMAS IN THE NEW YEAR

How do we live out the message of Christmas in the New Year, rather than pack it away with the ornaments? Each year the Octave Day of Christmas falls on the first day of the New Year, on which we also celebrate the Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God. Her open heart and courageous “yes” to God show us how to live year-round—with hearts open to the Lord, following where He leads. We are called to place our trust in Him, to enter compassionately into the suffering of others, and to love one another as Christ loves us. Like Our Blessed Mother welcomed Jesus, we are called to cherish and protect the gift of human life, at every stage and in every circumstance.

One way to live out the message of Christmas and follow Our Lady’s example is to join 9 Days for Life, a digital pilgrimage of prayer and charitable action. The U.S. Catholic bishops invite you to join thousands of Catholics nationwide from Thursday, January 18 – Friday, January 26.

The Mountaintop Experience

At some moments we experience complete unity within us and around us. This may happen when we stand on a mountaintop and are captivated by the view. It may happen when we witness the birth of a child or the death of a friend. It may happen when we have an intimate conversation or a family meal. It may happen in church during a service or in a quiet room during prayer. But whenever and however it happens we say to ourselves: “This is it … everything fits ... all I ever hoped for is here.”

This is the experience that Peter, James, and John had on the top of Mount Tabor when they saw the aspect of Jesus’ face change and his clothing become sparkling white. They wanted that moment to last forever (see Luke 9:28-36). This is the experience of the fullness of time. These moments are given to us so that we can remember them when God seems far away and everything appears empty and useless. These experiences are true moments of grace.

~Henri Nouwen

Paul Todd’s Music Corner

Many saints have said, “Those who sing pray twice.” The role of music in our faith is incredibly important. From the Sacred Scriptures to our Sacred Tradition, we are told numerous times to sing praise to God. St. Paul writes, “Sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankful hearts to God.” (Colossians 3:16) We follow that command from St. Paul every Sunday at Mass. We sing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs and give thanks to God for all the blessings he gives us in our lives.

The Church has always been at the forefront of encouraging the composers of the time to write and compose music that glorifies God. From the beautiful and prayerful Gregorian chants, to sacred compositions of musical masters such as Mozart and Handel, to the more modern music we have, we are without a doubt blessed with a treasure trove of some of the greatest masterpieces of all time.

When we sing we are not giving glory to ourselves. We are giving glory to God, who comes to us in the most profound way in the Eucharist. Music can and should help us in prayer as we receive our Lord. In the nearly twenty years I've been doing music ministry this has been my only goal, to give glory and praise to God.

Pope Francis recently commented on the need for a renewal of sacred music and has called on us to tap into the whole trove of musical treasures the Church has accumulated over the centuries. Even though he was particularly speaking about the formation of new priests, his words are applicable to all the faithful. The pope said, “We need to promote proper musical education in dialogue with the musical trends of our time, with the demands of the different cultural areas, and with an ecumenical attitude.”

We are blessed with a parish full of people from many parts of the world and from different cultures who truly give glory to God through song. As we enter this new year of 2018, I hope and pray that our music ministry here at St. Agnes will only continue to flourish.

Our beautiful Children and Adults Choirs provide much of the beautiful and uplifting music for our parish and encourage all to participate in our Musical Ministry. Practices are every Wednesday from 5:00 PM - 6:00 PM for the Children’s Choir and 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM for the Adult Choir. Come and join the fun!

St. Agnes Live Nativity was a huge success, an incredible experience that allowed us to be transported to Bethlehem to honor the birth of our Savior. Thank you to everyone who, with much effort and dedication made the realization of the Live Nativity possible. It allowed us to remember the true meaning of Christmas. Blessings!

La presentación de la Natividad Viviente en St. Agnes fue todo un éxito. Una experiencia increíble que hizo posible que nos trasladáramos a Belén para honrar el nacimiento de Nuestro Salvador. Gracias a todas las personas que, con mucho esfuerzo y dedicación hicieron posible que se llevará a cabo una vez más la Natividad Viviente. Nos permitió recordar el verdadero sentido de la navidad. ¡Bendiciones!

Our sister parish members from Jesus the Worker and their Pastor Fr. Patrick O’Connor visiting St. Agnes during the Live Nativity.
There are so many legacies from which we draw. Parents oftentimes leave us with a strong set of values, an abiding belief in giving back to others, and fierce loyalty to family, friends and country. Our faith especially creates in us a legacy of strong Christian virtues and discipleship.

Through His Church, Jesus has bequeathed to us legacies of faith, hope and love, objective truth and mercy. Indeed, everything we have that is truly good is a gift and blessing from God. As we focus on all the blessings God has showered upon us through His Church, through others, and through life experiences, we must ask ourselves: What legacy will I leave? What difference will my life make in the lives of others?

Hopefully, your legacy will include the witness of fervent faith, the enduring love of family, and the willingness to make a tangible difference in the lives of others. As part of this, please consider working with the Catholic Community Foundation of Southwest Florida to provide long-term support and sustainability to St. Agnes Catholic Church through a will, trust, retirement account, real estate, charitable gift annuity, donor advised fund or outright gift. Your gift can help provide a legacy to future generations seeking to grow in faith, wisdom and holiness.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration.

Fr. Bob

Being Good Stewards of Our Personal Vocations

By Leisa Anslinger

To commit ourselves to live as disciples who steward our many gifts and blessings involves every facet of our lives. We will experience God’s call differently in distinct moments of our lives. At times, we may recognize the call to give our time sacrificially; at other times, our treasure. In some moments, we may discern a call to active service among the poor, ill, or imprisoned; in other moments, our stewardship may be of prayer or the sharing of faith. In all of these times and circumstances, we follow Jesus Christ, and learn to embrace his way of self-giving love.

The young creature in the stall of Bethlehem was a human being with human brain and heart and soul. And it was God. Its life was to manifest the will of the Father; to proclaim the sacred tidings, to stir mankind with the power of God, to establish the Covenant, and shoulder the sin of the world, expiating it with love and leading mankind through the destruction of sacrifice and the victory of the Resurrection into the new existence of grace. In this accomplishment alone lay Jesus’ self-perfection: fulfillment of mission and personal fulfillment were one (Romano Guardini, quoted in Stewardship: A Disciple’s Response, p. 23).

In previous articles in this column, we have explored the call to discern and live out our vocation, the life vocation that each of us has, and the many calls we experience as followers of Jesus. Another way of saying this is to recognize that living out our vocational call is our mission. We fulfill our mission by being good stewards of our lives, gifts, and blessings. This ongoing discernment and fulfillment of our mission is one of the many things that makes stewardship leadership such a dynamic and sometimes challenging endeavor. Helping people recognize their mission to witness to and make Christ’s love known through their stewardship is a sacred responsibility. As we celebrate the New Year, let us pray that we may fulfill this mission well and with grace. Happy New Year.

FORMED® THE CATHOLIC FAITH ON DEMAND
Children's Liturgy of the Word is coming to your Mass!

- 10am Mass at Palmetto Ridge HS Jan 7-Apr 29
- 11am Mass at St Agnes every Sunday
- 5pm Mass at St. Agnes starting Jan 14

Who: Children ages *5-10.

What: CLOW is a special gathering in which children hear the Sunday readings proclaimed on their own level and are able to respond to them. It is a Liturgy just like Mass is a Liturgy and not “playtime.” Please have your child leave behind things that might distract (such as toys, dolls, books, cell phones.)

Where: The children are dismissed from the main assembly with a leader before the First Reading and return during the Collection. At PRHS, CLOW meets under the covered picnic area adjacent to the lobby. At St. Agnes Church, CLOW goes to the Chapel.

Why: The goal of Children’s Liturgy of the Word is to help children engage meaningfully in the scriptures of the Sunday Mass, thus beginning a life-long practice of praying, learning, and celebrating at Mass.

*If your children are younger than 5 years old, we invite you to come sit with them to help them stay focused. They return to the main assembly during the offertory to sit with their families for the rest of the Mass.

All St. Agnes CLOW adult leaders are fingerprinted and background checked by the Bishop’s Office.

If you would like to join CLOW as a leader or assistant, contact Mrs. Diane Stanley at 201-615-8954.
