The Ascension of the Lord

Continually Praising God

In both the first reading and the Gospel we are told about Christ’s glorious ascension into heaven. Paul’s letter to the Ephesians reminds us that Christ has been seated at God’s right hand in heaven, above every choir of angels. There might be a temptation to stay at an awed distance from Jesus Christ. However, the tone of today’s readings is far from that temptation. The tone is exultant and the message is urgent. We are to be his witnesses, and the Gospel describes the first witnesses this way: “[W]ith great joy . . . they were continually in the temple praising God” (Luke 24:53).

How can we continually praise God? The answer can be found in the second reading, in which Paul prays that God will give us a “Spirit of wisdom and revelation” in order to know Christ clearly (Ephesians 1:17). We cannot stand at a distance. We are to be enlightened and empowered.

We need your help to keep our records current. If there are any births, deaths, marriages, moves, etc. in your family, please notify the office.

A Mother’s Love

There are times when only a Mother’s love
Can understand our tears,
Can soothe our disappointments
And calm all of our fears.
There are times when only a Mother’s love
Can share the joy we feel
When something we’ve dreamed about
Quite suddenly is real.
There are times when only a Mother’s faith
Can help us on life’s way
And inspire in us the confidence
We need from day to day.
For a Mother’s heart and a Mother’s faith
And a Mother’s steadfast love
Were fashioned by the Angels
And sent from God above.

Thoughts from Fr. Bob

As Christian adults, we have a moral and legal responsibility and are entrusted by God with the spiritual, emotional and physical well-being of minors and vulnerable adults. As they participate in activities within or sponsored by our diocese, it is our commitment to provide an environment which is safe and nurturing. In accordance with the Diocese of Venice policy to offer continued Safe Environment Awareness to all employees and volunteers, the following parishes will hold Regional Safe Environment Awareness training sessions. All diocesan employees...clergy, religious, laity, and those volunteers who have routine contact with children or vulnerable adults, MUST BE TRAINED in safe environment awareness issues. No one should attend Safe Environment Training until their fingerprints have cleared. Continued employment/volunteer status requires that you attend one of these sessions. Please contact the parish secretary at the location you wish to attend with your name and telephone number at least two weeks prior to the training. Please share this information with all parish/school staff and volunteers. Due to the sensitive nature of this training, no children are permitted to attend.

I am also delighted to announce that Luisa Rosales has joined the St. Agnes staff as Communications Assistant. Luisa brings years of experience as a property manager for Ave Maria where she worked with several boards and committees. She has been a great steward here at St. Agnes since 2004 serving on the Arts and Liturgical Environment Committee, as a Core Group Member for our High School Youth Ministry, and on the Pastoral Council. In her role, Luisa will serve as a key communications link between pastor and staff, ministries, organizations, and parishioners. She has told me that she is excited and honored to be joining us and is also eager to meet and serve the community of St. Agnes. Luisa can be reached by email at luisa@stagnesnaples.org or by calling the office. Please join us in enthusiastically welcoming Deacon Henry and Luisa to our team, praying for them, and wishing them great success in continuing to grow the St. Agnes family, supporting our church and its pastoral plan.

Support Your Knights

The Knights support our Vets

The Knights contributed money to the VA Clinic in Cape Coral and Hearts and Homes for Vets in support of the many needs of our Veterans.
Earth Day was April 22 this year and we were encouraged to plant a tree. Environmental stewardship goes way beyond our ability to plant a tree. There are so many ways to honor Earth Day. As Christian stewards, we know that our commitment to stewardship of the earth is growing increasingly important. Pope Francis has led the way with his encyclical, On Care of our Common home. (Laudato Si), and he makes it very clear that stewardship of the environment is front and center for Christians in this time of environmental degradation. Here’s paragraph 217 of this 184 page encyclical: “Living our vocation to be protectors of God’s handiwork is essential to a life of virtue; it is not an optional or a secondary aspect of our Christian experience.” Words like “essential” and “not an option” underscore the necessity for stewards to step up our commitments to the earth.

The year 2015 was our hottest in recorded history. We’ve all heard the frightening stories of sea levels rising threatening islands and even some our coastal cities. “Hundred year storms” are becoming increasingly common. Pope Francis, in the paragraph cited above, also says our ecological crisis is “a summons to profound interior conversion.” All of this can seem overwhelming, but small steps can make a difference, and they must start with prayer and a change of heart. Keep canvas bags in your car so you always have them available at the grocery store. Forego plastic. Commit to a few degrees of difference in your heating and air conditioning settings. Wash clothes in cold water and hang clothes to dry. Restrict lawn watering and time your showers. Always recycle. Commit to buying less “stuff” and living more simply. Turn off power strips when not in use. Be a vocal advocate with your political leaders about climate change. Be an example to your children. Keep in mind: stewardship of the earth is “essential to a life of virtue.”

RECORDAMOS NUESTRO BAUTISMO

Hace sólo siete semanas que miles de nuevos miembros de la Iglesia fueron bautizados. Su nueva vida en Cristo de nuevo infunde renovada vida en la Iglesia. Esta fe nueva ha inspirado y alentado la fe de los que han sido seguidores de Cristo por muchos años. Al acercarse el fin del tiempo de Pascua, recordamos la escena de nuestro bautismo. En la segunda lectura oímos a Cristo que nos llama: “Ven… el que quiera, que venga a beber gratis del agua de la vida” (Apocalipsis 22:17).

Pero nuestro bautismo no es sólo de agua. Juan hace referencia a lavar sus ropas, y sabemos que este lavar es “en la sangre del Cordero”. Para estar seguros de que entendemos este mensaje, tenemos la primera lectura de hoy de los Hechos. Es la historia de Esteban, el primer cristiano que sufre la muerte por su fe en Jesús. Recordamos la promesa y también el costo de ser discípulo de Cristo.
