Fifth Sunday of Easter

Committed to Truth

Living Branches

The Gospel and second reading for this Fifth Sunday of Easter emphasize the need for us to remain in Christ, and he in us. This shared life finds expression in the image of the one vine and many branches. We become living branches of the vine, members of the Body of Christ through baptism, Eucharist, and confirmation, sacraments of sharing God’s own life. The First Letter of John describes the fruit of this vine as active love of neighbor: “And his commandment is this: we should believe . . . and love one another” (1 John 3:23).

Our first reading from Acts shows us an example of someone who shares in Christ’s life in the person of Saint Paul. Paul’s fearless witness, even at the risk of his life, is proof to everyone that the risen Lord’s Spirit truly fills him with life and is bearing fruit in him.

We need your help to keep our records current. If there are any births, deaths, marriages, moves, etc. in your family, please notify the office.

Laying Down Your Life for Your Friends

Good Shepherds are willing to lay down their lives for their sheep (see John 10:11). As spiritual leaders walking in the footsteps of Jesus, we are called to lay down our lives for our people. This laying down might in special circumstances mean dying for others. But it means first of all making our own lives - our sorrows and joys, our despair and hope, our loneliness and experience of intimacy - available to others as sources of new life.

One of the greatest gifts we can give others is ourselves. We offer consolation and comfort, especially in moments of crisis, when we say: “Do not be afraid, I know what you are living and I am living it with you. You are not alone.”

Thus we become Christ-like shepherds.

Evangelization, Stewardship and Missionary Discipleship?

What does all this have to do with me?

Say the word “evangelization” and a lot of Catholics will think about television evangelists or door-to-door proselytizers. Say the word “stewardship” and they will probably think you’re going to ask them for money. But those misconceptions are far from the truth. Evangelization is bringing the Good News of Jesus into our own lives, the lives of others, and the whole world. It is a process of conversion in which the Holy Spirit sets hearts on fire. People begin to see the meaning and purpose of their lives from a different perspective. They decide to model their lives after Jesus. They become disciples.

Stewardship is the way disciples of Jesus choose to live their lives. They recognize that everything they have is a gift from God, and they strive to use those gifts to honor and serve God, to help other people and to make the world a better place.

One of the gifts good stewards treasure is the faith they received when they were evangelized. They become open to the movement of the Holy Spirit in their lives. As faith seeps into every part of their lives, whether they realize it or not, they begin to evangelize — sometimes with words, but more often by the authenticity of the lives they lead.

In this way, the connection between evangelization, discipleship and stewardship is like a circle. A person is evangelized, becomes a disciple of Christ, recognizes the importance of being a good steward, and uses his or her gifts to evangelize others, who in turn become disciples, good stewards and evangelizers.

Evangelization and stewardship transformed Christianity from a small Jewish sect into a worldwide religion. Evangelization is the central mission of the Church. Stewardship is what impels us to evangelize.

Evangelization doesn’t make sense if it’s just about numbers in RCIA or reaching out to inactive Catholics. Stewardship doesn’t make sense if it’s just fundraising. We have the gifts of time, talent and treasure. The real question is: How will we use those gifts? How can we bring the Good News to others? That is the question that all baptized Catholics need to ask themselves as this is the call we all must answer.

LA SANTA MISÁ ES EL CENTRO DE LA VIDA CRISTIANA.

«La sagrada Eucaristía, en efecto, contiene todo el bien espiritual de la Iglesia, es decir, Cristo mismo, nuestra Pascua y Pan de Vida, que da la vida a los hombres por medio del Espíritu Santo»
Gracias a Dios tenemos una comunidad numerosa, pero ello hace difícil conocer de memoria todos los rostros presentes en cada Misa.
La entrega de sus ofrendas en un sobre con su nombre y número permite que quede constancia de su asistencia a la Misa. Su asistencia a Misa se requiere para:
1. Crecer en la vida espiritual y conocer más al Señor.
2. Recibir sacramentos o participar en ellos como, por ejemplo, en calidad de padrinos.
4. Solicitar cartas necesarias para terceras partes como, por ejemplo, servicios de inmigración, constancia de asistencia a la Iglesia, y otros. No podemos emitir cartas que no estén respaldadas por documentación.
Si usted olvida su sobre en casa puede utilizar otro con el borde morado o otro que usted provea y poner en el mismo sus datos (nombre, numero de sobre si lo recuerda, dirección).
