Sixth Sunday of Easter

Love One Another

In the Gospel for the Sixth Sunday of Easter we are met with an extraordinary challenge: Jesus commands us to “love one another as I love you” (John 15:12). The letter from John echoes this command. Of course, we are to love those in our family, those we work with, those we like. But the scriptures make clear that we are also to love those we never notice, those we purposely avoid, and even those we are tempted to despise.

In this Sunday’s selection from the Acts of the Apostles Peter shows us how far God’s love extends, and how far our love should extend in response. Peter realizes that God no longer “shows partiality” to the Jews, sharing divine love exclusively with them. Christ has revealed that God’s love extends to all people, and so should ours.

THE SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Formerly called Last Rites or Extreme Unction, this Sacrament is for those experiencing a serious illness, facing an operation or dying. Anointing of the Sick should be performed before death is imminent, when a person is conscious and able to receive comfort from the sacrament.

We make every effort to provide pastoral care and the sacrament of anointing to all who request it; however, families are encouraged to call sooner rather than later.

Anointing of the Sick is offered after morning Mass on the first Saturdays of the month. If a loved one is at home and needs the sacrament, please call the office at 592-1949 to arrange for a priest to visit.

IN THE HOSPITAL?

Because of HIPAA Privacy regulations, hospitals do not necessarily notify the parish regarding your hospitalization unless requested by the patient. Please ask the nurse to contact the parish that serves the Hospital you are in for the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, and/or Communion. This is the most efficient way to be sure you or your loved one will receive the sacrament.

Thank you!

The Knights would like to extend a very warm thank you to all that supported this year’s very successful 11th Annual St Agnes Knights of Columbus Golf Outing. Whether your support was by playing golf, purchasing raffle tickets, or sponsoring a hole…Thank You!

The winners of the special 2 night stay Resort raffle were:
Father Glackin - Lake Blackshear Resort
Gene Gilvey - Margaritaville Hollywood Beach
Luana Longo - Brasstown Valley Resort
Thanks everyone for your support. The 11th Annual Golf Committee.

PRAY FOR PEACE AND SAFETY:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God’s blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

The Spirit Will Speak in Us

When we are spiritually free, we do not have to worry about what to say or do in unexpected, difficult circumstances. When we are not concerned about what others think of us or what we will get for what we do, the right words and actions will emerge from the center of our beings because the Spirit of God, who makes us children of God and sets us free, will speak and act through us. Jesus says: “When you are handed over, do not worry about how to speak or what to say; what you are to say will be given to you when the time comes, because it is not you who will be speaking; the Spirit of your Father will be speaking in you” (Matthew 10:19-20). Let’s keep trusting the Spirit of God living within us, so that we can live freely in a world that keeps handing us over to judges and evaluators.

How Do Refugees Contribute?

1. Refugees must pay back the cost of their travel to America through a loan arrangement with the International Organization for Migration, a U.S. Department of State contractor. Flight costs range from $1,500-$9,000. The U.S. is the only resettlement country that requires refugees to pay for their transportation. Source: MRS

2. The MRS resettlement agency network of over 80 affiliates hire employment specialists to prepare refugees for the job market. Eighty-five percent of refugees get a job and are self-sufficient within six months of arrival. Source: MRS Refugee Research Blog

3. Refugees find work far earlier in the U.S. than in other countries and start businesses at a quicker pace than the U.S.-born population. Sources: Chmura Economics & Analytics; MPI

The Urgent Call of Jesus Christ

by Leisa Anslinger, author and co-founder of Catholic Strengths and Engagement Community (CSEC).

To accept the urgent call of Christ is to hear the voice of the Lord, and to respond in the way in which we live now, not in some distant future.

I have often been struck by one paragraph of the U.S. bishops’ pastoral letter, Stewardship: A Disciple’s Response: “Jesus’ call is urgent. He does not tell people to follow him at some time in the future but here and now — at this moment, in these circumstances. There can be no delay” (p. 14). For me, this is a powerful statement that speaks to the practical implications of the call and challenge of discipleship and stewardship.

It is easy to tell ourselves that we will get around to living and growing as a follower of Jesus at some future point in our lives — when we are more settled, our children are older, our jobs are more secure, and so on. In doing so, we delay our response to the Lord’s continual offer of salvation, mercy, forgiveness, and love. We minimize the impact of faith, falling deaf to God’s voice and blind to the needs of others.

To accept the urgent call of Christ is to hear the voice of the Lord, and to respond in the way in which we live now, not in some distant future. Not only this. Christ does not call us in an abstract way, but instead within the particular circumstances of our lives. This is not about some vague and ideal future. It is about making decisions, discerning activities, and carrying out our lives as Christ’s people at home, in our workplace or school, in our parish, our cities and towns, and the in the world.

In this Easter season, we celebrate Christ’s victory over death. We are called again to draw others to the new life that is offered in Jesus Christ. When we hear and respond to Christ’s urgent call, we witness to the profound impact of faith in our lives and we evangelize, drawing others to a deep encounter with our Lord. We do this by stewarding our lives, gifts and blessings, and resources, here and now, in this moment, in the very real circumstances of our lives.

La Santa Misa es el centro de la vida cristiana.

«La sagrada Eucaristía, en efecto, contiene todo el bien espiritual de la Iglesia, es decir, Cristo mismo, nuestra Pascua y Pan de Vida, que da la vida a los hombres por medio del Espíritu Santo»

Gracias a Dios tenemos una comunidad numerosa, pero ello hace difícil conocer de memoria todos los rostros presentes en cada Misa. La entrega de sus ofrendas en un sobre con su nombre y número permite que quede constancia de su asistencia a la Misa. Su asistencia a Misa se requiere para:

1. Crecer en la vida espiritual y conocer más al Señor.
2. Recibir sacramentos o participar en ellos como, por ejemplo, en calidad de padrinos.
4. Solicitar cartas necesarias para terceras partes como, por ejemplo, servicios de inmigración, constancia de asistencia a la Iglesia, y otros. No podemos emitir cartas que no estén respaldadas por documentación.

Si usted olvida su sobre en casa puede utilizar otro con el borde morado u otro que usted provea y poner en el mismo sus datos (nombre, número de sobre si lo recuerda, dirección).
