Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Promises

Today’s liturgy is full of promises. The reading from Genesis promises a final triumph over the power of sin and a return to a new creation. The reading from Second Corinthians promises that all who follow Christ will have to struggle. It also promises, however, that we can persevere if we but recognize that Christ is within us, renewing us daily, and giving us the courage and the strength we need to endure. The Gospel promises that doing God’s will makes us “family” with Jesus, who forgives all sin and triumphs over evil.

Today might be a good day for us to make some promises as well. We can promise to stop kidding ourselves about our own tendencies to selfishness and sin. We can promise ourselves to believe—really believe—that while we are not sinless, we are forgiven. We can promise ourselves to combat evil and sin by acting as sisters and brothers not only to the Lord, but to one another as well.
Welcome, New Parishioners

Please pick up a registration form in the Narthex, at the doors of the church, in front of the office or on our website www.stagnesnaples.org. Completed forms may be dropped in the collection basket, hand delivered, mailed, emailed or faxed. Thank you for becoming part of our Parish Family. God bless.

Bienvenidos, nuevos Feligreses

Por favor recojan su registración en el Narthex y puertas de la Iglesia, a la entrada de la oficina o en nuestro website, después de ser completada puede colocarla en la canasta de las ofrendas durante la misa, entregarla en la oficina, mandarla por correo, fax o e-mail. Gracias por hacerse miembro de nuestra familia. Dios lo bendiga.

Pray for Peace and Safety:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God’s blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

JESUS IS GENTLE

Jesus, the Blessed One, is gentle. Even though he speaks with great fervor and biting criticism against all forms of hypocrisy and is not afraid to attack deception, vanity, manipulation and oppression, his heart is a gentle heart. He won’t break the crushed reed or snuff the faltering wick (see Matthew 12:20). He responds to people’s suffering, heals their wounds, and offers courage to the fainthearted.

Jesus came to bring good news to the poor, sight to the blind, and freedom to prisoners (see Luke 4:18-19) in all he says, and thus he reveals God’s immense compassion. As his followers, we are called to that same gentleness.

Vincentian volunteers are needed to help our neighbors in a new way at the Family Assistance Center (FAC) at 4451 Mercantile Avenue, which is where our charity begins.

You will meet and serve a wide variety of neighbors in need from across the county in an office setting, while working with a great team of other Vincentians.

At the Family Assistance Center, you may be helping neighbors in ways not done during our standard home visits for financial assistance (rent/mortgage, utilities, transportation etc.). You will be mentored and have access to resources, experienced staff and other volunteers to assist you.

By doing the initial intake procedure, and/or conducting more in-depth fact-finding, you will facilitate the home visits done by other conference members or yourself, enable more home visits to be more effectively done. The rewards will be immeasurable.

There are several ways to assist. Some possibilities are:

- Volunteer fairly regularly for one, four hour, 9:45 a.m. to 1:45 p.m. shift per week
- Cover a shift periodically during vacations or illnesses or every other week
- Do data entry, data quality control, answer phones, filing etc.
- Do home visits with another St. Agnes Vincentian
- If bilingual, provide translation assistance

Celebrating the Body and Blood of Christ as “Stewards of the Gospel”

International Catholic Stewardship Council

On Sunday June 3, we celebrated the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, or Corpus Christi, to celebrate the gift of the Eucharist. Of course, the best way to celebrate it is to live it, to put the Eucharist into action. None of us can be a mere spectator to the Eucharist, for this offering to God of bread and wine is really our offering to him of ourselves, of our lives and of the whole world. Jesus taught us this connectedness when he enjoined us to go into the whole world and proclaimed the gospel (see Mark 16:15).

The Eucharist invites us to be “stewards of the gospel;” to follow in Jesus’ footsteps and to love others just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us. This is the meaning behind the language of blood sacrifice of which we heard proclaimed in the readings. Blood is fundamentally life. The commitment to share in a common life, the covenant between God and Israel, was endorsed in blood, lots of it. Sacrifice was, and is necessary.

But how does the celebration of the Eucharist relate concretely to our ordinary day-to-day lives? At one level, the practice of going to Mass affirms our belief that there is something extraordinary in our ordinary, daily lives. We take time to acknowledge to ourselves, our families and our communities that we are engaged in a relationship with God through Jesus Christ. More deeply, however, is that the Eucharist transforms us. It provides a center of our being and a driving force that impels us to go out and “be” Christ to a broken world. We are nourished and strengthened in a profound way in order to build up the Body of Christ and carry out Jesus’ command to be missionary disciples. The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ reminds us that we are each called to serve, uniquely equipped with gifts for missionary discipleship, and sent forth to carry the good news of the gospel to all we meet wherever we go. And we are never alone in this journey of faith. Christ is with us in a real and most personal way.

Sacristan Ministry

Moved by the Holy Spirit, the men and women in the Sacristan Ministry serve behind the scenes. They prepare the Holy Eucharist for the celebration of the Mass. This includes readying the wine, water, and bread, and preparing the sanctuary for the Mass. They humbly serve daily Mass, weekend Masses, Wedding Masses, Funeral Masses, and other special services. Depending on schedules and season, serving 4 – 7 times a month is the norm. There are also opportunities to serve at the seasonal Masses at Palmetto Ridge High School for those who live in that area. If you want to learn more or are interested in serving in this beautiful ministry, please email Connie Brehm – connie@stagnesnaples.org or call 592-1949, ext. 153.
Hello my friends of St. Agnes,

Many of you have gotten to know me over the course of the few weeks I have been at your beautiful parish. Now, since I have been given the opportunity, I would like to share with you more of my story. It is always a challenge for me, whenever I tell my vocation story, to keep it short. My vocation story is my life story and it is hard to summarize 20 years into just a few words. It is also hard for me to pinpoint the time in my life when I first thought of the priesthood because the desire for the priesthood is a part of my first memories. My friends and family back home can all bear witness to my testimony. When I was five years old, I was known to have baptized more house pets and married more stuffed animals than any other child my age. My grandmother had sewn me a large collection of vestments I would wear to Mass to match the priest. These are just a few of many stories that allows one an insight to my early childhood. But it was not all so perfect, I spent many of my teenage years running away from my faith because I was really trying to run away from my vocation. But, Christ didn’t give up on me. When Christ bids you to follow Him, He bids you to pick up your cross. It was during my junior year in high school when I began my application process to become a seminarian for the Diocese of Venice. I am the third of four children. Two older sisters and one younger brother and I am blessed to have a supportive family. After I graduated high school in 2016 I left my hometown, Palmetto, Florida, and entered Saint John Vianney College Seminary in Miami. After completing my first year of seminary, I was assigned to St. William here in Naples. Now after completing my second year of seminary, I am blessed to be back in Naples but this time serving you at St. Agnes. I ask you for your prayers as I continue my formation to the priesthood of Jesus Christ. May God continue to bestow upon you an abundance of blessings!

Yours in Christ,

Jacob Gwynn

“DOES THE BIBLE REALLY SAY THAT?”
BY PATRICK MADRID

“Not only will reading Scripture daily enrich and nourish your soul, but it will provide you with solid answers to many of life’s most urgent questions...this book will help you jump-start the process of becoming familiar (or simply more familiar) with the truth of Christ as it is unfolded for us so beautifully in the pages of Scripture.”

EVENTOS PARROQUIALES HISPANOS

Los días de atención a los feligreses del Padre Luis Pacheco son los jueves y viernes de 10:30 a.m. a 4:00 p.m. El Diácono Roberto Landron está disponible de lunes a Viernes. Por favor llamar a la oficina para hacer su cita. (239) 592-1949

LA SANTA MISMA ES EL CENTRO DE LA VIDA CRISTIANA.

«La sagrada Eucaristía, en efecto, contiene todo el bien espiritual de la Iglesia, es decir, Cristo mismo, nuestra Pascua y Pan de Vida, que da la vida a los hombres por medio del Espíritu Santo»

Gracias a Dios tenemos una comunidad numerosa, pero ello hace difícil conocer de memoria todos los rostros presentes en cada Misa. La entrega de sus ofrendas en un sobre con su nombre y número permite que quede constancia de su asistencia a la Misa. Su asistencia a Misa se requiere para:

1. Crecer en la vida espiritual y conocer más al Señor.
2. Recibir sacramentos o participar en ellos como, por ejemplo, en calidad de padrinos.
4. Solicitar cartas necesarias para terceras partes como, por ejemplo, servicios de inmigración, constancia de asistencia a la Iglesia, y otros. No podemos emitir cartas que no estén respaldadas por documentación.

Si usted olvida su sobre en casa puede utilizar otro con el borde morado u otro que usted provea y poner en el mismo sus datos (nombre, numero de sobre si lo recuerda, dirección).

NECESITAMOS VOLUNTARIOS

Los voluntarios ayudan a la limpieza de la Iglesia los primeros jueves de cada mes, desde las 9 de la mañana por aproximadamente una hora y media.

Los que tengan disponibilidad deben contactar al diacono Roberto Landron por correo electrónico al roberto@stagnesnaples.org o llamando al teléfono de la oficina y dejando un mensaje 239-592 1949 ext. 126.
