Some things about human nature don’t change, even over the course of centuries. When we celebrate a holiday, we have a meal; when we celebrate a significant event, we have a feast. In today’s first reading, Lady Wisdom is setting a feast, a sign of celebrating the covenant that Israel has with God. Israel’s central remembrance of its saving Exodus covenant is the Passover meal. So it is natural—and not coincidental—that the Christian celebration of the new covenant sealed by the blood of Christ on the cross happens at a meal, our Eucharist, offered first by Jesus in the context of Passover remembrance. It is easy for us, sometimes, to forget the very long and rich religious and human origins of our eucharistic feasting on the bread and cup that are the Body and Blood of Jesus. Today, and for the next few Sundays that we hear the “Bread of Life” discourse from John, let us bring to mind the loving covenant that God makes with us, and be filled with great joy at this marvelous feast that we have come to attend!

Keeping the Peace in Our Hearts

Whatever we do in the Name of Jesus, we must always keep the peace of Jesus in our hearts. When Jesus sends his disciples out to preach the Gospel, he says: “Whatever town or village you go into, seek out someone worthy and stay with him until you leave. As you enter his house, salute it, and if the house deserves it, may your peace come upon it; if it does not, may your peace come back to you” (Matthew 10:11-13).

The great temptation is to let people take our peace away. This happens whenever we become angry, hostile, bitter, spiteful, manipulative, or vengeful when others do not respond favourably to the good news we bring to them.

“Dear friends in Christ,

Our Mortality is one of the first concepts we learn while studying philosophy. Along with being creatures that are subject to time, we learn that everything comes to an end—even good things. This Sunday marks my 12th and last Sunday with you. My summer here at Saint Agnes is coming to an end and this experience has been a “very good thing.” This time allows me to reflect on what St. Paul said to the Thessalonians in his farewell, “hold on to what is good” (1The 5:21).

This summer, I had opportunities to observe and witness the parish life. I have also benefited from many experiences like assisting in the liturgies, ministering to the homebound, hosting a vocations talk with our youth and much more. I have especially enjoyed getting to know you and your families. St. Agnes will forever hold a special place in my heart.

Acknowledging that I did not come to St. Agnes to be perfect, but rather to learn—and indeed this summer has been a great learning experience. I have learned from you, the people whom I’m called to minister to. I have learned from the staff and volunteers about what it takes to operate an effective parish in its ministry. Most especially, I have learned from the priests who generously offered their support and wisdom. I will miss all the fun we had at the rectory where many pranks were exchanged. This year, I will begin my Junior year and continue my academic formation at St. John Vianney College Seminary in Miami.

What I write to you today are not just empty words, for these words mean nothing without sincerity. It is my hope that one day I will serve you once again during a lifetime of ministry. I ask that you please remember me in your prayers as I continue my formation to the Priesthood of Jesus Christ. Please be assured that you and your families will remain in my prayers. I will take with me the many good memories I have gained while here. In the spirit of St. Paul’s letter to the Romans, for those who love God, everything is good.”

In Christ,

-Jacob Gwynn

Mary: The perfect disciple

Mark Sheaf writes from Washington

Mary, says St. Ambrose, is “the type [today we might say (“icon”) of the Church.” In other words, if you want to see a sort of miniature figurine of everything the Church is, look at Mary.

That is why the Church has always venerated Mary and urged us to contemplate her. She can do something that Jesus Christ, God though he is, cannot do: He cannot show us what a disciple of Jesus looks like. Only a disciple of Jesus can do that. And Mary is the greatest disciple Jesus ever had.

What about all the other disciples? Well, disciples like Peter, while great, show what imperfect followers are like. But Mary does instantly and perfectly what the rest of us do haltingly and with a lot of sins and mistakes. As a young girl, probably about 15 years old, she looks level into the eyes of an angel and proclaims, “May it be done to me according to your word” (Lk 1:38).

Some people think a perfect disciple is one who would not need a savior, especially when the Church teaches that Mary is sinless. But Mary herself tells us that her “spirit rejoices in God my Savior” and the Church has prayed those words along with her for 2,000 years (Lk 1:47). The paradox this points to is not that Mary lived on cloud nine and never dealt with any of the troubles we have, but that Mary is the most saved person who ever lived. The grace she was full of made it possible for her to endure a lifetime of poverty, toil, sorrow and ultimately horror. She’s been through the worst any mother could endure. The last wound Christ suffered — the spear through his heart — was endured by her, not him, since he was already dead. A sword truly pierced her soul, as was foretold (Lk 2:35).

“A contemporary theologian has well commented: ‘Mary is “Queen of the Apostles” without any pretensions to apostolic power; she has other and greater powers.”’

But in the world, we use Mary as our guide and disciple. We walk out at the end of Mass as living tabernacles, and it is we — very often we alone — who are the sacramental presence of Christ to family, co-workers, friends, homeless people, disgruntled customers, heart-attack victims, noisy kids, gloomy teens, students, old people and total strangers.

Now, we cannot give what we do not have. If we are not disciples, we cannot be apostles, “sent ones.” Therefore, the task of discipleship is fundamental. And Mary is our pole star. She stays where she is — adoring Jesus, modeling discipleship and praying for us as our Mother — and we move toward her.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

Formerly called Last Rites or Extreme Unction, this Sacrament is for those experiencing a serious illness, facing an operation or dying. Anointing of the Sick should be performed before death is imminent, when a person is conscious and able to receive comfort from the sacrament.

We make every effort to provide pastoral care and the sacrament of anointing to all who request it; however, families are encouraged to call sooner rather than later. Anointing of the Sick is offered after morning Mass on the first Saturdays of the month. If a loved one is at home and needs the sacrament, please call the office at 592-1949 to arrange for a priest to visit.

In the Hospital?

Because of HIPAA Privacy regulations, hospitals do not necessarily notify the parish regarding your hospitalization unless requested by the patient. Please ask the nurse to contact the parish that serves the Hospital you are in for the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, and/or Communion. This is the most efficient way to be sure you or your loved one will receive the sacrament.
