Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Hope and Promise of Redemption

The prophet Jeremiah prophesies the end of the Babylonian exile. He describes how the weak and sorrowful people now return with joy. These are the scattered people of God: the blind and the lame, the mothers and pregnant women. They shall be led along an easy road so that no one will stumble.

The Lord’s kindness and mercy are on all these weak and broken people.

Here and in Psalm 126 we find the most lovely poetic images of God’s love and care for us. “Those that sow in tears / shall reap rejoicing. Although they go forth weeping, / carrying the seed to be sown, / they shall come back rejoicing, / carrying their sheaves” (Psalm 126:5–6). Although God had to punish Israel for their many sins, God never forgot them, scattered as they were, and brings them all back to the land of their ancestors, there to flourish and be joyful again. We can see in this the hope and the promise of our own redemption, gathered from the far corners of the earth into the great banquet of God.

St. Agnes registered households are now at 4,970. We are aware that many people visit and live in our area who support other parishes. We urge you to consider prorating your charitable giving to give St. Agnes a share.

FLORIDA Catholic

Support the Florida Catholic because the truth matters. For 79 years, the Florida Catholic has brought alive the truth about our faith through educational, spiritual and inspirational stories and commentaries. From personality profiles to in-depth coverage of pro-life issues, from bishop letters to reflections on the Scriptures, the mission of the paper is to help Catholics grow in faith. For just $26 a year you will receive 24 issues delivered to your home. For $20 a year, receive our e-Edition and get all three diocesan editions of the newspaper on your PC or tablet. Any level of donation support is appreciated for our ministry of Catholic news and the truth. Call toll free at 1-888-275-9953, or visit us at www.thefloridacatholic.org.

Relics

First Class Relics are on display in the prayer chapel off the Narthex through November 1st, All Saints Day. Relics from St. Elizabeth Seton, St. Joannis Macias C.O.P., St. John Neumann, and Blessed Margaret of Castello will be displayed, to name a few. A First Class Relic is any part of the bodily remains of a saint which have been authenticated by documentation and are sealed in a reliquary or case. Relics have been venerated in the church since the early days of Christianity and are thought to put one in closer contact with the virtues of that saint.

Daylight Savings Time ends November 4th. Remember to turn your clocks back one hour.

Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops Candidate Questionnaire Project

An informed voter is a responsible voter. The U.S. bishops remind us, “In the Catholic Tradition, responsible citizenship is a virtue, and participation in political life is a moral obligation.” To help parishioners become informed on where candidates stand on key issues, the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops has polled those running for U.S. Congress and the Florida Legislature. To see how candidates appearing on the November 6 General Election ballots responded to the questionnaire, visit www.flaccb.org.

Jesus, Our Food and Drink

Jesus is the Word of God, who came down from heaven, was born of the Virgin Mary through the power of the Holy Spirit, and became a human person. This happened in a specific place at a specific time. But each day when we celebrate the Eucharist, Jesus comes down from heaven, takes bread and wine, and by the power of the Holy Spirit becomes our food and drink. Indeed, through the Eucharist, God’s incarnation continues to happen at any time and at any place.

Sometimes we might think: “I wish I had been there with Jesus and his apostles long ago!” But Jesus is closer to us now than he was to his own friends. Today he is our daily bread.

Saint Luke

—International Catholic Stewardship Council

Luke is the author of the third Gospel and was a companion of Saint Paul. According to reliable tradition, he was a Syrian physician from Antioch who wrote his Gospel in Achaea (Greece). Both the Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles are attributed to Luke, because he appears to be the person intended by the first-person reference in Acts. The opening of Acts refers to the Gospel and is dedicated to the same person, Theophilus.

The basic point of Luke's New Testament writings is to emphasize the love and compassion of Jesus Christ. Luke also has an interest in the reality of poverty and reveals a deep concern for the poor, the outcast, and the underprivileged throughout the Gospel.

Stewardship is a major theme in Luke's Gospel. As a matter of fact, what emerges from Luke's writings is a sophisticated theology of stewardship that is unique to his Gospel and not addressed so profoundly by other New Testament writers. Luke defines the duty and role of a steward as a unique sort of servant who is entrusted with material possessions by a master, takes charge of them and is required to use them prudently.

Luke envisions the steward as not having any possessions or property of his own, but as taking care of his master's property and wealth until the master summons him to turn in an account of his stewardship.

There is a finiteness to stewardship. According to Luke, a steward carries out his responsibilities with alertness, knowing that the master's return may come at any time. And depending on the quality of his stewardship, there is the anticipation of a reward as a result of his stewardship. Luke believes stewards are not just a chosen or appointed few. Stewardship is the responsibility of all Christian disciples.

Luke takes his basic ideas of stewardship and applies them to the motif of material possessions as well, instructing his readers on the right use of wealth and the wrong use of wealth.

Finally, Luke's concept of almsgiving, based on his theology of stewardship, was unique and radical at the time of his writing. Almsgiving was considered an obligation of Christian disciples; imperative inside and outside the community. Luke enjoined his readers to look upon the poor with genuine sympathy and urged those with material resources to remember their identity as stewards, to distribute their wealth to the poor as alms, and to give up ownership of their own material possessions.

Luke is the patron saint of physicians, artists and butchers. His feast day is October 18.

Some years ago, I heard one of the senior priests of our Diocese reflected on priesthood. He said, “It doesn’t get any easier, it just makes more sense.” Having marked 20 years of priesthood Wednesday, I think I’m coming to understand what he meant. After two decades of Baptisms, Confessions, Communions, Confirmations, Weddings, Anointings, and Funerals, I have had the privilege of being part of the lives of many people at meaningful times. There have also been profound experiences of presiding at or concelebrating thousands of Masses, from World Youth Days with three Popes to daily Masses in our beautiful chapel. Christ is just as present at each and it is a profound experience to cooperate in His self-gift at each Eucharist we celebrate.

There have been joys and sorrows. Baptizing nieces and nephews and commending my own mother to eternal rest in Christ … bringing new Catholics into the Faith at Easter Vigils from Naples to Kandahar, and anointing Catholics from the elderly at nursing homes to soldiers medivacked in a combat zone … leading pilgrims from our parish to the Holy Land, Rome, Lourdes and countless other places, and delivering homilies at the funerals of priests who were inspirational to me. God has given me many experiences and I have surely made some mistakes along the way. If I have offended anyone, I ask your forgiveness.

I love planning and leading and looking forward. The last 20 years have certainly had their blessings. Our Lord and the People of God have been good to me. I pray that God will give me another 20 or more years with opportunities to serve Him to the best of my ability. Please pray for me as I promise to pray for you. Together may we build the Kingdom of God on earth and look forward to happiness in eternity with Him forever!

Anniversary of KRISTALLNACHT

The Catholic-Jewish Dialogue of Collier County Presents a Commemoration of the 80th Anniversary of Kristallnacht*
“The Night of Broken Glass”
Sunday, November 4 | 2:30 p.m.
Temple Shalom
4630 Pine Ridge Rd. | Naples, FL 34109
Admission is free, reservations are requested but not required.
Featured Speaker is Mr. Cesare Frustaci

It has been 80 years since that horrible November 11, 1938 when the Nazis unleashed the worst (until that time) pogrom against the Jews. It came to be known as Kristallnacht, the Night of Broken Glass. Please join us to commemorate the tragedy and memorialize the victims. Catholics and Jews will come together for this event on Sunday Nov. 4th at Temple Shalom, 4630 Pine Ridge Rd., Naples, 2:30 PM.

The featured speaker is Mr. Cesare Frustaci, the son of an Italian-Catholic father and conductor and a Hungarian-Jewish mother and ballerina. Separated from his family by the Nazi invasion he survived in Jesuit orphanages and his mother survived Auschwitz and found him after the war.
FOOD DRIVE

The St. Vincent De Paul Thanksgiving food drive will take place on the weekend of November 10-11. Bags will be distributed at all masses on November 3 and November 4. A list of needed items will be attached to each bag. Filled bags should be placed in the bins at each church entrance on the weekend of November 10-11.

In conjunction with the Thanksgiving food drive, we are again including an option for giving called Beating Hunger Case by Case. This program enables us to provide food to those in need by restocking our pantry shelves with items as they are needed. It affords us the opportunity to purchase food in bulk and will eliminate the waste we experience when we must discard food that is beyond the “best buy” date.

We sincerely appreciate the nonperishable food that you donate and encourage you to bring food to our food drive during the weekend of November 10-11 and throughout the year. However, if you would prefer to contribute to Beating Hunger Case by Case, please make your check payable to St. Vincent de Paul and write “Case by Case” on the memo line. Checks will be collected at the food bins at each church entrance on the weekend of the food drive.

Please help others by supporting our parish food drive and/or the Beating Hunger Case by Case program. Working together, we can help eliminate hunger in our community.

LA ESPERANZA Y PROMESA DE REDENCIÓN

El profeta Jeremías anuncia el fin del exilio en Babilonia. Describe cómo los débiles y los tristes ahora regresarán con alegría. Éste es el pueblo dispersado de Dios: los ciegos y cojos; preñadas y paridas. Serán guiados por un camino llano para que nadie tropiece. La bondad y misericordia del Señor están con este pueblo débil y deshecho.

Aquí y en el Salmo 126 (125) encontramos imágenes poéticas extremadamente hermosas del amor y cuidado que Dios tiene por nosotros. “Los que sembraban con lágrimas, / cosechan entre cantares. Al ir, iba llorando, / llevando la semilla; / al volver, vuelve cantando, / trayendo sus gavillas” (Salmo 126[125]:5-6). Si bien Dios tuvo que castigar a Israel por sus muchos pecados, nunca se olvidó de ellos aun cuando estaban dispersos, y los llevó de regreso a la tierra de sus ancestros para que prosperaran y fueran felices de nuevo. En esto encontramos la esperanza y la promesa de nuestra propia redención al reunirnos, desde todos los rincones del mundo, para celebrar el gran banquete de Dios.
