This Sunday’s Gospel is our final selection from Mark for this liturgical year. It is taken from the end of Jesus’ teaching in Jerusalem immediately preceding the account of his arrest and passion. In it Jesus gives his disciples hope to sustain them through his passion and death and any persecution or suffering that they would encounter after his resurrection.

The words from the book of Daniel also provided hope and encouragement to the people of Daniel’s time. The encouragement in these scriptures is meant for us as well, for none of us will escape tribulation in our lives. Followers of Jesus will be able to endure suffering with joyful hope, knowing that Christ’s love will lead us along the way of discipleship and give us eternal life with God.
Welcome, New Parishioners

Hearing the Cry of the Poor

A PRAYER FOR THE SECOND WORLD DAY OF THE POOR

“This poor one cried out and the LORD heard, and from all his distress he saved him.”
–Psalms 34:7

Loving God,

You hear the cry of each of your children, and especially those who are poor and suffering. We pray that we too might hear the cries of people in need: The family crying out for food...
The migrant child crying out for his mother...
The youth crying out for education ...
The farmer crying out for rains for his harvest....
The trafficked and abused, crying out for freedom...
All of who are poor and vulnerable, crying out for help...

Lord, open our hearts that we may hear the cries of the poor as you do and respond as your hands and feet on earth.

In your name we pray, Amen

The Mission of the Church

There are more people on this planet outside the Church than inside it. Millions have been baptised, millions have not. Millions participate in the celebration of the Lord’s Supper, but millions do not.

The Church as the body of Christ, as Christ living in the world, has a larger task than to support, nurture, and guide its own members. It is also called to be a witness for the love of God made visible in Jesus. Before his death Jesus prayed for his followers, “As you sent me into the world, I have sent them into the world” (John 17:18). Part of the essence of being the Church is being a living witness for Christ in the world.

–Henri Nouwen
Christ has no body on earth but yours, no hands, no feet but yours...

–St. Teresa of Avila

Be a Good Steward of Thanksgiving Day

–International Catholic Stewardship Council

Your Thanksgiving Day can be more than just enjoying a great meal and turning on the television to search for the traditional parades and football games. How about expressing your stewardship of this day in a more meaningful way? Here are some suggestions for making Thanksgiving an opportunity for expressing our gratitude to the Lord in creative ways:

• Go to Mass and count your blessings. Start the day off on a positive note and celebrate the Eucharist. In your prayer, reflect on five things you are most grateful for in your life. Then reflect on how you can be an even better steward of these gifts.

• Write “I’m thankful for you” cards and give them out or e-mail them on Thanksgiving (or mail them beforehand).

• Share your Thanksgiving meal with someone who is alone. Look for someone, such as a neighbor, co-worker, fellow parishioner, college student or armed services personnel who may be separated from family and ask them to join in your Thanksgiving dinner.

• Practice ecumenism! Many parishes make Thanksgiving an opportune time to join in ecumenical services with other Christian worshipping communities, or inter-faith activities and programs with non-Christian centers of worship. Find one nearby and experience something new and enriching.

• Visit the sick. Check with hospitals, assisted living facilities or nursing homes in the area to see if there are volunteer opportunities to visit with patients or residents on that day.

• Help someone if you can. Extend your generosity and blessings beyond your own family. Be part of an adopt-a-family effort, help distribute food baskets, or bring canned foods or clothing to St. Vincent de Paul centers.

• Volunteer your time at a soup kitchen to help prepare and serve Thanksgiving dinners to others.

• Take a walk. Find a place to enjoy God’s gift of creation. Head out the door for a refreshing walk. Invite family, friends or others to share the experience too.

• Most important! Take advantage of the Thanksgiving holidays to focus on what you’re grateful for and the things you appreciate about yourself and others. It is an ideal time to remember and to celebrate the many blessings in our lives.

29th Annual National Night of Prayer for Life

Come pray with us in the chapel, Saturday, December 8 from 8 P.M. to 11 P.M. in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

Join us in uniting the Feast of the Immaculate Conception with the Feast of St. Juan Diego and establishing a bridge of these two feasts to protect our culture, our church and our land. May we make reparation for all the lives lost in this nation to abortion and pray that parents may be conscious of their calling as they share in God’s creative power. We also pray that those who have acted against human life experience forgiveness.

The National Night of Prayer for Life includes adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, the holy rosary, prayer to St. Michael, silent prayer and hymns. We will be united in churches across the country in prayer to end abortion and to restore God’s blessings of Life and Religious Liberty in America.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Did you know that stable housing is often one of the first steps for someone trying to break out of the cycle of poverty? Not surprising! However, in some parts of the United States, the cost to rent an apartment or buy a property has increased beyond what is possible for low and even moderate-income families, creating a housing crisis.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development, (CCHD) is an organization of the Church that aids working families in regard to affordable housing, making it possible for people to remain in their communities for generations to come. It is through your support of the Catholic Campaign for Human Development that these changes are possible, empowering those living in poverty to transform the places they and their children live. Your generosity goes a long way in creating welcoming communities.

The Diocese of Venice will take up the collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development the weekend of November 17 and 18, 2018. In addition to making an impact nationally, those living in poverty in our own diocese are empowered through the 25 percent share of the collection that stays here. Your support of this collection truly makes a difference for people, their families and a roof over their heads. Thank you for your generosity!

I take this opportunity to extend to each of you the assurances of my continued consideration, as well as my prayers for you and your family.

Mary Boys and Sara Lee, authors of “Christians and Jews in dialog” observe, tolerance alone does not inevitably lead to understanding. It only allows people to live in an accepting environment without religious acrimony. Boys, a Catholic Nun and Lee, a Reform Jewish Rabbi, both scholars and teachers, have taken a singular groundbreaking path to the next level. Their insight was recognizing tolerance does not require any mutual learning, or actual learning of any kind. Enabling communities to achieve a higher plateau, which they define as pluralism, requires a commitment and respect for differences that flow from “knowledge of one’s own tradition” combined with “working to [substantively] learn about the religious other.”

Over time, Boys and Lee built a transportable model for educated Catholics and Jews to successfully apply their methodology to “interreligious learning.” Testimony from participants emphasized both the enhancement of their own personal narratives, while building an important and meaningful understanding of “the other.”

The Catholic -Jewish Dialog of Collier County will present the work of Mary Boys and Sara Lee on Sunday, December 9, 2018 at 2:30 p.m. at St. Williams Catholic Church Ministry Center, 750 Seagate Drive, Naples. RSVP to: cjdialogue@naples.net or call (239) 263-4205

In this talk, internationally known speaker and author Matthew Leonard defines and discusses the three traditional stages of prayer. According to scripture, every one of us is called to "be perfect" and to "pray without ceasing." Prayer is the path to God and we've been saying prayers all our lives. But are we really praying? Matthew lays out the practical steps to achieve union with God through deep prayer, even in the midst of this busy world.

Sheepish Question:
How attached am I, really, to the things of the world?

How can I help my toddler participate in Mass?

By their Baptism, children have the privilege of joining the family of God at the celebration of the Mass. There is no more important experience to Catholics than the Mass, so it is the great responsibility and privilege of Catholic parents to help their children understand and participate in liturgy as much as they are able. Having your child hold and follow a Missal during the Mass can be a great way to help them follow, participate in, and thus get more out of what is happening at Mass.

A Missal for Toddlers

This simple, durable and lovely illustrated board book allows 2-4 year old children to follow the prayers and actions of the Holy Mass step by step. The prayers and colorful pictures show a boy and a girl at Mass with their parents, what they say and what they do, as well as the words and actions of the priest. Available at the Blessings Store in the narthex of the church for $15, open 30 min. after the 4pm, 7:30am, 9am, & 11am Masses.
11/18… Life Night: Join us for a night of discussion and games and we discuss what having a vocation means and how we can discover our vocation.

11/25… Thanksgiving break, no Youth Group. See you next week!

12/2… Life Night: This Life Night will help us understand how indulging in addictions is not only dangerous but also hinders our true freedom found in Christ.

A big thanks to the 100 MS and HS teens that came to assist and run the annual St. Agnes Trunk or Treat.

LA NOCHE DEL 29 ANIVERSARIO NACIONAL DE LA ORACIÓN PRO VIDA

Únase a nosotros para orar en la capilla, el sábado 8 de diciembre, de 8 P.M. a 11 P.M. en presencia del Santísimo Sacramento.

La Noche Nacional de Oración pro Vida une las dos fiestas, la de la Inmaculada Concepción y la de San Juan Diego para honrar a Nuestra Santísima Madre, orar por la misericordia del Señor, y restaurar la vida, la libertad, la fe y la paz en nuestra nación. Ofreceremos repararación por todas las vidas perdidas al aborto y oraremos para que los padres estén conscientes de su llamamiento al compartir el poder creativo de Dios. También rezaremos por aquellos que han actuado en contra la vida humana para que puedan experimentar el perdón y la misericordia de Dios.

La Noche Nacional de Oración pro Vida incluye la adoración del Santísimo Sacramento, el santo rosario, la oración a San Miguel, oración en silencio e himnos. Estaremos unidos en oración a otras iglesias en los Estados Unidos para que termine el aborto y el Señor restaure las bendiciones sobre la Vida y la Libertad Religiosa en América.

Bella Esperanza:
