Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

On the final Sunday of the liturgical year we celebrate the feast of Christ the King. It's easy to understand today’s scriptures as events that happened long ago and far away, or predictions that will come true somewhere, some day. But they invite us to claim Christ as our King here and now. Jesus’ words to Pilate in the Gospel remind us that his kingdom transcends time and place. And the prophecies from Daniel and Revelation give us reason to be faithful to Christ our King right here and right now.

By concluding the year with this feast we are proclaiming our faith that Jesus Christ is the one and only King over all seasons, all peoples, and all of creation. No matter what nation we belong to or what language we speak, he “has made us into a kingdom” (Revelation 1:6)—one people united in love and peace for all eternity.

Solemnity of Christ the King

On the last Sunday of each liturgical year, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Christ the King.

Pope Pius XI instituted this feast in 1925 with his encyclical Quas Primas (“In the first”) to respond to growing nationalism and secularism. He recognized that these related societal ills would breed increasing hostility against the Church. His encyclical reminds the faithful that while governments and philosophies come and go, Christ reigns as king forever.

Heart As Wide As the World

The awareness of being part of the communion of saints makes our hearts as wide as the world. The love with which we love is not just our love; it is the love of Jesus and his saints living in us. When the Spirit of Jesus lives in our hearts, all who have lived their lives in that Spirit live there too. Our parents, grandparents, and great-grandparents; our teachers and their teachers; our pastors and their pastors; our spiritual guides and theirs – all the holy men and women who form that long line of love through history – are part of our hearts, where the Spirit of Jesus chooses to dwell.

-Henri Nouwen
Gratitude

Christ has no body on earth but yours, no hands, no feet but yours...

—St. Teresa of Avila

Gratitude is essential to discipleship. Feeling a deep appreciation for the giftedness of our lives can’t be confined to one holiday, Thanksgiving, when we spend a few minutes around a laden table remembering our many blessings. Neither can gratitude become a rote response.

Gratitude is good for our spiritual lives in so many ways. It reminds us of our neediness before the Lord, without whom we have nothing. The mere daily act of focusing on our blessings makes us more mindful, more present to God’s mystery and gifts, and more aware of the needs of others around us. Gratitude is best achieved by daily, focused attention. So perhaps a good exercise would be to write down, each day, some things for which we are truly grateful. Your list will no doubt include people – a teacher who inspired you, a coach who believed in you, an aunt who made you feel special, an employer who mentored you. Your notes might include simple things – the aroma of freshly ground coffee, a lunch invitation that brightened your day, a phone call that brought a smile. Focus on things you sometimes take for granted – the warm home in which you live, the sunshine that peeked through a cloudy day, the bright redness of a leaf on the lawn, the faithful presence of your spouse.

And during this month of thanks and every month, remember to give thanks to the risen Lord:

Let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him (Colossians 3:15-17).

Sheepish Question:
Why are my questions important to such a vast God?

How can I help my toddler participate in Mass?

By their Baptism, children have the privilege of joining the family of God at the celebration of the Mass. There is no more important experience for Catholics than the Mass, so it is the great responsibility and privilege of Catholic parents to help their children understand and participate in liturgy as much as they are able. Having your child hold and follow a Missal during the Mass can be a great way to help them follow, participate in, and thus get more out of what is happening at Mass.

A Missal for Toddlers

This simple, durable and lovely illustrated board book allows 2-4 year old children to follow the prayers and actions of the Holy Mass step by step. The prayers and colorful pictures show a boy and a girl at Mass with their parents, what they say and what they do, as well as the words and actions of the priest. Available at the Blessings Store in the narthex of the church for $15, open 30 min. after the 4pm, 7:30am, 9am, & 11am Masses.

LA NOCHE DEL 29 ANIVERSARIO NACIONAL DE LA ORACIÓN PRO VIDA

Únase a nosotros para orar en la capilla, el sábado 8 de diciembre, de 8 P.M a 11 P.M. en presencia del Santísimo Sacramento.

La Noche Nacional de Oración pro Vida une las dos fiestas, la de la Inmaculada Concepción y la de San Juan Diego para honrar a Nuestra Santísima Madre, orar por la misericordia del Señor, y restaurar la vida, la libertad, la fe y la paz en nuestra nación. Ofreceremos repararación por todas las vidas perdidas al aborto y oraremos para que los padres estén conscientes de su llamamiento al compartir el poder creativo de Dios. También rezaremos por aquellos que han actuado en contra la vida humana para que puedan experimentar el perdón y la misericordia de Dios.

La Noche Nacional de Oración pro Vida incluye la adoración del Santísimo Sacramento, el santo rosario, la oración a San Miguel, oración en silencio e himnos. Estaremos unidos en oración a otras iglesias en los Estados Unidos para que termine el aborto y el Señor restausre las bendiciones sobre la Vida y la Libertad Religiosa en América.

El Ministerio de Padres y Madres Orantes los invita a su reunión mensual para orar por sus hijos y todos los jóvenes. Se comienza con el Santo Rosario y tenemos la exposición del Santísimo Sacramento. Los días de reuniones son siempre día viernes en la Capilla de 6:30pm a 9: pm
