Come let us adore Him
Throughout our lives, we retain the language and habits of our native region and family of origin. Should we return to our home after a long absence, we quickly revert to its familiar speech and practices. Our deep memory is reflected in old stories and words and speech patterns. This familiarity runs like an underground river and accompanies us wherever we go. Not only do we remember, we are incorporated into and made part of a greater memory. In remembering and recollecting, we are in turn gathered up and re-collected.

Today we remember Mary, a small figure travelling the country roads to visit Elizabeth. All the great pronouncements and dreams of the prophets point to this time when the Lord’s words to Mary would be gathered and fulfilled. The memories of her people are alive in her, and memories of her nourish our own living faith.
Welcome, New Parishioners

Please pick up a registration form in the Narthex, at the doors of the church, in front of the office or on our website www.stagnesnaples.org. Completed forms may be dropped in the collection basket, hand delivered, mailed, emailed or faxed. Thank you for becoming part of our Parish Family. God bless.

Bienvenidos, nuevos Feligreses

Pray for Peace and Safety:
If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God’s blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

St. Agnes Parish                     6                   December 23, 2018 about the afterlife, therefore, are little more than just that: speculations. Beyond death there is no “first” and “later,” no “here” and “there,” no “past,” “present,” or “future.” God is all in all. The end of time, the resurrection of the body, and the glorious coming again of Jesus are no longer separated by time for those who are no longer in time.

God’s Timeless Time

There is no “after” after death. Words like after and before belong to our mortal life, our life in time and space. Death frees us from the boundaries of chronology and brings us into God’s “time,” which is timeless. Speculations about the afterlife, therefore, are little more than just that: speculations. Beyond death there is no “first” and “later,” no “here” and “there,” no “past,” “present,” or “future.” God is all in all. The end of time, the resurrection of the body, and the glorious coming again of Jesus are no longer separated by time for those who are no longer in time.

For us who still live in time, it is important not to act as if the new life in Christ is something we can comprehend or explain. God’s heart and mind are greater than ours. All that is asked of us is trust.

hope and pray that your Christmas will be a most joyful celebration of our Savior's birth with your family and closest friends! After 5:00 Mass this Sunday an army of volunteer decorators including high school youth will transform the Church from Advent anticipation into Christmas joy, and you are invited to join them! Thank you for your labor of love to make the Church presentable for our guests and our Lord, and my gratitude extends to those involved in everything from the planning of the coming liturgies to the donating of Christmas poinsettias. The music of Paul Todd and Cindy Dallas, our cantors, choir, and musicians at the various Masses will enrich our worship.

I am grateful to those of you who generously helped Santa with the Christmas wish list published in the bulletin, and those who took tags from our giving tree to make someone's Christmas happier, on top of your overall generosity throughout the year. In small and large ways, you show the presence of the Holy Spirit in the spirit with which you give. Some of you will choose to put your Christmas donations toward capital improvements and new mission development, and that is most appreciated. God will surely lead us to improvements here and the establishment of a new parish nearby in the years to come.

After more than a decade here, I have come to love Christmases at St. Agnes. Whether this will be your first one here, or you began your journey of faith celebrating Masses in schools before the church was built, I commend you for being such a good family to Fr. Kris, Fr. Orsi, Fr. Luis, the retired priests and me. From founding parishioners to the newest of registrants, we are part of something very special here. Faith in Jesus Christ and love of God and neighbor unite us. May we continue to worship and serve in imitation of the One who came in great humility and showed us how much we are loved by God.

For those who find that sorrow and grief is part of your Christmas experience this year, including those who lost loved ones and individuals suffering in any way, may our Lord give you His peace. Not long ago, we lost our Deacon Ed McCarthy, and Christmas won't be quite the same without seeing him giving children candy canes in his Santa hat in the narthex after Christmas Mass. Human experience reveals that the joy reflecting the incarnation of our God in Jesus Christ is never far from the pain of His sorrowful passion. Thankfully our Faith tells us that Jesus has won the ultimate victory over sin and death and our hope remains in Him. May you be consoled in His love.

On behalf of Fr. Kris, Fr. Orsi, Fr. Luis, Deacon Henry, Deacon Roberto, Deacon Hugh and the retired priests and staff of St. Agnes Catholic Church, may the infant Jesus bless you this Christmas season, and may 2019 be rich in love, faith, health, happiness and all good things!
¡Espero y oro para que su Navidad sea la celebración más gozosa del nacimiento de nuestro Salvador con su familia y amigos más cercanos! Después de la misa de este domingo a las 5:00, un ejército de decoradores voluntarios, incluidos jóvenes de secundaria transformarán la Iglesia de la anticipación del Adviento en alegría navideña, ¡y usted está invitado a unirse a ellos! Gracias por su labor de amor para hacer que la Iglesia este presentable para nuestros huéspedes y para nuestro Señor, y mi gratitud se extiende a aquellos involucrados en todo, desde la planificación de las liturgias venideras hasta la donación de flores de Pascua. La música de Paul Todd y Cindy Dallas, nuestros cantores, coro y músicos en las diversas Misas enriquecerá nuestra adoración.

Agradezco a aquellos de ustedes que ayudaron generosamente a Papá Noel con la lista de deseos de Navidad publicada en el boletín, y a quienes tomaron las etiquetas de nuestro árbol de donaciones para hacer que la Navidad de alguien sea más feliz, además de su generosidad general durante todo el año. En formas grandes y pequeñas, muestran la presencia del Espíritu Santo en el espíritu con el que dan. Algunos de ustedes elegirán poner sus donaciones de Navidad hacia las mejoras de la iglesia y desarrollo de la nueva misión, y se les agradece. Dios seguramente nos llevará a mejoras aquí y al establecimiento de una nueva parroquia cercana en los próximos años.

Después de más de una década aquí, he llegado a amar las navidades en St. Agnes. Ya sea que esta sea su primera aquí, o si comenzó su viaje de fe celebrando las Misas en las escuelas antes de que se construyera la iglesia, los felicito por ser una familia tan buena para el Padre Kris, el Padre Orsi, el Padre Luis, los sacerdotes retirados y para mí. Desde feligreses fundadores hasta los más nuevos inscritos, formamos parte de algo muy especial aquí. La fe en Jesucristo y el amor de Dios y al prójimo nos unen. Que continuemos adorando y sirviendo en imitación a Aquel que vino con gran humildad y nos mostró cuánto somos amados por Dios.

Para aquellos que descubren que la pena y el dolor forman parte de su experiencia navideña este año, incluidos aquellos que perdieron a seres queridos e individuos que sufren de alguna manera, que nuestro Señor les dé su paz. No hace mucho, perdimos a nuestro Diácono Ed McCarthy, y la Navidad no será lo mismo sin verlo dando caramelos a los niños con su sombrero de Santa en el nártex después de la misa de Navidad. La experiencia humana revela que la alegría reflejada en la encarnación de nuestro Dios en Jesucristo nunca está lejos del dolor de su dolorosa pasión. Afortunadamente, nuestra fe nos dice que Jesús ha ganado la victoria final sobre el pecado y la muerte y nuestra esperanza permanece en él. Que sean consolados en su amor.

En nombre del Padre Kris, el Padre Orsi, el Padre Luis, el Diácono Henry, el Diácono Roberto, el Diácono Hugh y los sacerdotes retirados y el personal de la iglesia católica de St. Agnes, que el niño Jesús los bendiga esta temporada navideña y que el 2019 sea rico en amor, fe, salud, felicidad y cosas buenas.

and we will help you to sign up.

ADORATION WILL HOPEFULLY BEGIN IN JANUARY

“Will you not spend one hour with Me?”
O, Come Let Us Adore Him! Christ the Lord!

WHY EUCHARISTIC ADORATION IS IMPORTANT

Eucharistic adoration is an invitation by Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament to spend an hour or so in communication with Him to praise and adore Him, to make reparation to His Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and to petition Him for public and private needs. Eucharistic Adoration is a time when one can come face-to-face with Jesus, the Lord of All Creation. Jesus looks at us and we look at Him fully present in the Blessed Sacrament hidden in that tiny piece of bread. Eucharistic Adoration is an opportunity for us to take time out of our busy lives to come and rest in The Lord. We come to center ourselves on Jesus Who gives purpose and meaning to our lives. As human beings we search for peace in many places, but true peace comes from the God of Love, Mercy, and Peace. There is no man-made form of meditation, relaxation or silence which will bring true peace to the human soul. True peace can only be found by placing ourselves in silence before the Lord and allowing Him to speak to us in the innermost recesses of our hearts.

Perhaps we can say that the Sacred Heart of Jesus began the devotion of the Holy Hour of Reparation and Adoration when he entered the Garden of Gethsemane on Mount Olivet. He said to His apostles: “My soul is sorrowful even unto death. Stay here and watch with Me.” Later He said to them: “Could you not watch one hour with Me? Watch and pray that you enter not into temptation.” (Matt. 26: 38,40,41.) As Jesus spoke to His Apostles, so He pleads with us to stay and watch and pray with Him. In the 13th century Pope Urban IV instituted the feast of Corpus Christi to honor Jesus present in the Holy Eucharist. In modern times Pope John XXIII took every opportunity to encourage the faithful, especially priests to pray before the Blessed Sacrament. Both Pope Paul VI and Pope John Paul II taught and preached on the importance of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in these turbulent times as a means of honoring and adoring Jesus, making reparation for the ingratitude of men and imploring mercy on the world.

Some good reasons for establishing Perpetual Adoration in our parish are as follows: to provide an easy, attractive, and practical way of rendering God adoration which is His due as our Creator; of giving Him thanks for our redemption; of making reparation for our sins and the sins of mankind; and of petitioning the good God for the constant help we need. We show our gratitude to our Lord for remaining among us in our tabernacles, and make at least some atonement for the many sacrileges, indifferences, and ingratitude which He receives in His Sacrament of Love.

Stewardship and Christmas: Turning the World Upside Down

For women in the ancient world, motherhood was prized and desired above almost all else. Sacred scripture tells of many women who pleaded with God to let them conceive. From Sarah, the mother of Isaac, to Elizabeth, the mother of John the Baptist, the Bible is replete with women who finally, in their old age, were granted the gift of motherhood for which they had begged God. How marvelously significant it is then, that in the town of Nazareth those many years ago, a young girl named Mary, unmarried and probably feeling altogether unready for motherhood, was visited by an angel who delivered God’s plea: would she give God a child? Mary’s response is a model par excellence for all those who aspire to be good stewards: “Behold, I am the Lord’s servant. Let it be done to me according to your word” (Lk. 1:38). And so, the real mystery and beauty of Christmas is delivered: God turns the world upside down. In the words of the Magnificat, Mary proclaims the hope of every good steward: “My soul magnifies the Lord” (Lk. 1:46). He has dispersed the arrogant of mind and heart, lifted the lowly, filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty. Here is a new understanding of the God who desires not our begging and our pleas, but our ‘yes’ to God’s invitation to be active stewards in his plan of salvation. For the Christian steward, the consumerism, the gaudiness, the excesses of our cultural Christmas can be overcome by answering the call to live simpler lives, to use less, to feed the poor, to quiet ourselves in stillness rather than grow louder in frenzied activity. In her book The Vigil: Keeping Watch in the Season of Christ’s Coming, Professor Wendy Wright from Creighton University writes: “The ancient desert dwellers of our early Christian communities tell us that the surest way into the heart of God is to be still. In being still we learn to be attentive to the vast and hidden stillness that permeates all things.” In a world which prizes and desires wealth above so many things, the Christian steward finds in the stillness the true hope which lies at the heart of Christmas. Christ has come, and he comes again and again, and finally in the end, Christ comes. Once again, God implores us to receive this child in the stillness of our hearts and respond to his call to transform the world’s values – to turn the world upside down.

Little Rock Scripture Study
A Ministry of the Catholic Diocese of Little Rock in Partnership with Liturgical Press

PARABLES OF THE KINGDOM

This study focuses on the parables unique to Matthew, and those developed by Luke. Many of these parables have the power to change or alter one’s image of God and how God relates to people, others deal with how God expects us to relate to each other. The parables offer a glimpse into the kingdom of God and invite us to think in new and fresh ways.

CD DEL MES DE DICIEMBRE

El reconocido erudito de las Escrituras y autor, Doctor Tim Gray, ofrece una fascinante explicación de la importancia de la Iglesia visible y la centralidad de Dios en la Tierra. Ofrece ideas increíbles que aclaran el papel de la Iglesia como una parte esencial del plan de Dios para la salvación, que seguramente ayudarán a aquellos que la han abandonado, o que erróneamente afirman ser “espirituales, pero no religiosos”. Este CD está disponible en el quiosco de Lighthouse Catholic Media, delante de la tienda de artículos religiosos.

El Ministerio de Padres y Madres Orantes los invita a su reunión mensual para orar por sus hijos y todos los jóvenes. Se comienza con el Santo Rosario y tenemos la exposición del Santísimo Sacramento. Los días de reuniones son siempre día viernes en la Capilla de 6:30pm a 9: pm
