The idea, dream, and reality of family is so strong and durable that we use it to describe all that is best about human gatherings. We speak of the family of nations, of our church and parish families. The greatest compliment we can pay a friend or gracious host is to say that we feel at home with them, we feel part of the family.

Families are the first crucibles in which love is tested and tempered. Jesus himself was one of three people who lived in the shadow of each other. This family, like our own, did not always “get it right,” but they always tried to. These three “amateurs” were on holiday, and one of them got lost. Two were worried sick and took great measures to find the third, a boy after all, who was seeking the meaning of his calling. He found his vocation—to do his Father’s work—but he also returned home with his parents.

The Fullness of Time

Jesus came in the fullness of time. He will come again in the fullness of time. Wherever Jesus, the Christ, is the time is brought to its fullness. We often experience our time as empty. We hope that tomorrow, next week, next month or next year the real things will happen. But sometimes we experience the fullness of time. That is when it seems that time stands still, that past, present, and future become one; that everything is present where we are; and that God, we, and all that is have come together in total unity. This is the experience of God’s time.

“When the completion of the time came [that is: in the fullness of time], God sent his Son, born of a woman” (Galatians 4:4), and in the fullness of time God will “bring everything together under Christ, as head, everything in the heavens and everything on earth” (Ephesians 1:10). It is in the fullness of time that we meet God.

—Henri Nouwen
“Christ has no body on earth but yours, no hands, no feet but yours...”

–St. Teresa of Avila

MEN’S CONFERENCE

IRON SHARPENS IRON!

PROVERBS 27:17

MARY HEALY is Professor of Sacred Scripture at Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit. Her work promoting Biblical Studies have greatly assisted the faithful in hearing the Word of God and living by it, with greater understanding and passionate zeal.

DCN. RALPH POYO models discipleship of Jesus with a truly relational style of evangelization. He helps Parishes become “self-evangelizing” Parishes by focusing on relational ministry and personal one-on-one encounters to build up the local Church.

HECTOR MOLINA has been speaking for over 25 years and has keynoted over 100 Diocesan events (in English and Spanish) from North America to Australia. As part of Casting Nets Ministries, he truly embodies what it means to be a “fisher of men.”

Dear Friends at St. Agnes,

Deacon Ed served at St. Agnes since its very beginning in 2007. It was a joy of his life to be involved with his St. Agnes family. He passed away on November 4.

I share with you some of the quotes from famous people who have made our grieving process a bit less painful.

Deacon Ed took his Sacrament of Holy Orders very seriously. Mr. Rogers, from Mr. Rogers Neighborhood, described Deacon Ed’s mission when he said,

“As human beings, our job in life is to help people realize how rare and valuable each one of us really is, that each of us has something that no one else has—or ever will have—something inside that is unique to all time. It’s our job to encourage each other to discover that uniqueness and to provide ways of developing its expression.”

That is truly how Deacon Ed tried to live his life. I am overwhelmed with the outpouring of love you have sent in the form of flowers, Mass cards, food, donations, and expressions of esteem and condolence.

I am so grateful that you have taken the time to think of us. Your memories have been my special treasure.

Charlie Brown said, “I love the kind of hugs where you can feel the sadness leaving your body.”

With gratitude, I thank you for whatever it is that you have done to help ease the pain that we all feel right now. We thank you for those hugs and all the gestures of friendship you have made.

If you have lost a loved one recently, be comforted to know that they are safe in the arms of Jesus. They are always a part of your life. For the love they have shared with live on in your heart.

Charlie Brown also said: “Perhaps they are not stars but rather openings which our loved ones shine down to let us know they are happy.”

This Christmas season I will be watching those special stars, knowing that Ed smiles down on each of us. You watch too!

We wish you Christmas Joy, happiness in the New Year, hugs, much love and many, many thanks to our St. Agnes Family,

Jane and the entire McCarthy family

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

As young men answer “yes” to the Holy Spirit and discern a call to the priesthood, the Diocese needs your assistance regarding their priestly formation. Your support of the Annual Seminary Collection continues to be crucial as many challenges are faced to ensure a proper environment and education are provided to the future priests of the Diocese of Venice.

The formation of our seminarians includes the costs of tuition, housing, education, insurance, summer assignments and pastoral training. Your spiritual, along with your financial support, is of great assistance to these young men in their discernment. By your generosity you walk the journey of faith with many future priests and ensure that the sacraments will continue to nourish the faithful for generations to come. Your support of this collection will assist those currently in seminary formation, especially at St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary in Boynton Beach and St. John Vianney College Seminary in Miami.

Parishes in the Diocese of Venice will conduct this Annual Seminary Collection the weekend of January 5 and 6, 2019. Thank you for all that you have done and continue to do to support priestly formation in the Diocese of Venice. Your generosity and continued prayers for our priests, seminarians, and those still discerning their call to the priesthood is greatly appreciated.

I take this opportunity to extend to each of you the assurances of my prayers for the New Year. Have a Blessed Christmas Season and Healthy New Year!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Frank J. Dewane

A Prayer for Priests

Lord Jesus, you have chosen your priests from among us and sent them out to proclaim your word and act in your name.

For so great a gift to your Church, we give you praise and thanksgiving. We ask you to fill them with the fire of your love, that their ministry may reveal your presence in the Church. Since they are earthen vessels, we pray that your power shines out through their weakness. In their afflictions let them never be crushed, in their doubts never despair, in temptation never be destroyed, and in persecution never abandoned. Inspire them through prayer to live each day the mystery of your dying and rising. In times of weakness send them your Spirit and help them to praise your Heavenly Father and pray for poor sinners. By your same Holy Spirit put your word on their lips and your love in their hearts, to bring good news to the poor and healing to the brokenhearted. And may the gift of Mary, your Mother, to the disciple whom you loved, be your gift to every priest. Grant that she who formed you in her human image, may form them in your divine image, by the power of your Spirit, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Little Rock Scripture Study
A Ministry of the Catholic Diocese of Little Rock in Partnership with Logos Press

PARABLES OF THE KINGDOM

This study focuses on the parables unique to Matthew, and those developed by Luke. Many of these parables have the power to change or alter one’s image of God and how God relates to people, others deal with how God expects us to relate to each other. The parables offer a glimpse into the kingdom of God and invite us to think in new and fresh ways.
