The Epiphany of the Lord

Finding God

The splendid magi, all sparkle and dash and solemnity, march right up off the pages of Matthew’s Gospel and into our churches today. Matthew alone tells us this grand and seductive story so that we might see the light and know that the child these magi visited is the fulfillment of prophecy, the king of the world that stretches to the magi’s home country and beyond, right down the ages to us.

We too see and understand anew. Like the magi, our patron saints for this day, we see in the newborn child the king of the universe and light of the world. Like them, we find in ourselves a new faith and a new life. Like them, we return to our home by a new route.

We are asked to come away from this festive season ourselves renewed and awake to the presence of God among us. We are asked to find God where God is to be found, to be attentive and surprised and ready to bow down in adoration and to offer our gifts.

THE EPHESIANS OF THE LORD
First Reading: Isaiah 60:1-6
Second Reading: Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6
Gospel: Matthew 2:1-12

Adults: When have you been jealous or fearful of another person? When are such feelings harmful? ¿Cuándo has sentido celoso o temor de otra persona? ¿Cuándo son perjudiciales estos sentimientos?

Children: When have you been jealous because something good happened to another person instead of you? What is the problem with feeling that way? ¿Cuándo has estado celoso porque algo bueno le ha pasado a otra persona en vez de a ti? ¿Qué hay de malo en sentirse así?

The Mountaintop Experience

At some moments we experience complete unity within us and around us. This may happen when we stand on a mountaintop and are captivated by the view. It may happen when we witness the birth of a child or the death of a friend. It may happen when we have an intimate conversation or a family meal. It may happen in church during a service or in a quiet room during prayer. But whenever and however it happens we say to ourselves: “This is it ... everything fits ... all I ever hoped for is here.” This is the experience that Peter, James, and John had on the top of Mount Tabor when they saw the aspect of Jesus’ face change and his clothing become sparkling white. They wanted that moment to last forever (see Luke 9:28-36). This is the experience of the fullness of time. These moments are given to us so that we can remember them when God seems far away and everything appears empty and useless. These experiences are true moments of grace.

–Henri Nouwen
Christ has no body on earth but yours, no hands, no feet but yours... – St. Teresa of Avila

The time for making New Year’s resolutions is here. As we begin 2019, we may resolve to lose weight, to exercise, to eat healthier. We may resolve to read more, to spend more time with family and friends, to take up a hobby or finish a project. One definition of the word “resolution” is, “A firmness of mind or purpose”. This is how many of us approach a new year - with a firm commitment to make changes, to do something differently than we have in the past. We make resolutions we think will improve our physical, emotional and social lives. It can be easy to forget the most important “life” of all; our spiritual life. This time of resolutions and new beginnings is the perfect moment to renew a “firmness of purpose” as faithful stewards. This year, why not include a resolution to spend 5 extra minutes in prayer each day or to attend Mass every week? We can make a resolution - a firm commitment - to share our time in prayer, our talents and service and our financial resources in support of our parish and its ministries. Resolutions are traditionally made in the hope that this new dedication to action will make us healthier and happier. What action can we take to make our relationship with God healthier and happier? A strong bond with God doesn’t just happen; we need to work at it one step at a time. As we begin this new year, I invite you to join me in adding a spiritual resolution (or two) to your “to do” list for 2019. May this New Year bring you much joy and spiritual awakening.

2019 Men's Conference - The Diocese of Venice will be revamping this year’s Men’s Conference! Enjoy spiritual fellowship with some grit, a burger fest, outdoor games, and great food! The event is from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on Saturday, February 2 at Bishop Verot Catholic High School, 5598 Sunrise Drive, Fort Myers. The speakers this year are Dr. Mary Healy, Deacon Ralph Poyo, and Hector Molina. The day will also include the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, Eucharistic Adoration and the opportunity to participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. MEN’S CONFERENCE
IRON SHARPENS IRON!

FEB 2, 2019

MARY HEALY is Professor of Sacred Scripture at Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit. Her work promoting Biblical Studies have greatly assisted the faithful in hearing the Word of God and living by it, with greater understanding and passionate zeal.

DCN. RALPH POYO models discipleship of Jesus with a truly relational style of evangelization. He helps Parishes become “self-evangelizing” Parishes by focusing on relational ministry and personal one-on-one encounters to build up the local Church.

HECTOR MOLINA has been speaking for over 25 years and has keynoted over 100 Diocesan events (in English and Spanish) from North America to Australia. As part of Casting Nets Ministries, he truly embodies what it means to be a “fisher of men.”

Hi Everyone,

Happy New Year. I can't believe it's already January 2019. I hope you had a wonderful and blessed holiday season. Fr. Bob and I want to personally thank all you who so graciously supported our Christmas concerts and the wonderful Lessons and Carols. You are all such a gift to us. God bless you.

I would like to share some really exciting events for January.

On Saturday, January 19, at Wyndemere Country Club, Paul Todd Charities will be hosting a dinner and concert gala fundraiser for the Community Pregnancy Clinic of Naples. Their mission statement is to “Save Babies from Abortion while providing care, compassion and choices for women”. Their Vision statement is to create communities where every woman and baby is safe from abortion. Fr. Bob and I hope you come support this very worthwhile organization. There will be special musical guests and priests performing, making this a wonderful evening celebrating the gift of life. Don't miss it! Tickets will be available after Masses. More details coming!

Mark your calendars for the first concerts of the 2019 winter season. Thursday and Friday, January 30th and 31st, Paul Todd and Friends present The New Great American Songbook. We will feature the music of Frank Sinatra, Michael Bublé, Johnny Mathis, Neil Diamond, Liza Minnelli, Barbra Streisand, and many more. Tickets sell fast during season so please get your tickets early. The tickets are $30 per person and available after all Masses (except 5 p.m. Sunday evening) and in the Parish Office Monday thru Friday during business hours. What a great way to support our CFA and enjoy an evening out.

The Blessings store now has a display of Paul Todd cd's available on the weekends. It is my distinct pleasure to make these available to you at St. Agnes.

As always, we encourage anyone who has a special musical gift to come and join our choirs. The choir rehearsals are mostly held on Wednesday evenings in the Church. The Children's choir begins at 5 pm and Adult choir begins at 7 pm. I am looking forward to a wonderful winter season in beautiful, sunny, Naples Florida at St. Agnes Catholic Church. May God bless you all in 2019!

Paul Todd

Have you ever wanted to attend a synagogue service just to see how it’s done but weren’t sure how to do it? The Catholic Jewish Dialogue has arranged for you to do just that. All Catholics have been invited to attend Friday night services (Shabbat) at the Jewish Congregation of Marco Island (JCMI) and Temple Shalom in Naples. There will be a special welcome from the rabbis and a festive social (Oneg) afterwards with copious amounts of desserts and friendship. Don’t miss this opportunity to learn about Judaism and the roots of our faith.

Thank you "Live Nativity"

St. Agnes Live Nativity was an incredible experience that allowed us to be transported to Bethlehem to honor the birth of our Savior. Thank you to everyone who, with much effort and dedication made the realization of the Live Nativity possible. It allowed us to remember the true meaning of Christmas. Blessings!

La presentación de la Natividad Viviente en St. Agnes fue todo un éxito. Una experiencia increíble que hizo posible que nos trasladáramos a Belén para honrar el nacimiento de Nuestro Salvador. Gracias a todas las personas que, con mucho esfuerzo y dedicación hicieron posible que se llevará a cabo una vez más la Natividad Viviente. Nos permitió recordar el verdadero sentido de la Navidad. Bendiciones!

Little Rock Scripture Study
A Ministry of the Catholic Diocese of Little Rock in Partnership with Liturgical Press

PART TWO
PARABLES OF THE KINGDOM

This study focuses on the parables unique to Matthew, and those developed by Luke. Many of these parables have the power to change or alter one's image of God and how God relates to people, others deal with how God expects us to relate to each other. The parables offer a glimpse into the kingdom of God and invite us to think in new and fresh ways.

CD DEL MES DE ENERO
Jason Evert, conferencista y autor catolico, nos presenta los cinco grandes amores del Papa San Juan Pablo II. Nos comparte historias sobre la vida de este santo, contadas por los que conocieron. Prepárate para conocer cosas que no sabías sobre este santo hombre de Dios que, entre otras cosas, promovió la devoción a la Divina Misericordia y la Consagración Mariana, ayudó a derrocar el comunismo en Europa, articuló lo que hoy se conoce como la Teología del Cuerpo y se hizo amigo de los jóvenes como ningún otro Papa lo había hecho.

El CD esta disponible en el quiosco de Lighthouse Catholic Media en el Nártex.
