Confronted with God’s power and majesty, the first response of the prophet Isaiah was to acknowledge his sinfulness. “Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips,” he said aloud. Likewise, with his empty fishing nets dramatically filled at Jesus’ instruction, Peter fell to his knees and cried out, “Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man.”

Next, Peter got up. He docked his boats then left to follow Jesus. Isaiah also had a dramatic change of heart. When he heard the Lord say, “Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?” Isaiah answered, “Here I am, send me.”

We are summoned daily by the Risen Lord. We are reminded of the saving power of the gospel and know in our heart of hearts that, as St. Paul wrote, believing in anything else won’t lead to anything.

What will it take for you to move past your sinfulness? What will it take for you to get off your knees? What will it take for you to bring to dock what is unimportant and to accept your call to be God’s messenger?

At issue here is the question: “To whom do I belong? God or to the world?” Many of my daily preoccupations suggest that I belong more to the world than to God. A little criticism makes me angry, and a little rejection makes me depressed. A little praise raises my spirits, and a little success excites me. It takes very little to raise me up or thrust me down. Often I am like a small boat on the ocean, completely at the mercy of its waves. All the time and energy I spend in keeping some kind of balance and preventing myself from being tipped over and drowning shows that my life is mostly a struggle for survival: not a holy struggle, but an anxious struggle.

At issue here is the question: “To whom do I belong? God or to the world?” Many of my daily preoccupations suggest that I belong more to the world than to God. A little criticism makes me angry, and a little rejection makes me depressed. A little praise raises my spirits, and a little success excites me. It takes very little to raise me up or thrust me down. Often I am like a small boat on the ocean, completely at the mercy of its waves. All the time and energy I spend in keeping some kind of balance and preventing myself from being tipped over and drowning shows that my life is mostly a struggle for survival: not a holy struggle, but an anxious struggle resulting from the mistaken idea that it is the world that defines me. . . . As long as we belong to this world, we will remain subject to its competitive ways and expect to be rewarded for all the good we do. But when we belong to God, who loves us without conditions, we can live as he does. The great conversion called for by Jesus is to move from belonging to the world to belonging to God.

—Henri Nouwen
When Jesus called the first disciples, he called them each by name. Knowing they were fishermen, He summoned them to drop their nets and follow Him. “I will make you fishers of men,” (Mt. 4:19) He told them; and they did.

In Matthew’s Gospel, we see Simon and Andrew, two of the first 12 Jesus called, literally drop their fishing supplies and join Jesus in His mission to spread the good news.

In much the same way, Jesus calls each one of us today, and He wants us to respond. That may seem like a bit of a stretch given that Simon and Andrew audibly heard and saw the Lord as He called out to them, and then, when they left their nets behind, they walked side by side with Jesus in the flesh. Our call cannot be just like their, can it? Indeed it can, and, in fact, it is Jesus that calls each one of us by name at our Baptisms. He invites us to follow Him, and that invitation requires a response on our part.

“Drop your nets and follow me,” Jesus says to each one of us. Each of our responses to that invitation will look a bit different. After all, most of us do not fish for a living, and even if we do, the fishing industry is not what it was 2,000 years ago. Maybe you’re a musician or a seamstress or a good cook or a businessman. Whatever your talent, Christ calls YOU to follow Him, and, just as He called the first disciples, He calls YOU to use those talents to serve Him and build His kingdom.

Many of you reading this are leaders in your parishes, which means that your roles within the parish offer you an incredible opportunity to be great witnesses of true stewardship. You must lead by example. You MUST hear and answer Christ’s call and make stewardship your way of life - giving your time, your talent and your treasure back to Him in gratitude and using it to serve His kingdom. Chances are you will not see Him walking the streets like the early disciples did, and you probably will not audibly hear Him call out to you, but the reality of that call is still the same.

Spend time in prayer. He speaks to us there. Read the Bible. There, He tells us all about what it means to be a disciple, how we are to respond to the call. Get to know the Lord intimately. I promise that it will change your life. I can tell you from experience, the more you give of yourself in prayer and service, the deeper you will fall in the love with the Lord, and the more you will desire to serve Him. What’s more, I can promise you that the more you serve Him, the happier you will be. After all, we were all created to know, love, and serve the Lord. What more could we ask for than a life that fulfills us?

Msgr. Thomas McGread, is often called the “Father of Stewardship,” He established a one-of-a-kind conference, at his St. Francis of Assisi parish in Wichita, it has impacted other parishes across the country for many years. He passed away in 2013 but, his impact on stewardship is still being felt.

A Prayer for Priests

Lord Jesus, you have chosen your priests from among us and sent them out to proclaim your word and act in your name. For so great a gift to your Church, we give you praise and thanksgiving. We ask you to fill them with the fire of your love, that their ministry may reveal your presence in the Church. Since they are earthen vessels, we pray that your power shines out through their weakness. In their afflictions let them never be crushed, in their doubts never despair, in temptation never be destroyed, and in persecution never abandoned. Inspire them through prayer to live each day the mystery of your dying and rising, In times of weakness send them your Spirit and help them to praise your Heavenly Father and pray for poor sinners. By your same Holy Spirit put your word on their lips and your love in their hearts, to bring good news to the poor and healing to the brokenhearted. And may the gift of Mary, your Mother, to the disciple whom you loved, be your gift to every priest. Grant that she who formed you in her human image, may form them in your divine image, by the power of your Spirit, to the glory of God the Father; Amen.

Eucharistic Adoration

We have completed three weeks of Eucharistic Adoration. God is truly blessing this worthy endeavor. There are many stories of adorers receiving special graces during their Adoration time. As we continue to grow we hope that Jesus in The Eucharist will unite us and draw us ever more closely to Him. Thank you all for your participation!

We are still looking for adorers. Our goal is to make Eucharistic Adoration perpetual 24 hours a day seven days a week. We need to have at least two adorers from different households per hour, preferably three or four adorers per hour. You may sign up for any hour between 9 a.m. on Mondays to 9 p.m. on Fridays, but currently Eucharistic Adoration is only open from 9 a.m. on Wednesdays to 9 p.m. on Fridays.

We are doing well with filling up the hours from Wednesdays through Fridays but there is still more work to be done in this area. We would appreciate any of you who could help us fill the hours on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 12 to 6 a.m. Tuesdays are dedicated to the Holy Face of Jesus. What better way to come face to face with Jesus than sitting quietly in his presence before The Holy Eucharist! There is something special about taking one of the middle of the night hours because there is not the hustle and bustle of the day to distract you from getting to know The Lord in a very personal way. Wednesdays are dedicated to Saint Joseph. If you will consider giving an hour of your time to Jesus Saint Joseph can teach you a lot about his foster Son. Also, consider how wonderful it could be to start your work week off on the right foot with a Marvelous Monday spent with Our Lord! Mondays are dedicated to The Holy Spirit and we can guarantee that if you choose to spend an hour in Adoration of Our Lord on Mondays, The Holy Spirit will bless you abundantly.

Please go to www.stagnesnaples.org and click on the link for Perpetual Adoration to register. Once you have registered, you will receive an email from Adoration Servants notifying you that you are registered.

Let us be reminded that all Life begins at the moment of Conception, which for Catholics is not in dispute despite any new laws such as the recent law passed in New York State and introduced in the Virginia State Legislature.

Regarding abortion, the Catechism of the Catholic Church states: “Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person - among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life. Since the first century the Church has affirmed the moral evil of every procured abortion. This teaching has not changed and remains unchangeable. Direct abortion, that is to say, abortion willed either as an end or a means, is gravely contrary to the moral law.” (2270-2271)

This should remind us that the killing of an innocent child through abortion is abhorrent. It is natural to want to speak out about such egregiousness, but first all are called to pray for an end to the scourge that is abortion. Pray also that our legislators and judges at the state and national levels stop celebrating laws that will end the life of a child.

If you disagree with laws such as the one recently passed in New York State, please write to your state and federal politicians to share your thoughts, disagreement and disgust on this critical issue. Meaningful change pertaining to this matter will not come until all stand together to give a voice to the voiceless, the vulnerable unborn children who in some places can now potentially face death up until the moment of their birth.

Hi Everyone,

I can’t believe it is already February, 2019. Our Winter Season is here. On behalf of our Music Ministry, I want to welcome all our visitors from up north and everywhere around the world to St. Agnes. I want to invite you all to come and join our choirs, adult or children’s.

As you may have heard by now, my wife Dawn lost her battle with cancer. Your prayers during her illness meant so much to her. This is the most difficult time ever for our family, and we feel blessed by your continued prayers and expressions of sympathy. We love you all. It is in honor of her that we will carry on with the work of music.

Our most popular concerts of our Winter Season, The Paul Todd and Friends Broadway Concerts, are coming up soon! Save the dates: Thursday, February 21st, Friday, February, 22nd, and Saturday, February 23rd. Show time is 7:00 p.m. in the St. Agnes Parish Hall. Tickets are $30 per person and available after all Masses except 5:00 p.m. and in the Parish Office during the week. The proceeds help our CFA. Thank you for your continued support.

I want to especially invite our young children to come Wednesday nights for our children’s choir rehearsals from 5:00 to 6:00 pm. The children sing every Sunday at the 11:00 a.m. Mass. They touch our hearts and spirits with their beautiful voices.

Our adult choir is wonderful as well and is always looking for additional voices. They meet on Wednesdays from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. in the church. Please come and share your voice and praise our Lord in song. If you are a seasonal parishioner we welcome you to come join the choir as well. All are welcome!

Thank you again for all you do for our Music Ministry and St. Agnes Parish. Please stop by and see me after Mass, I always love to talk with all of you. As a bonus, The Blessings Store now carries all of my CD’s and you can buy them after Mass. May God richly bless you and keep you in his loving care always.

Yours in Christ,
Paul Todd

Are you ready to make your relationship thrive? Beautifully filmed and featuring acclaimed marriage experts, Beloved speaks to the very heart of every man and woman. Learn how putting God at the center of your life together can transform everyday challenges into life-giving joy. This month we enjoy “Session 2: Entering the Story of Marriage.” In this episode, we learn that our marriages are not small stories in which we are the main characters. Rather, from the beginning of creation, God unveiled his plan for married couples to share in his divine love. Our “I do” fits into the much bigger story of God’s desire for humanity. Enjoy dinner, childcare, a short film, and meaningful discussion with your significant other this month!

2/10… Life Night: This Life Night will help us understand how indulging in addictions is not only dangerous but also hinders our true freedom found in Christ.

2/17… Life Night: “In Progress.” Come find clarity to these stereotypical rites of passage that are glorified in teen years: rebelling, drinking, disobeying parents, etc.

2/24… Catholic/Jewish social night with the teens. Space is limited for this event. If you are interested in attending please contact Robert Massey to reserve a spot. No Life Night.

We are back! 21 teens, chaperones, and young adults, with the guidance of Fr. Kris traveled to Panama to see Pope Francis for World Youth Day.
