The Most Holy Trinity

Today we celebrate the Holy Trinity, one of the most confounding mysteries of our faith. Through this mystery we experience our relationship to God: Creator, Savior, and Holy Spirit. This relationship is not easy to understand or to describe. It does not become clearer through analysis. Its complexity mirrors the complexity of all our relationships. We understand our relationships with our spouses, our children, our parents, and our friends only through daily give-and-take, annual rituals, and the life-changing moments we share. We understand our relationships only as we live them.

The relationships we have with those we love, and who love us, sustain us through an uncertain and difficult life. This is the Holy Trinity.

What is striking about today’s readings is that each is incomplete. What they do offer is a description of a moment in our relationship, a memory of a time and an event when our relationship made sense even though that sense may be beyond our ability to describe fully. Often that is all that our faith offers, that is, a memory of what is possible, what is promised, what has been given. A memory of eternity, of love beyond understanding is to be cherished and nurtured even if not fully understood. This is the Holy Trinity.

THE TRINITY IS RELATIONSHIP

The feast of the Holy Trinity is an invitation for us to commit to enriching our everyday relationships by promoting communion, consolation, and mercy.

“Our being created in the image and likeness of God-communion calls us to understand ourselves as beings-in-relation, and to live interpersonal relationships in solidarity and reciprocal love.”

“In this mission, we are sustained by the strength which the Holy Spirit gives us: this cures the flesh of humanity wounded by injustice, oppression, hate, and greed.”

The “Divine Family’ is not closed in on itself, but is open, communicates in creation and in history, and has entered into the world of men to call everyone to take part.”

“The feast of the Most Holy Trinity invites us to commit ourselves in the everyday events in order to be the leaven of communion, of consolation, and of mercy.”

Celebrate in the Present

Celebrating is first of all the full affirmation of our present condition. We say with full consciousness: we are, we are here, we are now, and let it be that way. We can only really celebrate when we are present in the present. If anything has become clear, it is that we have to a large extent lost the capability to live in the present. Many new born here and now; we cannot celebrate Easter when no new life becomes visible; we cannot celebrate Pentecost when there is no Spirit whatsoever to celebrate. Celebration is the recognition that something is there and needs to be made visible so that we can all say yes to it.

TRINITY SUNDAY

by Fr. deLadurantaye, Diocesan Secretary for Religious Education and Sacred Liturgy

Each year, the Church commemorates the mysteries of our salvation, from Christ’s birth in Bethlehem, to His death and resurrection, to the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. This week, the liturgy invites us to contemplate the central mystery of our faith: the Blessed Trinity, the mystery of God’s own inner life and the source of all graces and gifts. In His providence, God gradually revealed to human beings His own nature as a communion of three Divine Persons, sharing one and the same Divine Nature. In the Old Testament He makes known above all His oneness and His complete transcendence from the world as its Creator and Lord. At the same time, the Old Testament proclaims the love and mercy of God, who cares for and forgives His people, who guides and protects them. Furthermore, even in the Old Testament, we get glimpses of the paternity of God the Father, of the Incarnation of God the Son (who’s coming is foretold by the prophets), and of the action of God the Holy Spirit, who gives life to all things. It is Jesus Christ, however, who reveals to us the Trinitarian mystery in all its fullness and calls us to participate in it by grace. Christ speaks intimately of Himself, His Father and the Holy Spirit as equal in power, majesty and divinity. He tells us that He has come to give us life, to give us access to the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit. Christ invites us to seek above all things communion with the Holy Trinity, in whose presence we hope to live forever. The mystery of the Trinity which we could never know by ourselves is the starting point of all revealed truth, the fountain from which all supernatural life flows, and the goal to which every human person is ordered. The contemplation of God’s inner life sheds light on our own dignity: we are children of the Father, brothers and sisters of Jesus Christ and co-heirs with the Son, and we are continually sanctified by the Holy Spirit to make us resemble Christ more and more. The Blessed Trinity, therefore, is not just an abstract theological truth. Instead, it lies at the very center of our faith, and it is a mystery that we invoke constantly. Whenever we make the sign of the cross, we profess our belief in the Trinity. We were baptized in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; and in their name also our sins are forgiven. The prayers of the Mass are directed to the Holy Trinity, and our personal prayers, though we may address only one of the Divine Persons, are heard and answered by all three. Pope John Paul has reminded us that the whole of the Christian life is like a great pilgrimage to the house of the Father. On this pilgrimage, we are accompanied each day by the Holy Spirit, who makes Christ present to us and keeps us mindful of His saving words and deeds. The Trinity is the beginning and the end of our entire existence, for God imparts to us a share in His own life and love and calls us to communion with Himself. With grateful hearts, especially on this Trinity Sunday, let us acknowledge and reverence the God whom we adore: “Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever, world without end. Amen.”

As you cruise along one of Europe's most romantic rivers, you will sail through history into a world filled with a variety of amazing architecture and breathtaking scenery. Our Budapest to Passau cruise and Oberammergau Passion Play takes you on a journey of discovery into “Old Europe,” uncovering ancient abbeys, beautiful palaces, historic landmarks and stunning vistas. From vibrant and cosmopolitan cities of Budapest, Vienna and Munich, to the villages of Melk & Passau, your trip will highlight iconic sights and bustling city streets. You can look forward to enjoying all this from the deck of a 4 ½ star Ship!

Then, as a Grand Finale, your tour will continue on to Oberammergau for you to experience a play like no other in the world. What made Oberammergau town famous, was its performance of the Passion of Christ every decade. It is believed that the Passion Play has been held every 10 years since 1634. A play of life and death, promised in a moment of mortal threat, and so began the history of the Oberammergau Passion Play in 1633. During that time, the Black Plague was sweeping through Europe. The villagers of Oberammergau vowed that if their town was spared, they would perform the Passion of Christ every 10 years. The town was spared, and it is amazing that they have been honoring this pledge from generation to generation. The Passion Play performance follows Christ from His triumphant entry into Jerusalem through His Trial, Crucifixion, Resurrection, and Ascension.

Interesting Facts About the Oberammergau Passion Play: To be in the play, you must be a resident of Oberammergau. Over 2,000 citizens are involved including acting, singing, musicians and technical support. There are 124 speaking roles, a 65-member orchestra, 48 person chorus and hundreds of people involved in the back end including stagehands, seamstresses, firemen, auditorium attendants and more. Men grow out their hair and beards to make the look authentic to the time. Costumes are hand made. The play is held May through late September or early October. During these months, the play is performed 5 days per week in an open-air theater which seats about 4,700 people. The performance begins at 2:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. There is then a dinner break, and the play resumes from 8:00 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. The play is performed in German, but it doesn't seem to stop people from all over the world, including those that are not of religious backgrounds that are intrigued by the way the town comes together to perform this play. It is anticipated over 750,000 will attend in 2020. The Passion Play theatre is open, and the background of the mountains makes it an unforgettable scene.

In the face of our country’s challenges, and challenges within the Church herself, Catholics find strength in the hope of Jesus Christ. We want to share that hope with everyone.

Religious freedom gives us the space to carry out the mission that Jesus has entrusted to the Church. Religious freedom means that Catholics, and all people of goodwill, are free to seek the truth and to live in accordance with that truth, and so to strengthen our common life as a nation.

Beginning June 22, the Feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops celebrates Religious Freedom Week. In the midst of our current challenges, join us as we seek the kingdom and find Strength in Hope.

Eucharistic Adoration

What a gift we have in 24/5 Eucharistic Adoration! It is so beautiful to see so many coming to adore Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. It is so essential that people commit one hour a week of their time to ensure that this devotion continues to nourish the community life of our parish. Your commitment of an hour a week in Adoration will not only enrich your spiritual life, but also will enrich the spiritual life of our parish. We only have 21 hours left to fill before we can reach our goal of making Adoration 24/7. We need to fill the following hours:

Sundays: midnight to 1 a.m., 2 a.m. to 3 a.m., 4 a.m. to 5 a.m., 4 p.m. to 5 p.m., 6 p.m. to 7 p.m., 7 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Mondays: midnight to 1 a.m. and 1 a.m. to 2 a.m.

Fridays: 10 p.m. to 11 p.m. and 11 p.m. to midnight

Saturdays: midnight to 1 a.m., 1 a.m. to 2 a.m., 2 a.m. to 3 a.m., 4 a.m. to 5 a.m., 6 a.m. to 7 a.m., 11 a.m. to noon, 1 p.m. to 2 p.m., 4 p.m. to 5 p.m., 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. and 9 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Please go to www.stagnesnaples.org and click on the link for Perpetual Adoration to register. Will you not spend one hour watching with Me?
Dear Fr. Bob, and members of St. Agnes Catholic Church,
I would like to offer my deep gratitude to you for the very generous gift of $7,264, from your Holy Thursday collection, for our parish Jesus the Worker Catholic Church. It is a tremendously useful and much needed gift you have shared with us. You probably know and understand that our church ministers to a very large, but mostly poor congregation of hard working, Spanish speaking immigrants. Our parishioners are mostly young adults, and young families. We have many children in our community; actually, an absolute abundance of children! Sometimes meeting the spiritual and even material needs of our large congregation is quite challenging, especially given our limited resources. For this reason, a financial gift, such as yours, allows us to do more for our community, and minister more effectively. Once again thanks for your help, and for the relationship of Sister Parish which you have formed with us! I look forward to being able to develop our friendship, and maybe share some of the happiness, faith, joy, and gifts of our wonderful parish community with yours, in the future.

May God bless you, and fill you with His love,
Rev. Patrick O'Connor, OSFS
Pastor of Jesus the Worker and Mission San Jose

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST
JUNE 23, 2019 | PROCESSION AFTER 9:00 A.M. MASS

The feast of Corpus Christi was the result approximately forty years of work on the part of Juliana of Liège, a 13th-century Norbertine canoness. Orphaned at the age of five, she and her sister Agnes, were entrusted to the care of the Augustinian nuns at the convent and leprosarium of Mont-Cornillon, where Juliana developed a special veneration for the Blessed Sacrament.

The feast is an important affirmation of our belief that Our Lord is really and truly sacramentally present in the form of bread and wine. When Our Lord instituted the Eucharist he said this IS my body and this IS my blood not this represents or is symbolic of my body and blood. How can this be? The answer lies in the idea of sacrament. I remember from my "Penny Catechism" that this was defined as “an outward sign of inward grace given to us by Jesus Christ for our sanctification and salvation.” The outward sign here is the form of bread and wine, the inward grace is Christ’s presence which is brought about by the consecration when we believe that the bread and wine become the body and blood of Christ although their appearance is unaltered.

This week’s procession is an opportunity to reflect on this wonderful gift as we pause at four “stations” for a reading and prayer and then conclude with Benediction. It is an opportunity to remind ourselves how special we are that God should want to nourish us with his body and blood and it is an opportunity to thank him for all his wonderful gifts of which the Sacrament of his Body and Blood is the most sacred.
Do you know someone not baptized or baptized in another Christian tradition, who is thirsting for what it means to be Catholic?

Do you know someone already Catholic but has not yet received Confirmation & Communion? They may be thirsting too!

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a place to ask questions & seek understanding. Weekly “no obligation” inquiry sessions are on Tuesdays starting Aug 27 7pm in the Parish Center.

The LIFE OF MARY AS SEEN BY THE MYSTICS is a masterpiece that combines the visions of four great catholic mystics into one coherent story on the life of the blessed virgin Mary. To read this book, therefore, is to share in the Magnificat vision granted to four of the most privileged souls in the history of the church. In complete harmony with the Gospel story, this book reads like a masterfully written novel that will forever impress the reader with an inspiring and truly unforgettable understanding of the otherwise unknown facts concerning Mary and the Holy Family.

ESTA ES LA SANTÍSIMA TRINIDAD

Hoy celebramos a la Santísima Trinidad, uno de los misterios más confusos de nuestra fe. Por medio de este misterio, experimentamos nuestra relación con Dios: Creador, Salvador y Santificador. Esta relación no es fácil de entender o describir. No se hace más clara por el análisis. Su complejidad refleja la complejidad de todas nuestras relaciones. Entendemos nuestras relaciones con nuestra esposa, nuestros hijos, nuestros padres y nuestros amigos solamente en el día a día, ritos anuales y esos momentos que cambian la vida que compartimos. Entendemos nuestras relaciones al vivir con ellas. Las relaciones que tenemos con los que amamos y con quienes nos aman, nos sustentan por medio de una vida incierta y difícil. Esta es la Santísima Trinidad.

Lo que es sorprendente de las lecturas de hoy es que cada una está incompleta. Lo que ellas ofrecen es una descripción de un momento de nuestra relación, una memoria de un tiempo y un evento donde nuestra relación tiene sentido, aunque ese sentido pueda estar más allá de nuestra habilidad para describirla completamente. Frequentemente eso es todo lo ofrece nuestra fe, es decir, una memoria de lo que es posible, lo que se promete lo que se ha dado. Una memoria de eternidad, de amor, más allá del entendimiento, debe ser apreciada y nutrida incluso si no es completamente comprendida. Esta es la Santísima Trinidad. Todos los corazones son estimulados por la diversidad reconciliada.
