Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Discipline

It is no accident that the words “disciple” and “discipline” are nearly identical. Their relationship in Christian faith and life, however, has fallen somewhat out of favor in the past generation, as certain prescribed Church rules and regulations have been reduced and relaxed. These rules were often referred to as “disciplines.” We are mistaken, however, to think that it no longer takes discipline to follow Christ. The Letter to the Hebrews assures us of that today. Our discipline is more like that of an athlete pursuing a victory or a personal best, or a musician striving for a concert career or to master a new piece of music. This discipline comes from desire, not from regulations. It was the desire to do the will of God that led Jesus on the path to his cross. It is that same desire he encourages in us today: to strive to enter through the narrow gate, to find ourselves in the kingdom with a surprising assortment of people who are there not because of mere observation of rules, but out of a genuine desire to recline at the table of the heavenly banquet.

Sanctify the Hours of Your Day!

It’s the best Kept secret of the Church’s spiritual treasury. Nearly as old as the Church itself, the Liturgy of the Hours, (also called the Divine Office and /or Breviary), is a repeating cycle of psalms, bible readings and prayers, synched to the feasts and seasons of the liturgical year.

The Liturgy of the Hours offers us multiple short, daily prayer-breaks to sanctify each phase of our busy day, and to refresh our souls with the riches of Scripture and Tradition.

Pope Benedict said,

“I would like to renew my call to everyone to pray the Psalms, to become accustomed to the Liturgy of the Hours, Lauds, Vespers, and Compline.”

(11/2011 Audience)

For too long Catholics have felt intimidated by an outdated notion that the Divine Office was only for clergy and religious, or by the lack of clear instructions for praying the breviary. Online digital breviaries now make this prayer easy and available to everyone.

Please call 239-592-1949 or email Deacon Roberto (deaconroberto@stagnesnaples.org) if:

1. You use/have used the Liturgy of the Hours, or
2. Haven’t used it, but are curious!
3) Would like to join a group that regularly prays it!

¡Santifique las horas de su día!

Es el secreto mejor guardado del tesoro espiritual de la Iglesia. Es tan antiguo como la Iglesia misma, la Liturgia de las Horas, (también conocida como Breviario) es un ciclo repetido de salmos, lecturas de la Biblia y oraciones, ajustadas a las festividades y ciclos del año litúrgico.

La Liturgia de las Horas nos ofrece varios espacios cortos durante el día para santificar cada fase del mismo, y para refrescar nuestras almas con la riqueza de la Escritura y la Tradición.

El Papa Benedicto nos dijo,

“Yo deseo renovar mi llamado a que todos oren con los Salmos para estar familiarizados con la Liturgia de las Horas, los Laudes, Las Vísperas y las Completas”. (11/2011 Audiencia)

Por demasiado tiempo los católicos han estado intimidados por una idea obsoleta que la Liturgia de las Horas es solo para el clero y los religiosos, o por la falta de orientación clara para rezar el breviario. Los breviarios digitales en línea hacen ahora esta oración fácil y al alcance de todos. Por favor hable con el Deacon Roberto al 239-592-1949 o envíe un correo a deaconroberto@stagnesnaples.org si:

1. Usted utiliza o ha utilizado la Liturgia de las Horas o
2. No lo ha utilizado, pero desea conocer acerca de ella.
3) Me gustaría unirme a un grupo de oración

Do you know someone not baptized or baptized in a non-Catholic Christian tradition, who is thirsting for what it means to become Catholic?

Do you know someone already Catholic but has not yet received Confirmation & Communion? They may be thirsting too! The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a place to ask questions and seek understanding. Weekly “no obligation” inquiry sessions start Tues, Sept 6 at 7-8:30pm in the Parish Center.

¿Conoces a alguien que no está bautizado o que ya es católica pero aun no ha recibido la Confirmación o la Comunión, que está sedienta de lo que significa ser católico? El Rito de Iniciación Cristiana de Adultos (RICA) es un lugar para hacer preguntas y buscar el entendimiento. Las clases comienzan el 11 de Septiembre, a 11:30 en el centro parroquial.

Altar Server Training

Saturday, August 27

Captains and Co-captains meet from 10-11 a.m.

All current servers, and those wishing to become servers, (incoming 4th graders and older), will meet from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. Lunch for all will be served at 1 p.m.
As a Catholic Christian community, we are called through Baptism to serve one another. One of the many ways we can be available to others is through prayer. We all have had many experiences where someone has asked us to pray for them as they have surgery, job interviews, worries about a sick family member, etc. We are in the process of setting up a prayer chain for Saint Agnes. This will formalize the opportunity for parishioners to request prayers and for many of us to pray for our fellow parishioners and their requests.

- If you would like to make yourself available to pray, there will be a link on the homepage of our website www.stagnesnaples.org to sign up with your email address.
- If you have a prayer request, please send them to me, Deacon Henry at deaconhenry@stagnesnaples.org. I will forward them to the prayer chain.
- Please keep the prayer requests fairly simple. Try to avoid adding too much private detail. God knows who we are praying for. For example you might request, “please pray for my close friend, Sally, who is having surgery next week.”

Gathering prayer requests was one of the earliest functions of deacons in the Church. We look forward to continuing this great Christian tradition of praying for one another.

Empowerment and the Judy Sullivan Family Resource Center

Did you know? The Judy Sullivan Family Resource Center of Catholic Charities’ Empowerment Program helps families become self-sufficient. You remember the quote, teach a man to fish? At the Judy Sullivan Family Resource Center, we are doing just that. Our Empowerment Program helps individuals overcome barriers to full time employment. We can help with the cost of education or training, and or even with day care for the children, until the parent is back employed and receiving paychecks. Other times, it’s transportation that’s needed, and a bike, a gas card or a bus pass will get that person to work, and on the road to self-sufficiency. If you know someone who can benefit from the program, or would like to find out more about this and other programs at the Judy Sullivan Family Resource Center, please contact Mary Shaughnessy, District Director of Catholic Charities in Collier County, at 239-455-2555 or maryshaughnessy@catholiccharitiesccc.org.
