Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Humility

Have you ever been in a group of people—maybe on a tour, at a social gathering, or at church—and discovered that you have just been talking with a well-known author, corporate CEO, great scholar, or politician? Your first thought is the hope that you didn’t say anything to embarrass yourself; but your second thought is how much they seemed like such “regular” folks. What is it that makes people seem so “regular”? Today’s readings give us a clue when they stress the importance of humility.

It is so hard for us not to tell the first person who will listen how busy we are, how hard we work, how much money we donate, and how important our job titles are. We think these accolades make a difference to people, and if we don’t tell them, how will they ever know? But if our actions demonstrate our values, people will recognize our worth on their own. The words of Jesus show us how much better it is to let someone else recognize our worth than to be embarrassed because someone did not.

We need your help to keep our records current. If there are any births, deaths, marriages, moves, etc. in your family, please notify the office.

2016 Candidate Questionnaire Project: An informed voter is a responsible voter. The U.S. bishops remind us, "In the Catholic Tradition, responsible citizenship is a virtue, and participation in political life is a moral obligation." To help parishioners become informed on where candidates stand on key issues, the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops has polled those running for U.S. Congress and the Florida Legislature. To see how candidates appearing on the August 30 Primary Election / November 8 General Election ballots responded to the questionnaire, visit www.flaccb.org
WORLD YOUTH DAY 2016
Thank you St. Agnes for all your support!

We are back! World Youth Day is an experience unlike any other. I cannot describe the feeling of participating with over 2 million of our Catholic brothers and sisters praying, singing, and celebrating Mass with the Pope. And yet my prayerful thoughts during the trip kept drifting back to what it took to be at such a special event.

The teens that went to WYD worked very hard to get to WYD, fundraising, volunteering and all the while constantly assisting and participating in Youth Group. During the Vigil Mass in Poland it all hit me how much work and effort these teens made to be here with our Pope, it was a feeling that makes working in Youth Ministry all worth it.

Yet I would be remiss if I also did not recognize the tremendous support given to us by the wonderful parishioners of St. Agnes. People who had never even met our teens were donating money, offering prayers and support, and wishing us well on our trip. These incredibly kind gestures had an impact on the teens and I, gestures that we all hope to one day emulate.

So thank you St. Agnes for all your support, I am humbled beyond words at your generosity, kindness, and goodwill towards the Youth Ministry. This WYD experience will have a lasting influence on the teens. Soon these teens will be young adults, shaping their community with their faith and WYD experiences to guide them.

Children’s Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) is Growing!

We are looking for 8-10 new individuals to lead CLOW as pairs once a month at the 11am or 5pm Mass.

Children’s Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) is a special gathering in which children ages 3-10 hear the Sunday readings proclaimed on their own level and are able to respond to them.

When: Every Sunday during 11am Mass and EXPANDING to 5pm Mass in January, 2017

Where: The children are dismissed to the chapel with two leaders before the Liturgy of the Word begins in the main church. (Parents should accompany children younger than 5.) They return to the main church to sit with their families for the rest of the Mass during the Offertory.

Why: The goal of Children’s Liturgy of the Word is to help children engage meaningfully in the Liturgy, thus beginning a life-long practice of praying, learning, and celebrating at Mass.

We will train you and provide the tools to share the Word of God with the little ones. Call Diane at 239.553.4942.
