Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Looking Beyond Ourselves

The message found in today’s readings is an oft-told story. Citizen Kane, Daddy Warbucks, and King Midas are only a few of the familiar fictional characters who thought enormous wealth could buy happiness and fulfillment. Daddy Warbucks admitted stepping on a few people in his climb to the top. Kane tried to buy the printed word and stardom for his young wife, while King Midas conjured immense wealth and tragedy by his very touch.

We learn clearly in today’s readings that none of this is really possible. True happiness comes from caring for someone other than ourselves. It comes from the pursuit of the virtues Paul described to Timothy: faith, love, gentleness, godliness, righteousness, and endurance. The Gospel reminds us that we dare not ignore the needs of others, acting as though we don’t notice their suffering. God’s call to us is much too clear to disregard for even one more day.

The biblical promise of eternal life appears late in Scripture, but it blossoms into fullness with the resurrection of Christ. Explore the growing nature of the hope of those who have called upon the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the past, and the crystallization of our hope for eternal life in the victory of Christ over death. Those with some familiarity with Scripture will find it both inspiring and informative as the hope of eternal life develops and crystallizes through the sweep of salvation history.

World Youth Day will be one of the most pivotal events in my life, restructuring my view on life and Catholicism in a positive way. I came across several beautiful encounters and realizations during this trip, the most influential being confession.

I remember being in the arena, packed with thousands of Catholics from across the world; the speaker on stage encouraged all of us to go to confession in a small chapel near by. Before I knew it, I was in the confession line with no clue as to what I would say. In what felt like seconds, I was at the front of the line. I was quietly called up, and as I sat down with the priest I quickly and nervously went over in my head what I would confess.

I told him my everyday sins, but suddenly delved into one I had only briefly mentioned before. A personal sin I had not realized was so grave, one that I hadn’t realized I was wrestling with for years. At the very end when the priest said “I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit”, I felt a liberating sensation, finally breaking the oppressive chains of that burden. For the first time, I actually felt the Holy Spirit. As I sat in front of His image in the chapel, I could feel His unconditional love, warming every bit of my soul.

Confession can be intimidating, it’s uncomfortable showing a side of you no one else sees. However, I realized that day that the one truly listening to your sins intently is not the priest but God. The priest is a means of communicating with God, a person called upon to relay His word and to grant forgiveness on His behalf.

Thank you St. Agnes for giving me an opportunity to truly experience this wonderful sacrament, and rejoice in His compassionate and everlasting mercy. I hope that by reading this that you to will be inspired to more frequently appreciate and utilize the sacrament of reconciliation.

Stewardship and the Eucharist

By Harry Verhiley

In 1992, the US Conference of Catholic Bishops approved a pastoral letter, Stewardship: A Disciple's Response. This document is a useful guide for the Catholic seeking to live according to God's call. It is an invitation to follow Christ who gave himself up for us. Each of us is called to serve God and neighbors and be stewards of God's creation and all that he has entrusted to us. Stewardship is necessary for all members of the Church so that each one of us recognizes what needs to be done and we know how to go about doing it.

To understand stewardship, we must look towards the Holy Eucharist and understand that it is life-giving nourishment for the engagement in the work of the Church. Holy Eucharist is the total gift of our loving Savior to us. Jesus gives us the Eucharist because of his love for us, and for our salvation. "He loved his own in the world and he loved them to the end" (Jn. 13:1). This love is not just for the twelve present in the room, but for us, too, who receive Eucharist, 2,000 years later. The Eucharist was long planned by Christ. St. Luke quotes Jesus saying, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer ..." (Lk 22:15). We know this suffering in reference to Calvary as a sacrifice and today our Eucharist is the sacramental representation of the sacrifice of Calvary - of the Paschal Mysteries of his suffering, death and resurrection. To participate in the Mass and to receive the Eucharist is a supreme act of worship.

Jesus not only loved us as he laid his life down for us on Calvary, but he also established this profound sacrifice and sacrament in order to be one with his beloved Church. This new covenant is "a sacrament of love, a sign of unity, a bond of charity, a paschal banquet in which Christ is consumed, the mind is filled with grace, and a pledge of future glory is given to us" (Sacrosanctum Concilium, 47). Certainly this is a cause of thanksgiving, a thanksgiving to be lived. And by living the Eucharist is where the stewardship way of life comes into play.

Jesus, in the Holy Eucharist, teaches us how to be generous, how to give, how to sacrifice, how to serve. Jesus does this through the work of the Holy Spirit, the same Spirit promised and given to the Apostles. This is the same Spirit given to us through Apostolic succession. By way of this Spirit, we come to know what Jesus has done for us in the Eucharist. We, the recipients of Christ, are taught by the Holy Spirit how to be united in love and service just as the third Eucharistic prayer expresses to the Father, "We who are nourished by his body and blood may be filled with His Holy Spirit and become one body, one spirit in Christ" (Roman Missal). We do not do this all on our own; it is the work of the Holy Spirit, the gift of Jesus. It is the power of the Holy Eucharist that enables Christians to give of themselves generously to the service of others. Our stewardship acts of generosity, sacrifice, and service are acts of God, not an expression of our own greatness. The Holy Eucharist is the source of life giving nourishment so that we will act upon God's way. It is only in communion with him that we truly grow in love.

Donna-Marie Cooper O’Boyle is a Catholic author, a radio and television host, and an inspirational speaker known and admired from coast to coast.

Growing up in a Polish-American Catholic family, Donna-Marie was blessed with hard-working parents who provided a stable home for their eight children. At times her childhood was golden and carefree, but other times it was tarnished by pain that she felt was best left unspoken as she sought God for help and strength.

After she left home after high school, her path took some harrowing turns. A Vietnam veteran fiancé snapped and held her against her will. She suffered pregnancy loss, serious illness, divorce, and single motherhood. Perhaps her greatest trial was an epic custody battle in which she needed to defend both her reputation as a mother and the safety of her five children.

Yet through all the dark valleys, Donna-Marie kept the fire of her faith burning. Helping her to see the beauty of the crosses in her life, and to rely on the presence and the providence of God, were saintly souls who became her friends and mentors. One of these was Saint Mother Teresa, who was her confidant and spiritual mother for ten years.

MIRAR MÁS ALLÁ DE NOSOTROS MISMOS

El mensaje de las lecturas de hoy es una vieja historia. El Ciudadano Kane, Papi Warbucks y el Rey Midas son sólo unos pocos de los familiares personajes ficticios que pensaban que una enorme fortuna podrían comprar la felicidad y la completa satisfacción. Papi Warbucks admite haber pisoteado a algunas personas en su ascenso a la cumbre. Kane trató de comprar la palabra impresa y el estrellato para su joven esposa, mientras que el Rey Midas conjura inmensa fortuna y tragedia sólo con su toque.

Aprendemos claramente en las lecturas de hoy que nada de esto es posible. Alcanzamos la verdadera felicidad cuando nos interesamos en los demás. Cuando practicamos las virtudes que Dios describe a Timoteo: fe, amor, mansedumbre, piedad, rectitud y justicia. El Evangelio nos recuerda que no oseamos ignorar las necesidades de los demás, actuando como si no notáramos su sufrimiento. El llamado de Dios a nosotros es demasiado claro para ignorarlo ni un solo día más.
