Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

God is With Us

The book of Wisdom tells us that the spirit of God is in all things. What a wonderful thought, and what a wonderful image to keep in front of us as we travel down life's road. For if the path is revealed in the treading, it's good to know that God is with us—and all around us—every step of the way.

But Paul knows that this divine presence is not timid. Instead, God calls out to us, and Paul prays that we, along with the Thessalonians, might be made worthy of that call. And who knows more about God's call than Zacchaeus, the tax collector? Jesus called him out of a tree, for goodness' sake. Or perhaps more correctly, as we reflect upon the end of today's Gospel reading, for heaven's sake.

RELICS

First Class Relics are on display in the prayer chapel off the Narthex through November 1st, All Saints Day. Relics from St. Elizabeth Seton, St. Joannis Macias C.O.P, St. John Neumann, and Blessed Margaret of Castello will be displayed, to name a few. A First Class Relic is any part of the bodily remains of a saint which have been authenticated by documentation and are sealed in a reliquary or case. Relics have been venerated in the church since the early days of Christianity and are thought to put one in closer contact with the virtues of that saint.

TO ALL MY FRIENDS AT ST. AGNES:

Whether it was spoken “well wishes” at the doors of the Church or a personal message in a card or your presence at the marvelous Saturday evening party, your birthday greetings are so valued and appreciated. I can never adequately express my thanks. However, know that I am deeply touched by your friendship.

Over the past ten years, the Community of St. Agnes has become very much an extension of our family. We have prayed together, cried together and laughed together just as families do. Jane and I are so moved by your acceptance and friendship. We can only say.... thank you, thank you, thank you.

Peace,

Deacon Ed and Jane

PRAY FOR PEACE AND SAFETY:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God’s blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

Be Bold, Be Catholic
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Hurricane Matthew, a powerful Category 4 storm, made landfall in Haiti early Tuesday, Oct. 4, 2016. Over 900 people were killed and tens of thousands of homes were destroyed in Haiti. The people of Haiti, along with other island nations, face immediate life-threatening challenges due to the contaminated flood waters which have brought cholera, destruction of vast infrastructures, and the loss of homes for tens of thousands of men, women and children. Families living along the eastern coastlines of Florida and the Carolinas have also been impacted by flooding, some of it quite extensive.

Your help is needed to aid the victims of this storm and to assist in rebuilding affected communities. Therefore, I am asking that a special collection be taken in Parishes of the Diocese of Venice the weekend of October 29 -30, 2016. These funds will be proportionally distributed to those affected areas. Thank you for your generosity!

Of great importance are your prayers for those who have died, for those who are struggling to find hope, for families grieving the loss of loved ones, and for the many relief workers who are there on our behalf and in thanksgiving that the Diocese of Venice was spared. In this Year of Mercy, join me in asking God, the Source of all mercy, to bring comfort and hope to those in need.

I take this opportunity to extend to each of you the assurances of my continued consideration, as well as my prayers for you and your family.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

Considerations Before Voting on Constitutional Amendments

Elections are not just about candidates but often involve decisions on issues. Just as we are called to faithful citizenship before voting for an individual, we must properly form our consciences in anticipation of marking the ballot in support of or opposition to a proposed constitutional amendment. Looking beyond how we are affected personally, review of an issue must involve an assessment and an integration of the interests of all Floridians. Using the fundamentals of Catholic Social Teaching to guide us as we form our consciences, we must take into consideration how the issues before us address the following questions.

Does the amendment promote and defend the life and dignity of the human person?
All human life is sacred and the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral society. A measure of any proposed policy is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person. Does it protect human life in all stages, from conception until natural death? Does it value life as God's creation not a creation of our own ingenuity? Does it prevent conflicts and promote respect for others?

Does the amendment honor family, community, and participation in society?
All of us have a responsibility to participate in our community, to contribute to the common good, to share what we have and to seek the good of others as though it were one's own good. Strong marriages and healthy family life are essential to the well being of our society. Does the issue support and strengthen marriage and family as a central social institution? Does it promote religious freedom and the ability to participate in a pluralistic society? Does it enhance or limit the capacity of individuals to grow within their community and to participate in the development of societal laws and policies?

Does the amendment protect the human rights and responsibilities?
Every person has a fundamental right to life and human decency. With these rights come responsibilities to one another, to our families, and to the broader society as a whole. Does the policy promote basic human rights necessary for a stable and healthy society? Does it protect a parent's right and duty to provide for their children, including the ability to access educational opportunities of their choice?

Does the amendment address the needs of the poor and vulnerable?
Scripture instructs us to put the needs of our most vulnerable first. We must examine how a proposed policy will affect the poor, elderly and disabled residents of our state. Does it place a proportionally higher burden on those who are less able to bear that burden? Does it provide a greater benefit for those who already have ample resources and neglect those who are unable to speak for themselves?

Does the amendment protect the dignity of work and the rights of workers?
Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. The dignity and basic rights of the worker are to be respected. Is an individual's access to productive work, a fair wage, a safe work environment and the ability to financially support oneself and one's family protected? Does the issue support the right to private property and economic initiative?

Does the amendment advance solidarity?
We are one human family whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. Our love for all our sisters and brothers demands that we promote justice and peace in a world surrounded by violence and conflict.

Does the amendment address the protection and care of God's creation?
We show our respect for the Creator by our stewardship of creation. We are called to care for and protect the earth and our environment. This challenge has fundamental moral and ethical dimensions that we cannot ignore.

*Kristallnacht marked the beginning of the Holocaust. It was the night a thousand synagogues were burned in Nazi coordinated mass riots across Germany and Austria.

With each new generation, we lament the fact that they don’t seem to know basic facts and information, such as the current vice president or who won the Civil War. Anything beyond last week is ancient history to them, but there are many events in our collective past that are necessary and proper to remember.
That is why we (the Catholic Jewish Dialogue of Collier County) hold a Kristallnacht Commemoration each year on the Sunday closest to the historical date of 11/9/38.

was again a huge success! Twenty-one countries were represented. A special “thank you” to the Events Committee, one of the pillars of stewardship at St. Agnes. They gathered their army of fellow stewards to present a spectacular International Festival. The cuisine from various countries was incredibly delicious. The dancing and performances as well as the music was a blessing of Time and Talent gifted to many of our parishioners, which they so gracefully shared with all of us. God Bless St. Agnes and our multi-cultural Parish.
Several weeks ago Fr. Bob, Fr. Luis, Deacon Roberto, and several members of the Stewardship Committee (Dominick and Rita Cauvuto, Lisa Dahn and Barbara Sowa) attended the International Catholic Stewardship Conference in New Orleans. There, St. Agnes was one of four parishes presented a special certification in Stewardship.

Why is this important for everyone? It recognizes the fruit of our actions from seeds that were planted long ago and shed light on the real meaning of stewardship. Through our Baptism we become adopted sons and daughters of God and begin growing as disciples of Jesus. As such we are called to give back to Him our talents, time and treasure in a spirit of generosity. We have each been given some talent. We are all blessed with the same amount of time each day. And while the amount may be different for each individual, sacrificial giving is dear to our Lord as he shared in the parable of the poor widow who gave two small copper coins from her want. A family that works, prays, plays and attends to each other’s needs understands what love is, and answers needs before being asked. When a parish family does likewise, we call it stewardship.

We can congratulate ourselves for being one of four parishes in the country that received this Stewardship Award, but this International Catholic Stewardship Council designation comes with a new challenge. We will mentor other parishes in the spirituality of stewardship, a way of life that invites us to recognize and share all that we are and all that we have with an “attitude of gratitude.”

Gloria Carter, our Stewardship Coordinator, was instrumental in helping attain this recognition through the entry she prepared, but so is every one of our stewards, parishioners and staff who have distinguished themselves by what they have done. We could not have achieved it without everyone’s participation in our parish. Keep being the welcoming and generous community that we are, and in a few years we will try and attain the next and highest recognition, the Murphy Award, which is given to one parish in the world for excellence in stewardship. We don’t do what we do here for awards, but it is good to know that we are on the right track according to stewardship leaders in the Catholic world, and exciting to be challenged to reach new heights in service of our Lord who calls each of us by name. May we be true to our baptismal call, and encourage others to join us in growing in our life of Catholic stewardship.
The Called & Gifted Workshop is a two-day live presentation which will include Church Teaching on the laity and lay apostleship; the nature of spiritual gifts, call, and vocation, and How to undertake the process of discernment.

- You have received gifts, through Baptism and Confirmation for the ways God intends his love to reach out to others through you. Come and discover these gifts!
- Discern your call....What is your vocation?
- God is calling you to a unique purpose in life. A work of love that only you can do. Come and begin to discover this work!

¡Santifique las horas de su día!

Es el secreto mejor guardado del tesoro espiritual de la Iglesia. Es tan antiguo como la Iglesia misma, la Liturgia de las Horas, (también conocida como Breviario) es un ciclo repetido de salmos, lecturas de la Biblia y oraciones, ajustadas a las festividades y ciclos del año litúrgico.

La Liturgia de las Horas nos ofrece varios espacios cortos durante el día para santificar cada fase del mismo, y para refrescar nuestras almas con la riqueza de la Escritura y la Tradición.

El Papa Benedicto nos dijo,
“Yo deseo renovar mi llamado a que todos oren con los Salmos para estar familiarizados con la Liturgia de las Horas, los Laudes, Las Vesperas y las Completas”.
(11/2011 Audiencia)

Por demasiado tiempo los católicos han estado intimidados por una idea obsoleta que la Liturgia de las Horas es solo para el clero y los religiosos, o por la falta de orientación clara para rezar el breviario. Los breviarios digitales en línea hace ahora esta oración fácil y al alcance de todos.
Por favor Harne al Diácono Roberto al 239-592-1949 o envíe un correo a deaconroberto@stagnesnaptles.org si:

1. Usted utiliza o ha utilizado la Liturgia de las Horas o
2. No la ha utilizado, pero desea conocer acerca de ella.

DIOSES ESTÁ CON NOSOTROS

El libro de la Sabiduría nos dice que el Espíritu de Dios está en todas las cosas. ¡Qué maravilloso pensamiento! ¡Qué maravillosa imagen para tenerla frente a nosotros mientras vamos por el camino de la vida! Si el camino se revela al andar, es bueno saber que Dios está con nosotros —y alrededor de nosotros— a cada paso.

Pero Pablo sabe que esta divina presencia no es timida. En vez de eso, Dios nos llama, y Pablo ruega que nosotros, junto con los tesalonicenses, nos hagamos dignos de ese llamado. ¡Y quién sabe más acerca del llamado de Dios que Zaqueo, el recaudador de impuestos! Todos sabemos que Jesús lo llamó que bajara nada menos que de un árbol, por su bien. Tal vez más correctamente, al reflexionar en el final de la lectura del Evangelio de hoy, podríamos decir que para bien del cielo.
