Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Hope and Forgiveness

There were some interesting conceptions of sin prevalent in the time of the Hebrew scriptures. There was the belief that God punished sin immediately. Those who suffered disease or misfortune were, therefore, sinners getting their due from the Almighty.

Today’s first reading hints at another kind of God. When David admits his sin, Nathan declares, “The LORD on his part has forgiven your sin” (2 Samuel 12:13b). Here was not a vengeful God but a merciful God. What good news that must have been to David and those who, like him, could be honest enough to admit their sinfulness!

Jesus is the good news of God’s mercy and forgiveness incarnate. Without Jesus, perhaps the good news would have been too good to believe, too difficult to imagine. But there he is in today’s Gospel, the God-man, forgiving a sinner and declaring that she is forgiven because of her great love.

There is hope, then, for the rest of us sinners, if only we love enough!

We need your help to keep our records current. If there are any births, deaths, marriages, moves, etc. in your family, please notify the office.

Pray for Peace and Safety:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God’s blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

Ordination Mass

Deacon Charles Ruoff, who spent some time with us last summer, is being Ordained to the Priesthood at Epiphany Cathedral in Venice on Saturday, June 18 at 11 a.m. All are welcome to attend this important event and to pray for and support our newest priests.

With prayerful thanksgiving for his safe return, we have taken Luis Cosenza, USN off the list of military personnel serving our country overseas. We have been informed that he has returned home safely.

Year of Mercy Reflection

“We need an openness to expanding our hearts. It is precisely shame and repentance that expands a small, selfish heart, since they give space to God to forgive us. What does it mean to open and expand one’s heart? First, it means acknowledging ourselves to be sinners and not looking to what others have done. And from here, the basic question becomes: ‘Who am I to judge this? Who am I to gossip about this? Who am I, who have done the same things, or worse?’ You can receive far more if you have a big heart!”

— Pope Francis
ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 2 Samuel 12:7-10, 13
Second Reading: Galatians 2:16, 19-21
Gospel: Luke 7:36 — 8:3 [7:36-50]

Adults: Whom does your Christian faith call you to forgive right now? How hard will this be for you? ¿A quién te llama a perdonar tu fe cristiana en estos momentos? ¿Qué tan difícil sería esto para ti?
Children: When is it hard for you to forgive someone who has hurt you? What can help you forgive? ¿Cuándo te es difícil perdonar a alguien que te ha herido? ¿Qué te ayuda a perdonar?

Parish Councils and Committees

Without morals a republic cannot subsist any length of time; they therefore who are decrying the Christian religion, whose morality is so sublime and pure...are undermining the solid foundation of morals, the best security for the duration of free governments.

As a Catholic Christian community, we are called through Baptism to serve one another. One of the many ways we can be available to others is through prayer. We all have had many experiences where someone has asked us to pray for them as they have surgery, job interviews, worries about a sick family member, etc. We are in the process of setting up a prayer chain for Saint Agnes. This will formalize the opportunity for parishioners to request prayers and for many of us to pray for our fellow parishioners and their requests.

• If you would like to make yourself available to pray, there will be a link on the homepage of our website www.stagnesnaples.org to sign up with your email address.
• If you have a prayer request, please send them to me, Deacon Henry at deaconhenry@stagnesnaples.org. I will forward them to the prayer chain.
• Please keep the prayer requests fairly simple. Try to avoid adding too much private detail. God knows who we are praying for. For example you might request, “please pray for my close friend, Sally, who is having surgery next week.”

Gathering prayer requests was one of the earliest functions of deacons in the Church. We look forward to continuing this great Christian tradition of praying for one another.
Recently returned from the Knights of Columbus State Convention in Orlando as the Diocesan Chaplain for Venice. There our Knights received well-earned recognition for their hard work and contributions to our parish and community. Our Council received many awards, listed on the Knights page in this bulletin. Congratulations to Worthy Sir Knight Walter Howell for receiving the State Deputy Special Service Award at the annual awards banquet. Walter not only negotiated an improved general liability policy for the state as the skilled insurance expert he is, he also previously coordinated the Florida component of the Knights’ “Keep Christ in Christmas Campaign” as well as numerous other projects. Thanks to all the Knights of Columbus for their efforts, and to our parishioners who contribute to the many worthwhile activities of the Knights here.

The downside to being away was missing the second annual Corpus Christi procession led by Fr. Jan. The positive feedback from a well-attended and prayerful devotion that many of you experienced after the 9:00 am Mass brought joy to my heart. It did not just end there, as the Memorial Day Mass and Commemoration celebrated by Fr. Orsi was also well attended and allowed us to show our patriotic love for our country and its military members who gave the last full measure of service to preserve the freedoms we enjoy as Americans. We laid a wreath at the Columbarium in remembrance of all our fallen heroes.

The ordination of Deacon Chuck Ruoff is scheduled for Saturday, June 18th at the Epiphany Cathedral in Venice at 11:00 a.m. Deacon Chuck was assigned to St. Agnes last summer as a seminarian prior to his ordination to the transitional diaconate. If you have never attended an ordination you may want to make the trip to Venice and see one of the most beautiful liturgies of the Church.

If you are available this Monday for our designated St. Agnes day, take some time to go to the sidewalks outside Planned Parenthood for our prayer vigil. Your prayers do make a difference!

Last but not least, if you have not done so yet, make sure you sign your kids up for our Vacation Bible School. This year’s theme is “Cave Quest - Following Jesus, the Light of the World!” This is a beautiful way to introduce young children to the Word of God.
During the 2016 Fortnight for Freedom, the Diocese of Venice is hosting two prayer services for Religious Freedom followed by a Movie Night featuring the movie “Risen”, the story of a Roman soldier who witnessed the execution of Jesus. During his mission his doubts of a supernatural occurrence peel away as he encounters the Apostles and other historic biblical characters and bears witness to the legendary storied events that follow the Resurrection.

The Ad Hoc Committee on Religious Liberty of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) issued a document, “Our First, Most Cherished Liberty,” outlining the bishops’ concerns over threats to religious freedom, both at home and abroad. The bishops called for a “Fortnight for Freedom,” a 14-day period of prayer, education and action in support of religious freedom, from June 21-July 4.

The fourteen days from June 21—the vigil of the Feasts of St. John Fisher and St. Thomas More—to July 4, Independence Day, are dedicated to this “fortnight for freedom”—a great hymn of prayer for our country. Our liturgical calendar celebrates a series of great martyrs who remained faithful in the face of persecution by political power—St. John Fisher and St. Thomas More, St. John the Baptist, SS. Peter and Paul, and the First Martyrs of the Church of Rome. Culminating on Independence Day, this special period of prayer, study, catechesis, and public action would emphasize both our Christian and American heritage of liberty.

Events at St. Agnes
- June 21st, Prayer for Religious Freedom will be recited at each Mass.
- June 27th, Prayer service and showing of the movie Risen in the Parish Hall from 6-8 p.m.
- July 3rd there will be a Eucharistic Holy Hour in the Church one hour before the 5 p.m. Mass.

Bishop Frank J. Dewane is once again calling on the Diocese of Venice to join Catholic Archdioceses across the United States to raise awareness for domestic and international religious freedom concerns during the fourth annual Fortnight for Freedom, Tuesday, June 21 to Monday, July 4. The theme of this two week focus is “Witnesses to Freedom,” and emphasizes reflecting upon the lives of more than 14 women and men of faith, from all over the world, who bear witness to authentic freedom in Christ. The faithful are encouraged to reinforce their commitment to prayer, to study the Church’s teaching, and to participate in peaceful public action during the Fortnight.

Religious Freedom prayer cards will be available in the Narthex to encourage daily prayer during the fortnight.

Please join us in prayer for our country during this fortnight.

The Jesuit Guide to (Almost) Everything

by Fr. James Martin, S. J. The Jesuit Guide to (Almost) Everything by the Reverend James Martin, SJ (My Life with the Saints) is a practical spiritual guidebook based on the life and teachings of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Society of Jesus. Centered around the Ignatian goal of “finding God in all things,” The Jesuit Guide to Almost Everything shows us how to manage relationships, money, work, prayer, and decision-making, all while keeping a sense of humor. Filled with user-friendly examples, humorous stories, and anecdotes from the heroic and inspiring lives of Jesuit saints and average priests and brothers, The Jesuit Guide to Almost Everything is sure to appeal to fans of Kathleen Norris, Richard Rohr, Anne Lamott, and other Christian Spiritual writers. Books or Kindle edition can be purchased on Amazon.

Sisters In Spirit (SIS) is for Catholic women of all ages & stages to come together for a common goal of nurturing our lives & renewing our spirits through Study, Inspiration & Sisterhood. Contact: Ivy O’Malley at ivy@StAgnesNaples.org

Called to be Stewards
What it means to receive and give

by Leisa Anslinger

What first comes to mind when you hear the word “stewardship”? That question has been asked throughout the United States and Canada, and in every group at least one brave person (often most of the people in the room) has exclaimed, “MONEY!” So, a group in Australia was asked and the whole group in chorus replied, “AGRICULTURE!” They have kept much more of the original meaning of the word “steward.” The steward is one who cares for the farm, livestock or vineyard of another. In fact, the good steward does not simply care for the valued property of another; the good steward nurtures it and brings it to yield with increase.

What does stewardship have to do with our lives, then? When we really think about it, we know that all we are, everything we have, all we will ever be is given to us by God. That is quite a lot to take in, isn’t it? Yet it is true. Living as a steward means that we care for and nurture all that we have been given: our very selves, our relationships, our material resources, every hour of every day we are alive. The good steward puts God first, nurtures loving relationships with family and friends, cares for one’s health, lives simply rather than being consumed by material wealth, establishes a good balance between work and leisure, and so much more. These are all aspects of living a lifestyle of stewardship. When that nurturing “yields with increase,” we find abundance overflowing: our relationships flow out to draw others in; our material resources are shared willing and with love; our care of ourselves gives us physical and emotional energy with which to be productive. Recognizing that all is given to us by God, we nurture one important thing: gratitude. In seeing that all is pure gift from God, we become grateful for the gifts we have been given.

We are created in God’s image, designed to be living representations of God on earth. Our stewardship of our lives and resources is the way we bring God’s love, care, attention and mercy to the world.

The challenge: Stewardship requires to trust in God’s care for us. We must develop a sense of gratitude and be willing to be generous as a response to all we have been given by God. Our daily decisions, from the way we use our time to the spirit with which we interact with others, take on new focus and meaning when we consider them from perspective of stewardship.

As you can see, stewardship is also a deeply spiritual way of life. Remembering that everything is pure gift from God leads us to see that Jesus is our best teacher of what it means to live as a steward. The way in which we embrace stewardship is closely tied to the way we commit ourselves to being followers of Jesus Christ. We will be called to sacrifice for the sake of others, and to give as lavishly as our loving God who has given us everything. And in this, our lives will be forever change.

¿Por qué debo inscribirme en la parroquia?
Nuestra parroquia de St. Agnes le da la bienvenida a todos, especialmente los invita a asistir a la Santa Misa. El mayor regalo de participar en la Eucaristía es el encuentro personal y sin igual con Jesús. Ese es el centro de nuestra vida y la razón más importante de nuestro trabajo.
Además, los invitamos a ser parte activa de nuestra comunidad inscribiéndose en la parroquia por los siguientes motivos:
1. Recibirá información de nuestro párroco de eventos y campañas de nuestra comunidad.
2. Nos permitirá programar con eficiencia los servicios que damos a la comunidad.
3. Al entregar sus ofrendas en sobres su asistencia a misa queda registrada.
4. Su inscripción y asistencia a misa son elementos importantes para participar en los sacramentos de nuestra Iglesia.
5. Su inscripción y participación en la misa nos dan elementos para emitir cartas a las autoridades que soliciten sus referencias.
6. Si alquila servicios en nuestra Iglesia como por ejemplo el uso de salones, tiene un precio de descuento.
7. Al final del año puede recibir una notificación de sus contribuciones, las que pueden ser descontadas de su declaración de impuestos.

El Ministerio de PAC les proporcionara la oportunidad de asistir a dos seminaris para completar su preparación como servidores cristianos.
SEMACII 25 de Junio en St. Agnes, Naples

No existirá costo de inscripción para participar en el evento pero es necesario inscribirse para participar.

IMPORTANTE: Es necesario haber asistido a un SEMAC (Seminario de Mayordomía Cristiana) nivel I con anterioridad para participar en el SEMAC II

Las inscripciones se harán en la mesa de Información de PAC a la entrada de la Iglesia.
