Fourth Sunday of Lent

Children of the Light

The future king, David, in today’s first reading, is an example of a type of character present throughout the Hebrew scriptures. He is the child born out of place (not the eldest or most favored) who ends up receiving the promise of the covenant. The spirit of God’s anointing rushes upon him. In this way, he is similar to the man born blind from today’s Gospel. David’s family and the blind man’s community did not expect the miraculous grace of God’s love to work through them. Perhaps they, too, were “blinded” by the expectations and assumptions of those around them. Yet, after being touched by God, they both came to “see” the presence of God’s will for them. Both became messengers of God’s will. That same Spirit of God’s anointing rushed upon us at our baptism; we were given a candle as a sign of our membership in the Body of Christ, the Light from Light. Our vocation, then, is to fulfill that enlightenment, that anointing, as Ephesians tells us, by living as “children of the light.”

Lord Jesus Christ, at your Last Supper you prayed to the Father that all should be one. Send your Holy Spirit upon all who bear your name and seek to serve you. Strengthen our faith in you, and lead us to love one another in humility. May we who have been reborn in one baptism be united in one faith under one Shepherd. Amen.

PRAY FOR PEACE AND SAFETY:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God’s blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

“Be still and acknowledge that I am God” (Psalm 46:10). These are words to take with us in our busy lives. We may think about stillness in contrast to our noisy world. But perhaps we can go further and keep an inner stillness even while we carry on business, teach, work in construction, make music, or organise meetings.

It is important to keep a still place in the “marketplace.” This still place is where God can dwell and speak to us. It also is the place from where we can speak in a healing way to all the people we meet in our busy days. Without that still space we start spinning. We become driven people, running all over the place without much direction. But with that stillness God can be our gentle guide in everything we think, say, or do.

ST. AGNES EASTER FLOWERS

Help us beautify our church on Easter with flowers. This is a way to remember those who could not be with us at this special time of the year and it also gives us an opportunity to honor someone very special in our lives. Fill out the form below and enclose a check in the amount selected. Please return both the form and check to the parish office or put in the collection basket. A special listing of the memorials and those honoring someone special will be in the bulletin after Easter. Thank you for your support in making our church look special during this blessed season.

CFA PROGRESS

The Catholic Faith Appeal of the Diocese of Venice provides an opportunity for all of us to respond to this inner call to give of one’s self to others. The CFA allows us the chance to assist in the good works of the Diocese throughout Southwest Florida. As you know, the money raised during this campaign helps us to cover costs for Catholic Education, Vocations and to help those in need via Catholic Charities (Soup Kitchen, Food Pantry, etc.)

We need an additional $221,000 to reach our goal of $479,000. If you have not yet pledged to the CFA please do so now by picking up a CFA envelope from the pews. Remember that your kindness and generosity helps those in need.

"Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me."

(Matt 25:40)

Gratitude, Fostering our Connection to God

“We have been given possession of an unshakable kingdom. Let us therefore be grateful and use our gratitude to worship God in the way that pleases him, in reverence and fear.”
(Hebrews 12:28)

“If the only prayer you ever say is ‘thank you,’ it will be enough. (Meister Eckhardt)

What is Gratitude? It is the foundation of all other virtues. It helps us focus on others rather than on ourselves. It allows us to look at what we have rather than on what we don’t have. It is transformational (helping us to move towards new and higher ways of being and relating) rather than conservational (encouraging us to hoard what we have, both spiritually and materially).

But how many of us truly practice it? How many of us, each day, give thanks to God for our unearned and undeserved gifts? Remember, of the ten cured lepers, only one returned to thank Jesus. And most of our prayers, inside or outside of church, are prayers of petition - asking for what we don’t have - rather than prayers of praise or thanksgiving for what we do have. For centuries, religions have tried to increase people’s sense of gratitude as an important path in spiritual development. Gratitude fosters our connection with God. However, psychological research has now shown that people who show such characteristics as gratitude, forgiveness, and optimism are more psychologically healthy than those who don’t. It will help you spiritually and psychologically to make an effort to foster a sense of gratitude in your life. The psychologist Robert Emmons has suggested keeping gratitude journals on a daily basis.

But if gratitude is so good for us, why don’t we do more of it? One of the reasons may be the constant cultural messages that bombard us (“You deserve the best,” “Have it your way”). The sense of entitlement thus fostered (“I deserve it!”) hampers expressions of gratitude. Also, people may tend towards expressions of entitlement as a way of building self-esteem (“I got what I have because I’m so good!”). There may even have been evolutionary processes that favored the survival of those who were pessimistic and guarded - they were more likely to survive long enough to contribute to the human gene pool.

Gratitude is a choice! Below is a Gratitude Survey that gives you an idea of how grateful you are. If on the last question you strongly agree you might need to make a list of all that you have!

DIRECTIONS: Please rate each of these items according to the following scale: 1 = Strongly disagree, 2 = Disagree, 3 = Slightly disagree, 4 = Neutral, 5 = Slightly agree, 6 = Agree, 7 = Strongly agree

1. I have so much in life to be thankful for.
2. If I had to list everything I felt grateful for, it would be a very long list.
3. I am grateful to a wide variety of people.
4. When I look at the world, I don’t see much to be grateful for.
5. As I get older I find myself more able to appreciate the people, events, and situations that have been part of my life history.
6. Long periods of time can go by before I feel grateful for something or to someone.

FOURTH WEEK OF LENT

CALL TO FAMILY, COMMUNITY AND PARTICIPATION
Catholic social teaching inspires and guides how we are to live and work in the world. In this principle, Call to Family, Community and Participation, we remember that human beings are social by nature—we need each other. We, like the early disciples, are called to come together and grow as a community—whether that community is in our classroom, workplace or family.

ENCOUNTER COMMUNITY
We encounter Maria in Mexico, where a community of hardworking women share joys, sorrows and fellowship while growing economic opportunity at a greenhouse. How have your communities helped you encounter Christ anew this Lent?

Visit CRSRiceBowl.org for recipes, videos, and more.

Regardless of sacraments received, faith formation and adult faith enrichment is relevant for all ages.
Sin importar los sacramentos recibidos, formacion y enriquecimiento en la fe es para todos.

CUARTA SEMANA DE CUARESMA

LLAMADO A LA FAMILIA, LA COMUNIDAD Y LA PARTICIPACION
La doctrina social católica nos guía en nuestras vidas y trabajos. En este principio, Llamado a la familia, la comunidad y la participación, recordamos que el ser humano es ser social por naturaleza—nos necesitamos mutuamente. Nosotros, al igual que los primeros discípulos, estamos llamados a unirnos y crecer como comunidad, ya sea que esa comunidad esté en nuestra aula, lugar de trabajo o en la familia.

UN ENCUENTRO CON LA COMUNIDAD
Nos encontramos con María en México, donde una comunidad de mujeres trabajadoras crea oportunidades económicas en un invernadero. ¿Cómo le han ayudado Sus comunidades a encontrar a Cristo de una nueva forma en esta Cuaresma? Visite crsplatodearroz.org para más información.

EVENTOS PARROQUIALES HISPANOS

Los días de atención a los feligreses del Padre Luis Pacheco son los jueves y viernes de 10:30 a.m. a 4:00 p.m. El Diácono Roberto Landron está disponible de lunes a Viernes. Por favor llamar a la oficina para hacer su cita. (239) 592-1949

¿POR QUÉ DEBO INSCRIBIRME EN LA PARROQUIA?

Nuestra parroquia de St. Agnes le da la bienvenida a todos, especialmente los invita a asistir a la Santa Misa. El mayor regalo de participar en la Eucaristía es el encuentro personal y sin igual con Jesús. Ese es el centro de nuestra vida y la razón más importante de nuestro trabajo.

Además, los invitamos a ser parte activa de nuestra comunidad inscribiéndose en la parroquia por los siguientes motivos:
1. Recibirá información de nuestro párroco de eventos y campañas de nuestra comunidad.
2. Nos permitirá programar con eficiencia los servicios que damos a la comunidad.
3. Al entregar sus ofrendas en sobres su asistencia a misa queda registrada.
4. Su inscripción y asistencia a misa son elementos importantes para participar en los sacramentos de nuestra Iglesia.
5. Su inscripción y participación en la misa nos da elementos para emitir cartas a las autoridades que soliciten sus referencias.
6. Si alquila servicios en nuestra Iglesia como por ejemplo el uso de salones, tiene un precio de descuento.
7. Al final del año puede recibir una notificación de sus contribuciones, las que pueden ser descontadas de su declaración de impuestos.

¡EL MINISTERIO AMIGOS DE JESÚS TE NECESITA!

¿En ocasiones es necesario que alguien les cuide a los niños para asistir a una reunión de la Iglesia? Entonces comprende el beneficio de un ministerio que se ocupe del cuidado de los niños. ¿Puede usted ser miembro de este ministerio donando una hora de su tiempo o más para cuidar nuestros niños? Los invitamos a venir a la orientación del cuidado de niños el sábado 25 de marzo de 10 a.m. a 11 a.m. para conocer cómo puede apoyar este ministerio. Puede inscribirse en el Nártex en la Mesa de Información luego de la Misa. Para más información puede contactar a Reina Reyes: giatire5@hotmail.com teléfono #537-6514

NECESITAMOS VOLUNTARIOS

El Ministerio Por Amor a Cristo te invita a servir en nuestra mesa información antes y después de cada misa. Proveemos entrenamiento.

Los interesados contactar al Diácono Roberto, Teléfono 239-592-1949 correo electrónico diaconoroberto@stagnesnaples.org o a Estela Teresita al 239-692-6054
