Divine Mercy

A Season of Joy

“They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers” (Acts 2:42). This first line of today’s first reading sets the tone as this fifty-day celebration of Easter opens before us. Today we listen to the teachings of three apostles—Luke, Peter, and John—who remind us that even though we have not seen Christ, we nonetheless are filled with joy as we place our belief in his saving death and resurrection. Each week during the Easter season we will gather as a community of faith to find strength and support from our God and from one another. Each week we will gather to break bread and offer the great prayer of thanksgiving, actions that will manifest the very presence of the risen Christ in our midst.

Let us be open to the wonders of this season of joy.

Spiritual leadership is the leadership of the Good Shepherd. As Jesus says, good shepherds know their sheep, and their sheep know them (see John 10:14). There must be a true mutuality between shepherds and their sheep. Good leaders know their own, and their own know them. Between them is mutual trust, mutual openness, mutual care, and mutual love. To follow our leaders we cannot be afraid of them, and to lead our followers we need their encouragement and support.

Jesus calls himself the Good Shepherd to show the great intimacy that must exist between leaders and those entrusted to them. Without such intimacy, leadership easily becomes oppressive.

-Henri Nouwen
The Catholic Faith Appeal of the Diocese of Venice provides an opportunity for all of us to respond to this inner call to give of one's self to others. The CFA allows us the chance to assist in the good works of the Diocese throughout Southwest Florida. As you know, the money raised during this campaign helps us to cover costs for Catholic Education, Vocations and to help those in need via Catholic Charities (Soup Kitchen, Food Pantry, etc.).

We need an additional $95,521 to reach our goal of $479,000. If you have not yet pledged to the CFA please do so now by picking up a CFA envelope from the pews. Remember that your kindness and generosity helps those in need.

"Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me."

There are over 800 hungry and homeless children in the Collier County public schools. With our Choice Food Pantry, our Weekend Power Pack Food Program, and our Empowerment Program that gives families a “hand up” to self-sustainability, we provide services to those who need it most.
Origin of Divine Mercy Sunday

Saint Faustina: Mankind’s need for the message of Divine Mercy took on dire urgency in the 20th Century, when civilization began to experience and “eclipse of the sense of God” and, therefore to lose the understanding of the sanctity and inherent dignity of human life. In the 1930’s, Jesus chose a humble Polish nun, St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, to receive private revelations concerning divine Mercy that were recorded in her Diary. Pope Saint John Paul explains:

This was precisely the time when those ideologies of evil, Nazism and communism, were taking shape. Sister Faustina became the herald of the one message capable of off-setting the evil of those ideologies, that God is mercy – the truth of the merciful Christ. And for this reason, when I was called to the See of Peter, I felt impelled to pass on those experiences of a fellow Pole that deserve a place in the treasury of the universal Church. – Pope Saint John Paul II, Memory and Identity (2005)

Divine Mercy Sunday: St. Faustina’s diary records 14 occasions when Jesus requested at a Feast of Mercy (Divine mercy Sunday) be observed, for example:

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the Fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.... Let no soul fear to draw near to Me...It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My mercy. (Diary, no 699)

On May 5, 2000, five days after the canonization of St. Faustina, the Vatican decreed that the Second Sunday of Easter would henceforth be known as Divine Mercy Sunday.

The Image: Jesus appeared to St. Faustina in a vision with his right hand raised in a blessing and this left touching his garment above his heart. Red and white rays emanate from his heart, symbolizing the blood and water that was poured out for our salvation and our sanctification. The Lord requested that “Jesus, I trust in You” be inscribed under his image. Jesus asked that this image be painted and venerated throughout the world: “I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish” Diary, no. 48) and “By means of this image I will grant many graces to souls” (Diary, no.742)

“Acudían asiduamente a escuchar las enseñanzas de los apóstoles, vivían en comunión fraterna y se congregaban para orar en común y celebrar la fracción del pan” (Hechos 2:42). La primera línea de la primera lectura de hoy marca la pauta al comenzar esta celebración de Pascua de cincuenta días. Hoy escuchamos las enseñanzas de tres apóstoles –Lucas, Pedro y Juan– que nos recuerdan que, aunque no hayamos visto a Cristo, estamos llenos de alegría al depositar nuestra creencia en su muerte y resurrección salvadoras.

Cada semana durante el tiempo de Pascua nos reuniremos como comunidad de fe para hallar fuerzas y apoyo de nuestro Dios y de los demás. Cada semana nos reuniremos para fraccionar el pan y dar gracias en oración, acciones que manifestarán la misma presencia del Cristo resucitado entre nosotros. Estemos abiertos a los milagros de este tiempo de alegría.

Te invitamos a un día de reflexión y análisis para crecer en la fe. Reserva la fecha:

Fecha: Sábado 24 de junio
Hora: 8:30 a 4:00 pm
• Desayuno y almuerzo incluido
• Ofrecemos cuidado de niños
• No existe costo para asistir.
• Inscripciones en la mesa de información de PAC a la entrada de la Iglesia o llamando al teléfono (239) 592-1949 ext. 126 o por correo electrónico deaconroberto@stagnesnaples.org.
