Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Follow in the Footsteps of Christ

The great fifty-day celebration of Easter has concluded, as have the feasts honoring the Holy Trinity and the Body and Blood of Christ. Last week we began a long stretch of Ordinary Time that will bring us to late November. Saint Paul tells us today that those who are baptized “have clothed yourselves with Christ” (Galatians 3:27).

This scripture is echoed in the Church’s baptism ritual when we sing, “You have put on Christ, in him you have been baptized.” This message is inspiring and sobering at the same time, for in today’s Gospel, we get to the heart of what it means to be clothed in Christ. The Lord tells us, “If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me” (Luke 9:23). For the next twenty-two weeks we are called to take up the cross and, with Saint Luke as our guide, follow in the footsteps of Christ.

Pray for Peace and Safety:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God’s blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

SUPPORT YOUR KNIGHTS
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In this Jubilee Year of Mercy, the Peter’s Pence Collection is an opportunity to become a witness of charity to those who suffer most. Pope Francis has encouraged all to “Open your eyes and see the misery of the world.”

Through the Peter’s Pence Collection, one stands in solidarity with Catholics all over the world to support the charitable works of our Holy Father. Contributions to this collection provide the Holy Father with the financial means to respond with emergency assistance to those who are suffering as a result of war, oppression, religious persecution, etc.

Thank you for standing in solidarity with the Holy Father through your generosity. In addition, please continue to pray for our brothers and sisters in faith who are facing adversity.

The Diocese of Venice is scheduled to hold the Peter’s Pence Collection on the weekend of June 25-26, 2016. Your past support of this collection has ensured that the Successor of Peter is able to respond to those most in need throughout our world. Please consider participating in this collection and becoming a witness of charity, a force of mercy that reaches out to those around the world.

I take this opportunity to extend to you my continued consideration and my prayers!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane

POPCORN AND SOFT DRINKS PROVIDED
ADMISSION IS FREE

EVENTS AT ST. AGNES
- June 27th, Prayer service and showing of the movie Risen in the Parish Hall from 6-8 p.m.
- July 3rd there will be a Eucharistic Holy Hour in the Church one hour before the 5 p.m. Mass.

The fourteen days from June 21—the vigil of the Feasts of St. John Fisher and St. Thomas More—to July 4, Independence Day, are dedicated to this “fortnight for freedom”—a great hymn of prayer for our country. Our liturgical calendar celebrates a series of great martyrs who remained faithful in the face of persecution by political power—St. John Fisher and St. Thomas More, St. John the Baptist, SS. Peter and Paul, and the First Martyrs of the Church of Rome. Culminating on Independence Day, this special period of prayer, study, catechesis, and public action would emphasize both our Christian and American heritage of liberty.

Religious Freedom prayer cards will be available in the Narthex to encourage daily prayer during the fortnight. Please join us in prayer for our country during this fortnight.
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“For freedom Christ has set us free” (Galatians 5: 1).

Once again the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) calls upon Catholics, along with all men and women of good will, to prayerfully participate in the “2016 Fortnight for Freedom” in our country. The Fortnight for Freedom is a designated time of fourteen days leading up to July 4th and consists of increased prayer directed toward the preservation and promotion of religious liberty.

Various opportunities to gather and support efforts for religious freedom will be held in the Diocese of Venice in Florida, which will involve prayer services, viewings of the movie “Risen” and a closing Mass. Parish-based initiatives are being planned by certain parishes as well.

To celebrate the occasion, two prayer services and movie nights are planned in the Diocese. All are welcome and snacks will be provided.

The first Diocesan prayer service will be held on Friday, June 24, 2016 at Epiphany Cathedral, which will be from 7-9 p.m. The second prayer service will be hosted at St. Agnes Church in Naples, on Monday June 27, 2016 from 6-8 p.m. There will be an optional showing of “Risen” after each brief service. The movie “Risen” is PG13 and depicts a fictional story about a Roman Centurion’s encounter with the Risen Lord, which is contrasted with the historically aggressive actions of the Roman Government.

Please join me at a closing Mass to witness to the importance of religious freedom is also scheduled to be held at Epiphany Cathedral on July 3, 2016 at 5:30 pm. A Diocesan sponsored picnic will follow after the Mass. The involvement of Faithful in prayer services and activities surrounding the “2016 Fortnight for Freedom” is strongly encouraged and appreciated.

Thank you all for your continued perseverance in the Faith and know that you and your families are in my prayers daily. Please remember to pray for me as well, that I may minister to you with grace and charity in this Jubilee Year of Mercy.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

ST. AGNES PRAYER CHAIN

As a Catholic Christian community, we are called through Baptism to serve one another. One of the many ways we can be available to others is through prayer. We all have had many experiences where someone has asked us to pray for them as they have surgery, job interviews, worries about a sick family member, etc. We are in the process of setting up a prayer chain for Saint Agnes. This will formalize the opportunity for parishioners to request prayers and for many of us to pray for our fellow parishioners and their requests.

- If you would like to make yourself available to pray, there will be a link on the homepage of our website www.stagnesnapples.org to sign up with your email address.
- If you have a prayer request, please send them to me, Deacon Henry at deaconhenry@stagnesnapples.org. I will forward them to the prayer chain.
- Please keep the prayer requests fairly simple. Try to avoid adding too much private detail. God knows who we are praying for. For example you might request, “Please pray for my close friend, Sally, who is having surgery next week.”

Gathering prayer requests was one of the earliest functions of deacons in the Church. We look forward to continuing this great Christian tradition of praying for one another.
Called to Gratitude

What it means to live gratefully

by Leisa Anslinger

When “thank you” doesn’t say it all.

A few years ago my husband, Steve, rediscovered the hobby of woodworking. He spent hours in our garage one spring carefully cutting boards and piecing them together. Little by little, a cabinet began to take shape, and he told me he planned for it to be our gift to his mother for her birthday. Hour upon hour, day upon day, I watched as he built the cabinet. It was beautiful, and I was anxious to see this mother’s reaction to this gift of love. Then, one Sunday afternoon returning home from an errand our daughter seemed very anxious for me to go into the house. When I did, I was stunned and fell silent. The cabinet was for me, donned with a silver ribbon to mark our twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. I must have said “thank you” a dozen times and yet, the expression seemed inadequate. My heart was so full that words could not capture the emotion, not only for the cabinet, which has a beautiful place in our home, but more for the care and love with which the cabinet had been crafted. When I see it, I am still filled with gratitude.

What does gratitude have to do with our lives and faith, then?

Sometimes it is difficult for us to grasp that all we are and have are gifts from God. So thinking about a time in which we have been moved with gratitude helps us to apply that realization to life and faith. Developing an “attitude of gratitude” changes the way in which we perceive daily life, and helps us to recognize God’s place in it.

Living gratefully calls us to be aware of our blessings, even in moments of difficulty. For example, those who struggle with physical illness may be challenged at times to be grateful, until they think about the skill of their doctor or the companionship of a friend. Living gratefully helps us to see God’s hand in our lives. We might otherwise miss the awareness of God’s presence by being caught in the constant seeking for more, better, or bigger that is such a tendency for humans.

The challenge: Growing in gratitude is simple, but for most of us, it takes conscious effort.

Let’s get practical. Each time we are tempted to whine, to focus on what we want, or to look at all that is not the way we wish it were we must turn our minds instead toward the many ways in which we have been blessed. Over time, this gratefulness-mindset becomes more natural.

Let’s be spiritual. Recognizing God as the giver of every good gift and being mindful of our blessings each day changes our inner life with God and our interactions with others.

We are more likely to be satisfied with what we have, rather than seeking what we do not have; we will be more content in the present, and more hopeful for the future. When gratitude marks our way of life, we truly embody the Eucharist (the very word means to give thanks). Coming to Mass aware of all we have to be thankful for opens our minds and hearts to the fullness of Christ’s presence with us. We gather as members of Christ’s Body, aware of our many blessings, the greatest of which is Christ’s gift of new life and union with God, poured out in word and sacrament around the Eucharistic table.

All events are in the Youth Room of the Parish Center located behind the main church.
¿Cómo recibir la comunión?

Nuestro Señor nos invitó a alimentarnos de El cuando dijo “Yo soy el pan de vida. El que venga a mí, no tendrá hambre, el que crea en mí no tendrá nunca sed” Juan 6,35. Luego en la última cena nos dijo “este es mi cuerpo” y luego “esta es mi sangre”.

El cuerpo consagrado de Jesús exige la mayor reverencia y respeto, estamos en presencia de Dios auténtico y verdadero, Rey de reyes y Señor de señores. Le recordamos:

1. El cuerpo de Cristo debe ser consumido delante del sacerdote o ministro de la Eucaristía que lo entrega.
2. Cuando el ministro dice: “el cuerpo de Cristo” decimos en voz alta “Amén” que expresa claramente que creemos que estamos en presencia del cuerpo de Cristo.
3. Para recibir la sangre y el cuerpo de Cristo debemos estar en estado de gracia.

Dice San Pablo en I Corintios 11,27-29: “Quien coma el pan o beba la copa del Señor indignamente, será reo del Cuerpo y de la Sangre del Señor. Examínese, pues, cada cual y coma así el pan y beba de la copa. Pues quien come y bebe sin discernir el Cuerpo, come y bebe su propio castigo”.

El Ministerio de PAC les proporcionara la oportunidad de asistir a dos seminarios para completar su preparación como servidores cristianos.

SEMAC II 25 de Junio en St. Agnes, Naples

No existirá costo de inscripción para participar en el evento pero es necesario inscribirse para participar.

IMPORTANTE: Es necesario haber asistido a un SEMAC (Seminario de Mayordomía Cristiana) nivel I con anterioridad para participar en el SEMAC II

Las inscripciones se harán en la mesa de Información de PAC a la entrada de la Iglesia.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
